

OFFERING CIRCULAR

Aker BP ASA

(incorporated as a public limited liability company under the laws of Norway)

€3,000,000,000

Euro Medium Term Note Programme

Under this €3,000,000,000 Euro Medium Term Note Programme (the Programme), Aker BP ASA (the Issuer) may from time to time issue notes (the Notes) denominated in any currency agreed between the Issuer and the relevant Dealer (as defined below). Notes may be issued in bearer or registered form (respectively Bearer Notes and Registered Notes). The maximum aggregate nominal amount of all Notes from time to time outstanding under the Programme will not exceed €3,000,000,000 (or its equivalent in other currencies calculated as described in the Programme Agreement described herein), subject to increase as described herein.

The Notes may be issued on a continuing basis to one or more of the Dealers specified under “Overview of the Programme” and any additional Dealer appointed under the Programme from time to time by the Issuer (each a Dealer and together the Dealers), which appointment may be for a specific issue or on an ongoing basis. References in this Offering Circular to the relevant Dealer shall, in the case of an issue of Notes being (or intended to be) subscribed by more than one Dealer, be to all Dealers agreeing to subscribe such Notes.

An investment in Notes issued under the Programme involves certain risks. For a discussion of these risks see “Risk Factors”.

This Offering Circular has been approved as a base prospectus by the Commission de Surveillance du Secteur Financier (the CSSF), as competent authority under Regulation (EU) 2017/1129 (the Prospectus Regulation). The CSSF only approves this Offering Circular as meeting the standards of completeness, comprehensibility and consistency imposed by the Prospectus Regulation. Approval by the CSSF should not be considered as an endorsement of the Issuer or of the quality of the Notes. Investors should make their own assessment as to the suitability of investing in the Notes.

By approving this Offering Circular, in accordance with Article 20 of the Prospectus Regulation, the CSSF assumes no responsibility for the economic and financial soundness of the transactions contemplated by this Offering Circular or the quality or solvency of the Issuer. Application has been made to the Luxembourg Stock Exchange for Notes issued under the Programme to be admitted to trading on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange's regulated market and to be listed on the Official List of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange.

References in this Offering Circular to Notes being listed (and all related references) shall mean that such Notes have been admitted to trading on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange's regulated market and have been admitted to the Official List of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange. The Luxembourg Stock Exchange's regulated market is a regulated market for the purposes of the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (Directive 2014/65/EU).

This Offering Circular (as supplemented as at the relevant time, if applicable) is valid for 12 months from its date (up to and including 22 May 2027) in relation to Notes which are to be admitted to trading on a regulated market in the European Economic Area (the EEA). The obligation to supplement this Offering Circular in the event of a significant new factor, material mistake or material inaccuracy does not apply when this Offering Circular is no longer valid.

The requirement to publish a prospectus under the Prospectus Regulation only applies to Notes which are to be admitted to trading on a regulated market in the EEA and/or offered to the public in the EEA other than in circumstances where an exemption is available under Article 1(4) and/or 3(2) of the Prospectus Regulation. References in this Offering Circular to Exempt Notes are to Notes for which no prospectus is required to be published under the Prospectus Regulation. The CSSF has neither approved nor reviewed information contained in this Offering Circular in connection with Exempt Notes.

Notice of the aggregate nominal amount of Notes, interest (if any) payable in respect of Notes, the issue price of Notes and certain other information which is applicable to each Tranche (as defined under “Terms and Conditions of the Notes”) of Notes will (other than in the case of Exempt Notes, as defined above) be set out in a final terms document (the Final Terms) which will be filed with the CSSF.

Copies of Final Terms in relation to Notes to be listed on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange will also be published on the website of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange (www.luxse.com). In the case of Exempt Notes, notice of the aggregate nominal amount of Notes, interest (if any) payable in respect of Notes, the issue price of Notes and certain other information which is applicable to each Tranche will be set out in a pricing supplement document (the Pricing Supplement).

The Programme provides that Notes may be listed or admitted to trading, as the case may be, on such other or further stock exchanges or markets as may be agreed between the Issuer and the relevant Dealer. The Issuer may also issue unlisted Notes and/or Notes not admitted to trading on any market.

The Notes have not been and will not be registered under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act) or any U.S. State securities laws and may not be offered or sold in the United States or to, or for the account or the benefit of, U.S. persons as defined in Regulation S under the Securities Act unless an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act is available and in accordance with all applicable securities laws of any state of the United States and any other jurisdiction. See “Form of the Notes” for a description of the manner in which Notes will be issued.

The Issuer has been rated BBB (stable outlook) by S&P Global Ratings Europe Limited (S&P), Baa2 (stable outlook) by Moody’s Investors Service Limited (Moody’s) and BBB (stable outlook) by Fitch Ratings Limited (Fitch).

S&P is established in the EEA and is registered under Regulation (EC) No. 1060/2009 (as amended) (the CRA Regulation). As such, S&P is included in the list of credit rating agencies published by the European Securities and Markets Authority (ESMA) on its website (at <https://www.esma.europa.eu/supervision/credit-rating-agencies/risk>) in accordance with the CRA Regulation. S&P is not established in the United Kingdom (UK) and has not applied for registration under Regulation (EC) No. 1060/2009 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 (the EUWA) (the UK CRA Regulation). Accordingly the ratings issued by S&P have been endorsed by S&P Global Ratings UK Limited in accordance with the UK CRA Regulation and have not been withdrawn. S&P Global Ratings UK Limited is established in the UK and registered under the UK CRA Regulation.

Each of Moody’s and Fitch is established in the UK and is registered under the UK CRA Regulation. Neither Moody’s nor Fitch is established in the EEA and neither Moody’s nor Fitch has applied for registration under the CRA Regulation. Accordingly, the ratings issued by Moody’s and Fitch have been endorsed by Moody’s Deutschland GmbH and Fitch Ratings Ireland Limited, respectively in accordance with the CRA Regulation and have not been withdrawn. Each of Moody’s Deutschland GmbH and Fitch Ratings Ireland Limited is established in the EEA and registered under the CRA Regulation. As such each of Moody’s Deutschland GmbH and Fitch Ratings Ireland Limited is included in the list of credit rating agencies published by ESMA on its website (at <https://www.esma.europa.eu/supervision/credit-rating-agencies/risk>) in accordance with the CRA Regulation.

Notes issued under the Programme may be rated or unrated by any one or more of the rating agencies referred to above. Where a Tranche of Notes is rated, such rating will be disclosed in the Final Terms (or Pricing Supplement, in the case of Exempt Notes) and will not necessarily be the same as the rating assigned to the Issuer by the relevant rating agency. A security rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to suspension, reduction or withdrawal at any time by the assigning rating agency.

Amounts payable on Floating Rate Notes will be calculated by reference to one of the euro interbank offered rate (EURIBOR), Norwegian interbank offered rate (NIBOR) or Stockholm interbank offered rate (STIBOR) as specified in the relevant Final Terms. ## IMPORTANT INFORMATION

This Offering Circular comprises a base prospectus in respect of all Notes other than Exempt Notes issued under the Programme for the purposes of Article 8 of the Prospectus Regulation. When used in this Offering Circular, Prospectus Regulation means Regulation (EU) 2017/1129.

The Issuer accepts responsibility for the information contained in this Offering Circular and the Final Terms for each Tranche of Notes issued under the Programme. To the best of the knowledge of the Issuer (having taken all reasonable care to ensure that such is the case) the information contained in this Offering Circular is in accordance with the facts and does not omit anything likely to affect the import of such information.

This Offering Circular is to be read in conjunction with all information which is deemed to be incorporated in it by reference (see “Documents Incorporated by Reference”). This Offering Circular shall be read and construed on the basis that such information is incorporated in and forms part of this Offering Circular.

Other than in relation to the information which is deemed to be incorporated by reference (see “Documents Incorporated by Reference”), the information on the websites to which this Offering Circular refers does not form part of this Offering Circular and has not been scrutinised or approved by the CSSF.

The Issuer confirms that, where information has been sourced from a third party, such information has been accurately reproduced and that, so far as the Issuer is aware, and is able to ascertain from information published by those sources, no facts have been omitted which would render the reproduced information inaccurate or misleading.

The Dealers have not independently verified the information contained herein. Accordingly, no representation, warranty or undertaking, express or implied, is made and no responsibility or liability is accepted by the Dealers as to the accuracy or completeness of the information contained or incorporated in this Offering Circular or any other information provided by the Issuer in connection with the Programme. No Dealer accepts any liability in relation to the information contained or incorporated by reference in this Offering Circular or any other information provided by the Issuer in connection with the Programme.

No person is or has been authorised by the Issuer to give any information or to make any representation not contained in or not consistent with this Offering Circular or any other information supplied in connection with the Programme or the Notes and, if given or made, such information or representation must not be relied upon as having been authorised by the Issuer or any of the Dealers.

Neither this Offering Circular nor any other information supplied in connection with the Programme or any Notes (a) is intended to provide the basis of any credit or other evaluation or (b) should be considered as a recommendation by the Issuer or any of the Dealers that any recipient of this Offering Circular or any other information supplied in connection with the Programme or any Notes should purchase any Notes. Each investor contemplating purchasing any Notes should make its own independent investigation of the financial condition and affairs, and its own appraisal of the creditworthiness, of the Issuer and the Issuer and its consolidated subsidiaries taken as a whole (the Group). Neither this Offering Circular nor any other information supplied in connection with the Programme or the issue of any Notes constitutes an offer or invitation by or on behalf of the Issuer or any of the Dealers to any person to subscribe for or to purchase any Notes.

Neither the delivery of this Offering Circular nor the offering, sale or delivery of any Notes shall in any circumstances imply that the information contained in it concerning the Issuer or the Group is correct at any time subsequent to its date or that any other information supplied in connection with the Programme is correct as of any time subsequent to the date indicated in the document containing the same. The Dealers expressly do not undertake to review the financial condition or affairs of the Issuer or the Group during the life of the Programme or to advise any investor in Notes issued under the Programme of any information coming to their attention.

IMPORTANT – EEA RETAIL INVESTORS – If the Final Terms in respect of any Notes (or Pricing Supplement, in the case of Exempt Notes) includes a legend entitled “Prohibition of sales to EEA Retail Investors”, the Notes are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the EEA. For these purposes, a retail investor means a person who is one (or more) of: (i) a retail client as defined in point (11) of Article 4(1) of Directive 2014/65/EU (as amended, MiFID II); or (ii) a customer within the meaning of Directive (EU) 2016/97 (the Insurance Distribution Directive), where that customer would not qualify as a professional client as defined in point (10) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II; or (iii) not a qualified investor as defined in Regulation (EU) 2017/1129 (the Prospectus Regulation). Consequently, no key information document required by Regulation (EU) No 1286/2014 (as amended, the PRIIPs Regulation) for offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the EEA has been prepared and therefore offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the EEA may be unlawful under the PRIIPs Regulation.

IMPORTANT – UK RETAIL INVESTORS – If the Final Terms in respect of any Notes (or Pricing Supplement, in the case of Exempt Notes) includes a legend entitled "Prohibition of sales to UK Retail Investors", the Notes are not intended to be offered, sold, distributed or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold, distributed or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the UK. For these purposes, a retail investor means a person who is either one (or both) of the following: (i) not a professional client, as defined in point (8) of Article 2(1) of Regulation (EU) No 600/2014 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA; or (ii) not a qualified investor as defined in paragraph 15 of Schedule 1 to the Public Offers and Admissions to Trading Regulations 2024. Consequently, no disclosure document required by the FCA Product Disclosure Sourcebook (DISC) for offering, selling or distributing the Notes or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the UK has been prepared and therefore offering, selling or distributing the Notes or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the UK may be unlawful under the DISC and the Consumer Composite Investments (Designated Activities) Regulations 2024.

MiFID II product governance / target market – The Final Terms in respect of any Notes (or Pricing Supplement, in the case of Exempt Notes) may include a legend entitled "MiFID II product governance" which will outline the target market assessment in respect of the Notes and which channels for distribution of the Notes are appropriate. Any person subsequently offering, selling or recommending the Notes (a distributor) should take into consideration the target market assessment; however, a distributor subject to MiFID II is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Notes (by either adopting or refining the target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels.

A determination will be made in relation to each issue about whether, for the purpose of the Product Governance rules under EU Delegated Directive 2017/593 (the MiFID Product Governance Rules), any Dealer subscribing for any Notes is a manufacturer in respect of such Notes, but otherwise neither the Arranger nor the Dealers nor any of their respective affiliates will be a manufacturer for the purpose of the MIFID Product Governance Rules.

UK MiFIR product governance / target market – The Final Terms in respect of any Notes (or Pricing Supplement, in the case of Exempt Notes) may include a legend entitled “UK MiFIR product governance” which will outline the target market assessment in respect of the Notes and which channels for distribution of the Notes are appropriate. Any person subsequently offering, selling or recommending the Notes (a UK distributor) should take into consideration the target market assessment; however, a UK distributor subject to the FCA Handbook Product Intervention and Product Governance Sourcebook (the UK MiFIR Product Governance Rules) is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Notes

(by either adopting or refining the target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels.

A determination will be made in relation to each issue about whether, for the purpose of the UK MiFIR Product Governance Rules, any Dealer subscribing for any Notes is a manufacturer in respect of such Notes, but otherwise neither the Arranger nor the Dealers nor any of their respective affiliates will be a manufacturer for the purpose of the UK MiFIR Product Governance Rules.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION RELATING TO THE USE OF THIS OFFERING CIRCULAR AND OFFERS OF NOTES GENERALLY

The distribution of this Offering Circular and the offer or sale of Notes may be restricted by law in certain jurisdictions. The Issuer and the Dealers do not represent that this Offering Circular may be lawfully distributed, or that any Notes may be lawfully offered, in compliance with any applicable registration or other requirements in any such jurisdiction, or pursuant to an exemption available thereunder, or assume any responsibility for facilitating any such distribution or offering. In particular, no action has been taken by the Issuer or the Dealers which is intended to permit a public offering of any Notes or distribution of this Offering Circular in any jurisdiction where action for that purpose is required. Accordingly, no Notes may be offered or sold, directly or indirectly, and neither this Offering Circular nor any advertisement or other offering material may be distributed or published in any jurisdiction, except under circumstances that will result in compliance with any applicable laws and regulations. Persons into whose possession this Offering Circular or any Notes may come must inform themselves about, and observe, any such restrictions on the distribution of this Offering Circular and the offering and sale of Notes. In particular, there are restrictions on the distribution of this Offering Circular and the offer or sale of Notes in the United States, the EEA (including Belgium and the Kingdom of Norway), the UK, Japan and Singapore, see “Subscription and Sale”.

The consolidated financial statements of the Issuer as of and for the years ended 31 December 2024 (the 2024 Financial Statements) and 31 December 2025 (the 2025 Financial Statements and, together with the 2024 Financial Statements, the Financial Statements) have been prepared in accordance with IFRS Accounting Standards as adopted by the European Union (the EU) (IFRS) and the Norwegian Accounting Act. PricewaterhouseCoopers AS has issued unqualified audit opinion on each of the 2024 and 2025 Financial Statements. ### Certain Defined Terms and Conventions

Capitalised terms which are used but not defined in any particular section of this Offering Circular will have the meaning attributed to them in “Terms and Conditions of the Notes” or any other section of this Offering Circular. In addition, the following terms as used in this Offering Circular have the meanings defined below:

In this Offering Circular, all references to:

- U.S. dollars, U.S.$, USD and $ refer to United States dollars;

- Norwegian kroner and NOK refer to Norwegian kroner;
- Sterling and £ refer to pounds sterling; and
- euro and € refer to the currency introduced at the start of the third stage of European economic and monetary union pursuant to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, as amended.

References to a billion are to a thousand million.

Certain figures and percentages included in this Offering Circular have been subject to rounding adjustments; accordingly, figures shown in the same category presented in different tables may vary slightly and figures shown as totals in certain tables may not be an arithmetic aggregation of the figures which precede them.

In this Offering Circular, unless the contrary intention appears, a reference to a law or a provision of a law is a reference to that law or provision as extended, amended or re-enacted.

Alternative Performance Measures

The Issuer presents certain alternative performance measures (APMs) in this Offering Circular which are not measurements of financial performance or liquidity under IFRS or other generally accepted accounting principles, nor are they audited. Investors should not consider any such measures to be an alternative to (a) operating revenues or operating profit (as determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles), (b) as a measure of the Group's operating performance; or (c) any other measures of performance under generally accepted accounting principles. The APMs presented herein may not be indicative of the Group's historical operating results, nor are such measures meant to be predictive of the Group's future results. These APMs may not be comparable to similarly titled measures of other companies. In evaluating the APMs, investors should carefully consider the financial statements of the Issuers incorporated by reference in this Offering Circular.

SUITABILITY OF INVESTMENT

The Notes may not be a suitable investment for all investors. Each potential investor in the Notes must determine the suitability of that investment in light of its own circumstances. In particular, each potential investor may wish to consider, either on its own or with the help of its financial and other professional advisers, whether it:

- (i) has sufficient knowledge and experience to make a meaningful evaluation of the Notes, the merits and risks of investing in the Notes and the information contained or incorporated by reference in this Offering Circular or any applicable supplement;
- (ii) has access to, and knowledge of, appropriate analytical tools to evaluate, in the context of its particular financial situation, an investment in the Notes and the impact the Notes will have on its overall investment portfolio;
- (iii) has sufficient financial resources and liquidity to bear all of the risks of an investment in the Notes, including Notes with principal or interest payable in one or more currencies, or where the currency for principal or interest payments is different from the potential investor's currency;
- (iv) understands thoroughly the terms of the Notes and is familiar with the behaviour of any relevant indices and financial markets; and
- (v) is able to evaluate possible scenarios for economic, interest rate and other factors that may affect its investment and its ability to bear the applicable risks.

Legal investment considerations may restrict certain investments. The investment activities of certain investors are subject to investment laws and regulations, or review or regulation by certain authorities. Each potential investor should consult its legal advisers to determine whether and to what extent (1) Notes are legal investments for it, (2) Notes can be used as collateral for various types of borrowing and (3) other restrictions apply to its purchase or pledge of any Notes. Financial institutions should consult their legal advisers or the appropriate regulators to determine the appropriate treatment of Notes under any applicable risk-based capital or similar rules.

STABILISATION

In connection with the issue of any Tranche of Notes, the Dealer or Dealers (if any) named as the Stabilisation Manager(s) (or persons acting on behalf of any Stabilisation Manager(s)) in the applicable Final Terms or Pricing Supplement may over-allot Notes or effect transactions with a view to supporting the market price of the Notes at a level higher than that which might otherwise prevail. However stabilisation may not necessarily occur. Any stabilisation action may begin on or after the date on which adequate public disclosure of the terms of the offer of the relevant Tranche of Notes is made and, if begun, may cease at any time, but it must end no later than the earlier of 30 days after the issue date of the relevant Tranche of Notes and 60 days after the date of the allotment of the relevant Tranche of Notes. Any stabilisation action or over-allotment must be conducted by the relevant Stabilisation Manager(s) (or persons acting on behalf of any Stabilisation Manager(s)) in accordance with all applicable laws and rules.

RISK FACTORS

In purchasing Notes, investors assume the risk that the Issuer may become insolvent or otherwise be unable to make all payments due in respect of the Notes. There is a wide range of factors which individually or together could result in the Issuer becoming unable to make all payments due. It is not possible to identify all such factors or to determine which factors are most likely to occur, as the Issuer may not be aware of all relevant factors and certain factors which it currently deems not to be material may become material as a result of the occurrence of events outside the Issuer's control. The Issuer has identified in this Offering Circular a number of factors which could materially adversely affect its business and ability to make payments due.

In addition, factors which are material for the purpose of assessing the market risks associated with Notes issued under the Programme are also described below.

Prospective investors should also read the detailed information set out elsewhere in this Offering Circular and reach their own views prior to making any investment decision.

FACTORS THAT MAY AFFECT THE ISSUER'S ABILITY TO FULFIL ITS OBLIGATIONS UNDER NOTES ISSUED UNDER THE PROGRAMME

Risks relating to the oil and gas industry

Our business depends significantly on the level of oil and gas prices, which are volatile, and are further subject to market expectations regarding such prices.

Our revenues, cash flow, reserve estimates, profitability and rate of growth depend substantially on prevailing international and local prices of oil and gas. Because oil and gas are globally traded, we are unable to control the prices we receive for the oil and gas we produce.

Oil and gas prices are volatile and are subject to significant fluctuations for many reasons, including, but not limited to:

- changes in global and regional supply and demand, and expectations regarding future supply and demand for oil and gas;
- changes in supply and demand for alternatives to hydrocarbons;
- geopolitical uncertainty;
- availability of pipelines, storage capacity at the relevant terminals, tankers and other transportation and processing facilities;
- proximity to, and the capacity and cost of, transportation;
- petroleum refining capacity;
- price, availability and government subsidies of alternative fuels;
- price and availability of new technologies;
- the ability and willingness of the members of the Organization of the Petroleum Exporting Countries (OPEC) and other oil-producing nations to set and maintain specified levels of production and prices;

- competition from other producers of oil and gas, including from members of OPEC and companies based in OPEC, which also affects the level of supply;
- political, economic and military developments in producing regions, particularly the Middle East, Russia, Africa and Central and South America, and domestic and foreign governmental regulations and actions, including import and export restrictions, taxes, repatriations and nationalisations;
- global and regional economic conditions;
- trading activities by market participants and others either seeking to secure access to oil and gas or to hedge against commercial risks, or as part of investment portfolio activity;
- weather conditions and natural disasters;
- technological improvements or regulations favouring alternatives to hydrocarbons, including renewable energy sources and energy storage systems; and
- terrorism or the threat of terrorism, cyber security attacks, war or threat of war, which may affect supply, transportation or demand for hydrocarbons and refined petroleum products.

It is inherently difficult to accurately predict future oil and gas price movements. Historically, crude oil prices have been highly volatile and subject to large fluctuations in response to changes in the supply and demand for oil.

The average crude oil (Platts Dated Brent) price was U.S.$69.10 per barrel in 2025. Subsequently, following the attack by Israel and the US on Iran on 28 February 2026 and the subsequent disruption to shipping trading routes in the Middle East, especially with reduced shipping through the Strait of Hormuz, where between 20 per cent. to 30 per cent. of the total global consumption of oil and natural gas is transported every day, the price of crude oil (Platts Dated Brent) surged to U.S.$144.40 per barrel on 7 April 2026.

See “Risks relating to the oil and gas industry — Our business and results of operations may be adversely affected by the ongoing invasion of Ukraine, the war against Iran, or other similar geopolitical disturbances.”

Oil prices are expected to remain volatile in the future as a result of ongoing geopolitical events which has led to a reduced transportation capacity of oil through the Strait of Hormuz, damages to refineries and production capacity facilities in the Middle East, as well as other market uncertainties over the supply and demand of this commodity caused by the current state of the world’s economies, ongoing geopolitical uncertainty and related economic impacts, actions of OPEC (including announcements to cut or increase output), and ongoing global credit and liquidity concerns. It is also a risk that an increased focus of governments, regulators and consumers on the impact of climate change and reducing carbon emissions could reduce demand for oil and suppress oil and gas prices. See “Risks relating to our operations and business — Climate change and climate change legislation and regulatory initiatives could adversely affect our business and ongoing operations.”

Our profitability is determined in large part by the difference between the income received from the oil and gas that we produce and our operational costs, taxation, and costs incurred in transporting and selling the oil and gas. Therefore, lower prices for oil and gas may reduce the amount of oil and gas that we are able to produce economically, or may reduce the economic viability of the production levels of specific wells or of projects planned or in development, to the extent that production costs exceed anticipated revenue from such production. This may result in us having to make substantial downward adjustments to our oil and gas reserves, which in turn may have a material adverse effect on our income and profitability and ultimately our ability to make timely payments on the Notes. See “Risks relating to the oil and gas industry — Sustained lower oil and gas prices or future price declines could result in a reduction in the carrying value of our assets.”

The economics of producing from some wells and assets may also result in a reduction in the volumes of our reserves which can be produced commercially, resulting in decreases to our reported commercial reserves. Further reductions in commodity prices may result in a reduction in the volumes of our reported reserves. We might also elect not to produce from certain wells at lower prices, or the other licence participants may not want to continue production regardless of our position. All of these factors could result in a material decrease in our net production revenue, causing a reduction in our oil and gas exploration and development activities and acquisition of reserves. In addition, certain development projects could become unprofitable as a result of a decline in price and could result in us having to postpone or cancel a planned project, or if it is not possible to cancel the project, carry out the project with negative economic impact. Further, a reduction in oil prices may lead our producing fields to be shut down and enter into the decommissioning phase earlier than estimated.

Changes in oil and gas prices may therefore adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flows, financial condition, access to capital and prospects, and therefore our ability to service our obligations under the Notes.

Sustained lower oil and gas prices or future price declines could result in a reduction in the carrying value of our assets.

Accounting rules applicable to us require that we periodically review the book value of our properties and goodwill for possible impairment. Based on specific market factors and circumstances at the time of prospective impairment reviews and the continuing evaluation of development plans, production data, economics and other factors, we have in the past been required, and may in the future be required to, write down the carrying value of our oil and natural gas properties or goodwill to the extent that such tests indicate that the carrying value may not be recoverable due to a reduction of the estimated useful life or estimated future cash flows of our oil and natural gas reserves and properties. Such write-downs constitute a non-cash charge against current earnings.

Sustained lower oil and gas prices may cause us to make substantial downward adjustments to our oil and gas reserves and properties. If this occurs, or if our estimates of production or economic factors change, we may be required to write-down, as a non-cash charge to earnings, the carrying value of our proved oil and gas properties for impairments. For example, the sharp drop in global oil prices in 2020 caused an impairment charge of $653.7 million in the first quarter of 2020. These impairments have subsequently been partly reversed, mainly as a result of increased oil and gas prices, resulting in a net impairment charge of $573.1 million for 2020 as a whole. In 2021, there was a net impairment charge of $262.6 million, mainly as a result of updated cost and production profiles. In the year ended 31 December 2022, impairments amounted to $1,032.2 million and were primarily related to the Ula, Wisting, and Edvard Grieg & Ivar Aasen fields. See “Risks relating to the oil and gas industry — Our business and financial condition could be adversely affected if Norwegian tax regulations for the petroleum industry are amended.”

Adverse changes to commodity prices could cause us to record additional impairments (on top of the additional impairments we have accounted for) of our oil and gas properties and goodwill in future periods, which could materially adversely affect our results of operations in the period incurred, and by extension the market value of the Notes.

Our business and results of operations may be adversely affected by the ongoing invasion of Ukraine, the war against Iran, or other similar geopolitical disturbances.

On 24 February 2022, Russia announced a military invasion of Ukraine which has resulted in ongoing battles on Ukrainian soil and given rise to significant uncertainties regarding global political and economic stability. In particular, the war has caused significant business disruption, volatility in international debt and equity markets and disruption to the global economy in the short term. Energy markets were particularly impacted by the invasion and the consequent sanctions, with oil and gas prices spiking significantly.

Several countries have imposed severe sanctions on Russian banks, certain oligarchs, and the Russian state itself. Such sanctions and other measures, as well as the existing and potential further responses from Russia or other countries, have affected and may continue to adversely affect the global economy and financial markets, which in turn could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations. The situation continues to evolve as a result of the conflict in Ukraine and countries may implement additional sanctions, export controls or other measures against Russia, Belarus and other countries, regions, officials, individuals or industries in the respective territories. The sanctions may also be lifted, which may result in Russian oil and gas being exported to Europe again. That may have a significant impact on energy prices. The extent to which the invasion impacts our results will depend on future developments, which are highly uncertain and difficult to predict, including new information which may emerge on an ongoing basis.

Additionally, the military campaign which commenced on 28 February 2026 by Israel and US against Iran has caused significant disturbance to both refinery capacity in, and transportation routes out of, the Persian Gulf. Iran has been under severe sanctions from Western countries for several years, limiting the volume of Iranian oil and gas to the international markets. The outcome of the current hostilities with Iran could lead to either a further curtailment of Iranian oil and gas exports, or a peace agreement which could result in sanctions being eased or lifted entirely, while also potentially disrupting oil and gas exports from the wider region. Any outcome could have material implications for our business, as lifting of sanctions against Iran could lead to a surge in supply and lower prices on the world market. Very high oil prices for a prolonged period of time would also have significant negative implications for the world economy and thereby for our business in the long term.

We may not be able to access or obtain sufficient financing for our operational needs, as a result of the general global economic and financial market situation.

Global financial markets and economic conditions have been severely disrupted and volatile in recent years and remain subject to significant vulnerabilities such as the deterioration of fiscal balances and the rapid accumulation of public debt, continued deleveraging and liquidity issues in the banking sector (including the risk of bank failures, insolvencies or government regulatory interventions) and a limited supply of credit. As we maintain the majority of our cash and cash equivalents in accounts with major Nordic and international banking institutions, and our deposits at these institutions exceed insured limits, we could suffer from an inability to access or a delay in accessing uninsured funds. Market conditions can impact the viability of these institutions and in the event of failure of, or other disruptions to, any of the financial institutions where we maintain our cash and cash equivalents, there can be no assurance that we would be able to access uninsured funds in a timely manner or at all. Any inability to access or delay in accessing these funds could adversely affect our business and financial position and ability to service our obligations under the Notes.

As a result of disruptions in the credit markets and higher capital requirements for lenders, as well as the perceived risks of financing industries such as oil and gas, many lenders have increased margins on lending rates, enacted tighter lending standards, required more restrictive terms (including higher collateral ratios for advances, shorter maturities and smaller loan amounts), or have refused to refinance existing debt at all. Additional tightening of capital requirements, and the resulting policies adopted by lenders, could further reduce lending activities in general, and to oil and gas companies such as us in particular. We may experience difficulties obtaining financing commitments or be unable to fully draw on the capacity under committed loans we arrange in the future if our lenders are unwilling to extend financing to us or unable to meet their funding obligations due to their own liquidity, capital or solvency issues. Additionally, adverse changes to commodity prices could reduce our ability to refinance our outstanding indebtedness, including the Notes, in the event lenders or investors reduce their exposure to the oil and gas sector in response to such adverse changes. We cannot be certain that financing will be available on acceptable terms or at all. If financing is not available when needed, or is available only on unfavourable terms, we may be unable to meet our future obligations as they fall due as well as being unable to make necessary investments to secure the future profitability of our business. Our failure to obtain such funds could therefore have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition, as well as our ability to service our obligations under the Notes.

We are dependent on finding, acquiring, developing, and producing oil and gas reserves that are economically recoverable.

Oil and gas exploration and production activities are capital intensive and inherently uncertain in their outcome. Significant expenditure is required to establish the extent of oil and gas reserves through seismic and other surveys and drilling and there can be no certainty that further commercial quantities of oil and gas will be discovered or acquired by us. Our existing and future oil and gas appraisal and exploration projects may therefore involve unprofitable efforts, either from dry wells or from wells that are productive but do not produce sufficient net revenues to return a profit after development, operating and other costs. Few prospects that are explored are ultimately developed into producing oil and gas fields. Even if we are able to discover or acquire commercial quantities of oil and gas in the future, there can be no assurance that these will be commercially developed. Similarly, we may be required to curtail, delay or cancel any development operations because of a variety of factors, including unexpected drilling conditions, health and safety incidents, supply chain issues, pressure or irregularities in geological formations, equipment failures or accidents, breaches of security, title problems or adverse weather conditions, such as storms in the North Sea, Norwegian Sea and Barents Sea.

Completion of a well does not guarantee a profit on the investment or recovery of the costs associated with that well. Additionally, the cost of operations and production from successful wells may be materially adversely affected by unusual or unexpected geological formation pressures, oceanographic conditions, hazardous weather conditions, delays in obtaining governmental approvals or consents, shut-ins of connected wells, difficulties arising from environmental or other challenges or other factors. Any inability on our part to recover our costs and generate profits from our exploration and production activities could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flow, financial condition and ultimately our ability to service our obligations under the Notes.

Additionally, production from oil and natural gas reservoirs, particularly in the case of mature fields, is generally characterised by declining production rates that vary depending upon reservoir characteristics and other factors. The rate of decline will change if production from existing wells declines in a different manner than we have estimated and can change under other circumstances. Thus, our future oil and natural gas reserves and production and, therefore, our cash flow and results of operations, are highly dependent upon our success in efficiently developing and exploiting our current properties and economically finding or acquiring additional recoverable reserves. We may not be able to develop, find or acquire additional reserves to replace our current and future production at acceptable costs.

If we are unable to replace our oil and natural gas reserves, our reserves and production will decline, and our business, financial condition, results of operations and our ability to make timely payments under the Notes could be adversely affected.

Exploration and production operations involve numerous operational risks and hazards which may result in material losses, additional expenditures, injury to personnel and environmental damage.

Developing oil and gas resources and reserves into commercial production involves a high degree of risk, and our operations are subject to the risks common in our industry. These hazards and risks include, but are not limited to, encountering unusual or unexpected rock formations or geological pressures, geological uncertainties, seismic shifts, blowouts, oil spills, uncontrollable flows of oil, gas or well fluids, explosions, fires, improper installation or operation of equipment and equipment damage or failure, each of which could result in substantial damage to any of our projects' property and the surrounding environment, personal injury, biodiversity loss or habitat destruction and result in liability and reputational damage. We may also experience technical problems, work stoppages or other labour difficulties or property or casualty losses.

Given the nature of our offshore operations, our exploration, production, and drilling facilities are also subject to the hazards inherent in marine operations, such as capsizing, sinking, grounding and damage from severe storms or other severe weather conditions. The most significant influencing factors are rising sea levels and extreme waves challenging structural tolerances and reducing the design air gap (which is the minimum distance between the water level and the bottom of an offshore oil production platform).

The offshore operations conducted by us involve risks including, but not limited to, high pressure drilling, mechanical difficulties, or equipment failure which increase the risk of delays in drilling and of operational challenges arising, as well as material costs and liabilities occurring.

If any of these events were to occur in relation to any of our licences, they could, among other adverse effects, result in environmental damage, injury to persons and loss of life and a failure to produce oil and/or gas in commercial quantities. They could also result in significant delays to drilling programmes, a partial or total shutdown of operations, significant damage to our equipment and equipment owned by third parties and personal injury or wrongful death claims being brought against us. These events can also put at risk some or all of our licences and could result in us incurring significant civil liability claims, significant fines or penalties as well as criminal sanctions potentially being enforced against us and/or our officers. We may also be required to curtail or cancel any operations on the occurrence of such events.

In our capacity as holder and operator of licences under the Norwegian Petroleum Act, we are subject to strict statutory liability in respect of losses or damage suffered as a result of pollution caused by spills or discharges of petroleum from facilities or otherwise resulting from our petroleum activities on the Norwegian continental shelf (NCS). The statutory regulations set out that anyone who suffers damage or loss as a result of pollution caused by any of the licence areas can claim compensation from us without needing to demonstrate that the damage is due to any fault on our part. Furthermore, the statutory regulations also restrict the right to claim recourse in cases where pollution damage is caused by our contractors' or agents' actions or omissions. As some fields in which we hold an interest straddle the boundary between the NCS and the United Kingdom Continental Shelf (UKCS), we could also be subject to UK law and regulations with respect to any incidents in those fields.

Any of the above circumstances could materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flow, financial condition and therefore our ability to service our obligations under the Notes.

The market in which we operate is highly competitive.

The oil and gas industry is highly competitive, including in our primary jurisdiction of operation, Norway. The key areas in respect of which we face competition include, among others:

- acquisition of exploration and production licenses, or interests in such licenses, at licensing rounds, auctions or sales run by governmental authorities;
- engagement of third-party service providers whose capacity to provide key services may be limited (e.g., capacity in shipyards for the construction of platform facilities);
- employment of qualified and experienced skilled management and oil and gas professionals;
- purchasing, hiring, leasing, chartering or other procurement of equipment that may be scarce;
- access to debt and equity capital; and
- availability of, and access to, pipeline ullage and tanker capacity together with other storage, processing and delivery facilities.

Our competitive position depends on our geological, geophysical and engineering expertise, financial resources, ability to develop our assets and ability to select, acquire, and develop proved reserves.

Many companies in the oil and gas industry not only engage in the acquisition, exploration, development and production of oil and gas reserves, but also carry out refining operations and market refined products. In addition, we compete with major oil and gas companies and other companies within industries supplying energy and fuel in the marketing and sale of oil and gas to transporters, distributors and end users, including industrial, commercial, and individual consumers. We also compete with other oil and gas companies in attempting to secure drilling rigs and other equipment necessary for drilling and completion of wells. Such equipment, and equipment and other materials necessary to construct production and transmission facilities, may be in short supply from time to time. Finally, companies and private equity firms without previous investments in oil and gas may choose to acquire reserves to establish a firm supply or simply as an investment. Any such companies may also constitute competition for us.

The effects of operating in a competitive industry may include higher than anticipated prices for the acquisition of licenses or assets, hiring by competitors of key management or other personnel, restrictions on the availability of equipment or services as well as potentially unfair practices.

Any of the above circumstances could materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flow, financial condition and therefore our ability to service our obligations under the Notes.

We may not be able to keep pace with technological developments in our industry.

The oil and gas industry is characterised by rapid and significant technological advancements and the introduction of new products and services using new technologies. As others use or develop new technologies, we may be placed at a competitive disadvantage or may be forced by competitive pressures to implement those new technologies at substantial costs. In addition, other oil and gas companies may have greater financial, technical and personnel resources that allow them to enjoy technological advantages, which may in the future allow them to implement new technologies before we can. We may not be able to respond to these competitive pressures or implement new technologies on a timely basis or at an acceptable cost. If one or more of the technologies we use now or in the future were to become obsolete, our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations could be materially adversely affected, which in turn could have a material adverse effect on our ability to meet our payment obligations under the Notes. In addition, any new technology that we implement may have unanticipated or unforeseen adverse consequences, either to our business or to the industry as a whole.

Our business and financial condition could be adversely affected if Norwegian tax regulations for the petroleum industry are amended.

There is no assurance that future political conditions in Norway will not result in the government adopting different policies for petroleum taxation. In the event there are changes to this tax regime, this could lead to new investments being less attractive and prevent or slow our future growth.

Pursuant to the current Norwegian Tax Administration Act of 27 May, 2016 No. 14 (Nw. skatteforvaltningsloven), the Norwegian tax authorities can change a taxpayer's tax assessment within five years after the end of the relevant tax year (or ten years in a severe penalty tax case or upon notice of criminal tax evasion). Even though we are of the opinion that we have provided the tax authorities with correct and complete information, there can be no assurance that the tax authorities will not change, or at least claim to have the authority to change, our assessment from previous tax years within these time limits.

The amount of taxes we must pay could change significantly as a result of new interpretations of relevant tax laws and regulations, or changes to such laws and regulations. In June 2022, the Norwegian government enacted a new tax regime for oil and gas companies with effect from 1 January 2022. In the new regime, field investments (such as platforms, subsea installations, processing facilities, production wells and pipelines) are directly expensed in the special petroleum tax (SPT) as and when incurred, while SPT uplift has been abolished. Corporate tax (CT) depreciation is unchanged. Calculated CT will be deducted in the SPT base. In order to maintain an overall marginal tax rate at 78 per cent., the SPT rate has been increased to 71.8 per cent., reducing the effect of the CT from 22 per cent. to 6.2 per cent. The cash value of SPT losses, including exploration costs, will be refunded annually. Tax losses for CT can be carried forward for an unlimited period. Net financial costs are currently allocated between the 78 per cent. offshore tax regime and the 22 per cent. onshore tax regime by a formula based on the tax-depreciated value of offshore assets. Because field investments are now expensed immediately in the SPT base, the offshore tax-depreciated asset base has been substantially eroded, and net financial costs will in practice only obtain tax relief at the 22 per cent. onshore rate. Interest on CT loss carry-forward has also been abolished. The uplift rate for eligible investments incurred in 2022 under the June 2020 temporary tax rules has since been reduced from 24 per cent. to 17.69 per cent. A further reduction to 12.4 per cent. was agreed by the Norwegian Parliament in 2022, applying to investments incurred from 1 January 2023, under the temporary tax rules. This rate may be subject to further adjustments in future coming years.

In addition, tax authorities could review and question our tax returns leading to additional taxes and tax penalties which could be material. We may also be exposed to any other changes in the tax rules, including CO2 taxes, NOx taxes and other tax and duties relevant for our business, including changes in the tax treatment of interest costs and withholding taxes, all of which could in turn affect our current and future tax positions, net income after tax and financial condition. Changes in the tax rules and/or tax rates could have a significant impact on our profitability from existing investments, could lead to new investments being less attractive and prevent or slow our future growth.

Our business, results of operations and our ability to make timely payments under the Notes may be adversely affected by epidemics or pandemics.

The extent to which epidemics or pandemics, could impact our results in the future depends on uncertain and unpredictable future developments. For example, if significant portions of our workforce are unable to work effectively, including because of illness, quarantines, government actions, facility closures or other restrictions in connection with an epidemic or pandemic, such as during the COVID-19 pandemic, our business, financial condition, results of operations and ability to make timely payments under the Notes could be materially and adversely affected. Moreover, if business interruptions caused by an epidemic or pandemic last longer than expected, we may continue to seek other sources of liquidity, and there can be no guarantee that additional liquidity will be readily available or available on favourable terms and in an amount sufficient to enable us to service and repay our indebtedness or to fund our other liquidity needs. A shortage of liquidity and credit could trigger a worldwide economic recession, which could be exacerbated by adverse developments in global or national political and macroeconomic conditions. Any deterioration in financial markets caused by an epidemic or pandemic could impair our ability to obtain financing in the future, including our ability to incur additional indebtedness to operate our ongoing operations, fund liquidity needs or refinance existing indebtedness.

Although our production efficiency has remained high and was not significantly impacted by COVID-19, any other epidemic or pandemic could have material adverse effects on our business, results of operations and financial condition, including, among other risks:

- delayed execution of projects or increased project costs due to governmental restrictions and measures put in place to safeguard employees and contractors, which may cause delays in expected future cashflow;
- impacts on production or increased production costs due to governmental restrictions and measures put in place to safeguard employees and contractors, or outbreaks on operated or partner operated installations or third-party drilling rigs, vessels, assets or locations;
- increased currency and interest volatility and/or reduced access to external capital;

- resource limitations in business-critical teams and loss of production volume due to the unavailability of qualified personnel, third party utilities or spare parts;
- increased cyber security threats as a result of phishing campaigns and targeted attacks while a larger number of our employees work remotely; and
- potential permanent reduction in demand for oil and gas.

Any of the foregoing risks could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and our ability to make timely payments under the Notes. To the extent any epidemics or pandemics adversely affect general economic conditions or our business, operations, financial condition or operating results, it may also have the effect of heightening other risks described in this “Risk Factors” section.

Risks relating to our operations and business

Unexpected shutdowns may occur at one or more of our fields.

Our results are sensitive to major and long-lasting shutdowns or technical issues on our producing fields. We have insurance in place in accordance with the requirements set by the Norwegian authorities for all assets covering physical damage, operator’s extra expense (OEE) and third-party liability. In addition, we have insurance for loss of production income (LOPI) after 45 days waiting time and for a maximum indemnity period of twelve months for our production from all of our producing fields, except the Valhall and Johan Sverdrup fields, where the LOPI is constrained by a combined single limit (CSL). A CSL is the maximum combined total amount that will be paid out, in the case of a loss, and if the loss on the Valhall or Johan Sverdrup fields exceeds this CSL, the claim pay-out may not be sufficient to provide full LOPI coverage. The LOPI insurance is not a legal requirement and is subject to discussions at every policy renewal. Despite all the measures being taken to secure the assets and the production through insurance, the insurance programme we have in place may be insufficient to offset the impact of any major incident of any of the fields, including due to exceptions and scope of coverage, caps and deductibles. A significant shutdown or other serious technical issues at our producing fields, or other issues relating to our oil and gas production causing a large reduction in production levels, may materially affect our profitability, as a result of the increase in costs and reduction in income which normally arise from such delays and through claims for compensation from third parties. Delays may also result in cancellation of contracts. All of these events may adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flow, and financial condition, and therefore our ability to make timely payments under the Notes.

Our current production and expected future production is concentrated in a limited number of fields.

Our production of oil and gas is concentrated in a limited number of offshore fields on the NCS. The NCS is prone to difficult weather conditions that can in some cases prevent us from transporting supplies, personnel and fuel to our facilities, or can cause direct damage to our facilities, any of which can cause production shutdowns or slowdowns. If mechanical or technical problems, adverse weather or other events or problems affect the production on one of these offshore fields, it may have a direct and significant impact on a substantial portion of our production.

Any decrease in production volumes or reserve estimates in our key producing assets, including the Johan Sverdrup, Alvheim area, Eiga (Edvard Grieg / Ivar Aasen), Valhall, Skarv or Ula fields, may adversely affect our results of operations and financial condition and our ability to make timely payments under the Notes. Moreover, we and the other licence participants in these fields have made, and will continue to make, significant capital expenditures related to the subsea development of these fields and other fields and their related facilities. Further, if the current agreements we have in place pursuant to which we sell crude oil from these fields for any reason should be terminated or expire, a contract with a new buyer may not be signed at the time our existing contract terminates, or the sale price we obtain for the crude may be significantly less than that currently paid to us, or the volumes of production a buyer is required to purchase could be reduced.

Future production may materially deviate from our projections. Certain of our material licences are in various phases of development without current production. The early stages, being the exploration or development period of a licence, are commonly associated with higher risk, requiring high levels of capital expenditure without a commensurate degree of certainty of a return on that investment. Our capital expenditures may not guarantee the successful production of oil and gas in line with our projections. Other events, such as unexpected drilling conditions, equipment failures or accidents, breaches of security, adverse weather and the unavailability of drilling rigs, among others, in the fields in which we have an interest could, similarly, adversely affect our results of operations and financial condition and therefore our ability to make timely payments under the Notes.

Our oil and gas production could vary significantly from reported reserves and resources.

In general, estimates of economically recoverable oil reserves and resources are based on a number of factors and assumptions made as of the date on which the reserves estimates were determined, such as geological and engineering estimates (which have inherent uncertainties), historical production from our fields, the assumed effects of regulation by governmental agencies and estimates of future commodity prices and operating costs, all of which may vary considerably from actual results.

Underground accumulations of hydrocarbons cannot be measured in an exact manner and estimates thereof are a subjective process aimed at understanding the statistical probabilities of recovery. Estimates of the quantity of economically recoverable oil and gas reserves, rates of production and the timing of development expenditures depend upon several variables and assumptions, including the following:

- production history compared with production from other comparable producing areas;
- quality and quantity of available data;
- access to production profiles and economic models supplied by third parties;
- interpretation of the available geological and geophysical data;
- effects of regulations adopted by governmental agencies;
- future percentages of international sales;
- future oil prices;
- capital investments;
- timeliness of the commencement and completion of production phases;
- effectiveness of the applied technologies and equipment;
- renewals of licences beyond their stated expiry dates;
- future operating costs, tax on the extraction of commercial minerals, development costs and workover and remedial costs; and
- the judgement of the persons preparing the estimate.

As all reserve estimates are subjective, each of the following items may differ materially from those assumed in estimating reserves:

- the quantities and qualities that are ultimately recovered;
- the timing of the recovery of oil and gas reserves;
- the production and operating costs incurred;
- the amount and timing of additional exploration and future development expenditures; and
- future hydrocarbon sales prices.

Many of the factors in respect of which assumptions are made when estimating reserves are beyond our control and therefore these estimates may prove to be incorrect over time. Evaluations of reserves necessarily involve multiple uncertainties. The accuracy of any reserves or resources evaluation depends on the quality of available information and oil and gas engineering and geological interpretation. Drilling, interpretation, testing and production after the date of the estimates may require substantial upward or downward revisions in our reserves or resources data. Moreover, different reserve engineers may make different estimates of reserves and cash flows based on the same available data. Actual production, revenues and expenditures with respect to reserves and resources will vary from estimates and the variances may be material.

The uncertainties in relation to the estimation of reserves summarised above also exist with respect to the estimation of resources. The probability that contingent resources will be economically recoverable is considerably lower than for commercial reserves. Volumes and values associated with contingent resources should be considered with higher uncertainty than volumes and values associated with reserves.

If the assumptions upon which the estimates of our oil and gas reserves and resources have been based prove to be incorrect or if the actual reserves or recoverable resources available to us are otherwise less than the current estimates or of lesser quality than expected, we may be unable to recover and produce the estimated levels or quality of oil and gas set out in this Offering Circular and this may materially and adversely affect our business, prospects and financial condition, and therefore our ability to make timely payments under the Notes.

Our development projects are associated with risks relating to delays and increased costs.

Our ongoing development projects involve advanced engineering work, extensive procurement activities and complex construction work to be carried out under various contract packages at different locations onshore. Furthermore, we (together with the other licence participants) must carry out drilling operations, install, test and commission offshore installations and obtain governmental approval to take them into use, prior to commencement of production. The significant level of activity in our development portfolio, combined with the complexity of our operated and partner operated development projects (including the development of Yggdrasil, which is expected to employ remotely controlled operations, unmanned production platforms, new technology and data-driven decisions and work processes) makes such developments sensitive to several factors which may affect the planned progress or sequence of the various activities, and this may result in delays or cost increases.

Our current or future projected target dates for production may be delayed and significant cost overruns may be incurred due to delays, changes in any part of our development projects, technical difficulties, cost inflation, project mismanagement, equipment failure, equipment delivery and supply chain constraints, natural disasters, political, economic, taxation, legal, regulatory or social uncertainties, environmental, social and governance (ESG) factors (such as carbon dioxide fees and reputational considerations), piracy, terrorism, immigration issues or protests or cyber security attacks which may materially adversely affect our future business, operating results, financial condition and cash flow. Ultimately, there are risks that the rights granted under our licences or agreements with the government may be forfeited and we may be liable to pay large penalties, which could jeopardise our ability to continue operations.

Going forward, we, or the operator of licences in which we have an interest, may be unable to explore, appraise or develop petroleum operations, or the development or production of oil and/or gas may be delayed as a result of, among other things, activities such as the failure of the other licence participants and counterparties to obtain equipment, equipment failure, natural disasters, political, economic, taxation, legal, regulatory or social uncertainties, piracy, terrorism, immigration issues or protests. Moreover, the other licence participants and counterparties consist of a diverse base with no single material source of credit risk. A general downturn in financial markets and economic activity may result in a higher volume of late payments and outstanding receivables, which may in turn adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flows, financial condition and ultimately our ability to make timely payments under the Notes.

Furthermore, our estimated exploration and appraisal costs are subject to a number of assumptions that may not materialise. Any such inability to explore, appraise or develop petroleum operations, or if our assumptions regarding exploration costs do not materialise, this may have a material adverse effect on our growth ambitions, future business and revenue, operating results, financial condition and cash flow, and therefore our ability to make timely payments under the Notes.

Our business is dependent on skilled employees with special competencies, which exposes us to risks relating to attracting and retaining sufficiently skilled employees, as well as work stoppages and other labour disputes.

The successful development and performance of our business depends on our ability to attract and retain skilled professionals with appropriate experience and expertise. We require skilled personnel in various areas including, amongst others, exploration and development, operations, engineering, business development, oil and gas marketing, finance, legal and accounting. Given the competitive market in which we operate, there can be no assurance that we will successfully attract new personnel or retain existing personnel required to continue to operate our business and to successfully execute and implement our business strategy. Failure to attract or retain such employees could result in the inability to maintain the appropriate technological standard, take advantage of new opportunities that may arise or maintain ongoing production levels, which may in turn lead to a subsequent decline in competitiveness and could materially adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flow and financial condition.

While we generally enjoy good labour relations with our employees, strikes, labour disruptions and other types of conflicts with employees including those of our independent partners, contractors, suppliers and customers or their unions may occur in relation to our operations. Work stoppages or other labour disturbances, such as industrial action, may occur in the future. Any such disruptions or delays in our business activities may result in increased operational costs or decreased revenues from delayed or decreased (or zero) production and significant budget overruns. If such disruptions are material, they could materially adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flow, financial condition and ultimately our ability to make timely payments under the Notes.

In addition, our employees and those of our partners, contractors, suppliers and customers may be members of labour unions. In the event of disagreement, we may not be able to negotiate acceptable collective bargaining agreements or future restructuring agreements or may become subject to material cost increases or additional work rules imposed by such agreements.

We undertake labour negotiations to reduce our exposure to such risks. In the event that these measures are delayed or unsuccessful, we may be subject to collective actions such as an onshore strike. Relatedly, we may be impacted by a strike among our suppliers. The occurrence of any of the foregoing could materially and adversely affect our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations.

Climate change and climate change legislation and regulatory initiatives could adversely affect our business and ongoing operations.

Our business and results of operations could be adversely affected by climate change and the adoption of new climate change laws, policies and regulations. Growing concerns about climate change and greenhouse gas emissions have led to the adoption of various regulations and policies, including the Paris Agreement, negotiated at the 2015 United Nations Conference on Climate Change, which requires participating nations to reduce carbon emissions to limit global temperature increase to no more than 1.5 degrees Celsius above pre-industrial levels.

Multiple plans have also been proposed in the Norwegian parliament to reduce carbon emissions from companies operating in certain sectors, including the oil and gas industry. In June 2025, the Norwegian parliament approved a plan for climate change mitigation, based on the requirements of the Paris Agreement, with the aim of reducing greenhouse gas emissions by at least 55 per cent. by 2030, and a reduction of at least 70 per cent. and towards 75 per cent by 2035, compared to 1990 levels. Further, the parliament has enacted a plan to reduce emissions by 90 per cent. to 95 per cent. (compared to 1990 levels) by 2050, with the intention of becoming a low-emission society. The Norwegian government also has a “zero emission vision” for the transport sector and continues to stimulate the development of zero and low emission shipping solutions. In order to achieve goals of CO<sub>2</sub> emission reduction of more than 50 per cent. during this decade, the Norwegian government has targeted a variety of measures across seven priority areas: offshore wind, hydrogen, development of a value chain for battery use, carbon capture and storage (CCS), clean and energy effective process industry, development of a green maritime industry and use of bio-resources for energy production.

These developments could impact our financial results and position, principally through either higher carbon taxes and carbon costs or reduced demand for oil and gas in light of global efforts to respond to the challenges of climate change, as countries increasingly shift toward alternative energy sources. In turn, this may impact our revenues in the long term if we are unable to achieve or maintain a sufficiently low break-even price. Any additional regulation of greenhouse gas emissions, including through a cap-and-trade system, technology mandate, emissions tax, reporting requirement or other programme, could adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition, reputation, product demand and liquidity. See “Risks relating to the oil and gas industry — The market in which we operate is highly competitive.”

The emission reduction strategies and other provisions of Norwegian climate change law, the Paris Agreement or similar legislative or regulatory initiatives enacted in the future, including with respect to mandatory emission abatements, could adversely impact our business by imposing increased costs in the form of taxes or for the purchase of emission allowances, limiting our ability to develop new oil and gas reserves, decreasing the value of our assets, or reducing the demand for hydrocarbons and refined petroleum products. Any such event could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flow and financial condition, and therefore our ability to make timely payments under the Notes.

Additionally, increasing concentrations of greenhouse gases in the Earth’s atmosphere may produce climate changes that have significant physical effects, such as increased frequency and severity of storms, droughts, floods and other climatic events. Our offshore operations are particularly at risk from severe climatic events. If any such climate events were to occur, they could have an adverse effect on our financial condition, results of operations and ultimately our ability to make timely payments under the Notes.

As climate change issues become more pronounced, we may correspondingly face increased expectations from our stakeholders to take actions beyond existing regulatory requirements to minimise our impact on the environment and mitigate climate change related effects. We have announced our intention to meet various emissions reductions targets and other climate change goals, including, but not limited to, a decarbonization plan that aims to achieve net zero emissions across our organization (which includes Scope 1 and 2 emissions) by 2030. We have also announced a target of reducing absolute CO<sub>2</sub> emissions by 50 per cent. by 2030 and further reaching near-zero absolute CO2 emissions by 2050. However, there is no assurance that such commitments will be realised and/or sufficient for our stakeholders.

To meet these additional targets, we may need to continue to (and/or be required to) deploy additional equipment, introduce process changes, utilise alternative suppliers and materials, use certified and internationally recognized offsetting measures, and take other similar actions, some or all of which may require us to incur additional costs or decrease production, which could result in a material adverse effect on our results of operations and our financial position. In addition, if we fail to meet these expectations, or foster additional sustainability initiatives, we may experience reputational risk which could impact our ability to attract and retain customers, suppliers, employees, lenders and investors.

There are risks related to determination and redetermination of unitized petroleum deposits.

According to the Norwegian Petroleum Act, unitization is required if a petroleum deposit extends over several production licences and these production licences have a different ownership representation. Consensus must be achieved between the licensees on the most rational coordination of the joint development and ownership distribution of the petroleum deposit, which must be set out in an agreement regulating the joint development, production, utilisation and cessation of the petroleum activities related to the licences. If such consensus is not reached within a reasonable time, Norway's Ministry of Petroleum and Energy (MPE) may determine how such joint petroleum activities shall be conducted, including the apportionment of the deposit, which may diverge from the other participants' recommendations.

Unit operating agreements (UOAs) relating to our production licences can typically also include a redetermination clause, stating that the apportionment of the deposit between licences can be adjusted within certain agreed time periods. A redetermination may, as a result thereof, reduce our ownership share in the unitized field, and thereby may reduce our proportional right to the petroleum produced from the field. For example, a redetermination process has been initiated by the unit interest holders under the UOA for the Johan Sverdrup field. Any such determination or redetermination of our interest in any of our licences may have a negative effect on our interest in the unitized deposit, including our unit interest, the tract participation in which we hold an interest and cash flow from production. Upon completion of a redetermination, an adjustment is commonly made for historic costs and income. Underlift positions (i.e. that a party is eligible to more or less of the production upon completion of the redetermination than it so far has received) are normally settled in kind (i.e. that the eligible party receives more or less petroleum than its ownership interest would indicate). It should be noted that the settlement mechanism varies from unitization agreement to unitization agreement and thus the foregoing illustrates the traditional settlement mechanism only. No assurance can be made that any such determination or redetermination will be satisfactorily resolved or will be resolved within a reasonable time and without incurring significant costs. Any determination or redetermination negatively affecting our interest in a unit may have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flow, financial condition and ultimately our ability to make timely payments under the Notes.

Our exploration and production operations are dependent on our compliance with obligations under licences, joint operating agreements and field development plans.

All exploration and production licences for the NCS have incorporated detailed and mandatory work programmes that are required to be fulfilled within a specific timespan. These may include, among other things, seismic surveys to be performed, wells to be drilled and development decisions to be taken, as well as abandonment obligations. Failure to comply with the obligations under licences may lead to fines, penalties, restrictions, revocation of licences and termination of related agreements, which could materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition, and therefore our ability to make timely payments under the Notes.

A failure to comply with the payment obligations (cash calls) under the standard joint operating agreements (JOA) for our licences may lead to penal interest on the defaulted amount, loss of right to lift hydrocarbons, loss of voting rights and information within the licence and a right for the other licensees to acquire our participating interest on terms that are unfavourable to us and disconnected from the value of the licence interest. All such sanctions could materially and adversely affect our business, financial conditions and results of operations, and therefore our ability to make timely payments under the Notes.

We are subject to third-party risk in terms of operators, other licence participants and contractors.

Where we are not the operator of a licence or unit, although we may have consultation rights or the right to withhold consent in relation to significant operational matters depending on the level of our interest in such licence (as most decisions by the management committee only require a majority vote), we have limited control over management of the assets and mismanagement by the operator or disagreements with the operator as to the most appropriate course of action, which may result in significant delays, losses or increased costs to us.

The terms of the relevant operating agreements generally impose standards and requirements in relation to the operator's activities. However, there can be no assurance that such operators will observe such standards or requirements, and this could result in a breach of the relevant operating agreement.

There is a risk that other participants with interests in our licences may not be able to fund or may elect not to participate in, or consent to, certain activities relating to those licences which require such participant's consent, including but not limited to, decisions relating to drilling programmes, such as the number, identity and sequencing of wells, appraisal and development decisions, decisions relating to production and also any decision to not drill at all (sometimes referred to as "drill or drop" decisions). In these circumstances, it may not be possible for such activities to be undertaken by us alone or in conjunction with other participants at the desired time or sequence or at all. Inversely, decisions by the other participants to engage in certain activities (as noted in the preceding sentence) may also be contrary to our desire not to engage in or commence such activities and may require us to incur our share of costs in relation thereto, which may become significant, or accept that the other participants may enforce decisions which will delay or affect the profitability of a project.

Certain important decisions with respect to a licence or unit are taken by the management committee of the licence or unit in accordance with the voting rules set out in the JOA or UOA. Generally, in all licences and unit agreements on the NCS, no licence holder will hold a majority vote alone and a decision by the management committee will therefore require the affirmative voting of at least two or more licence/unit holders. We are therefore dependent on other licence/unit holders' voting to progress decision-making in the relevant management committees.

Other participants in our licences may default on their obligations to fund capital or other funding obligations in relation to the assets. In such circumstances, we may be required under the terms of the relevant operating agreement or otherwise to contribute all or part of such funding shortfall ourselves. We may not have the resources to meet these obligations.

Any disagreement, absence of consent, delay, opposition, breach of agreement, or inability to undertake activities or failure to provide funding of the kind identified above could materially adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flow and financial condition, and therefore our ability to make timely payments under the Notes.

Failure of other licence participants to comply with obligations under the relevant licences pursuant to which we operate, may lead to fines, penalties, restrictions and revocation of the licence. Further, the licence participants are jointly and severally responsible to the Norwegian government for financial obligations arising out of petroleum activities pursuant to such licence. Hence, if one or more of the other licensees fails to cover their share of a licence cost (for example, costs related to the mandatory work programme or decommissioning liability), we can be held liable for such licensee's share of the relevant cost.

If any of the other licence participants become insolvent or otherwise unable to pay debts as they come due, the licence interest awarded to them may be revoked by the relevant government authority which will then reallocate the licence interest. Although we anticipate that the relevant government authority may permit us to continue operations at a field during a reallocation process, there can be no assurance that we will be able to continue operations pursuant to these reclaimed licences or that any transition related to the reallocation of the licence would not materially disrupt our operations or development or productions schedule. The occurrence of any of the situations described above could materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flow and financial condition, and therefore our ability to make timely payments under the Notes.

Market conditions may also impair the liquidity situation of contractors and consequently their ability to meet their obligations to us. This may in turn impact both project timelines and cost. The incurrence of cost overruns or delays could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flow and financial condition, and therefore our ability to make timely payments under the Notes.

We are exposed to losses on our operated and partner operated assets.

We are the operator for several of our licenses. Although the operatorship is performed based on a “no gain, no loss” principle, the other license participants are provided with audit rights and may, for example, dispute an operator’s allocation of costs to the joint account of the relevant license. Furthermore, under the JOA, if the license or any of the other licensees sustain losses arising from the operator's performance of its functions as an operator, the operator may be held liable for such losses provided it is the result of wilful misconduct or gross negligence by the management or supervisory personnel of the operator or any of its affiliated companies. We are also exposed to losses under the JOAs that require each partner to share any deficits, on a joint and several basis, should a partner enter into bankruptcy or otherwise refuse to pay its obligations. The incurrence of such losses could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flow and financial condition.

Our ability to sell or transfer licence interests may be restricted by provisions in our joint operating agreements or applicable legislation.

Our exit strategy in relation to any particular oil and gas interest may be subject to the prior approval of the other licence participants pursuant to JOAs, UOAs and approval from the MPE and Ministry of Finance, thus restricting our ability to dispose of, sell or transfer an interest in a production licence and make funds available when needed.

If the mandatory work obligations set by the MPE in the licences have not been carried out, assignment of our participating interest in a licence is subject to the approval of the management committee in the licence. Further, any transfer of a licence interest is subject to approval by the MPE and the Norwegian Ministry of Finance. Whether such approval will be given may be determined by the stage of the relevant project (whether the licence is in the exploration, development or production phase), outstanding obligations, potential buyers, political conditions in Norway, general considerations of the relevant authorities and applicable policies and regulations on exploration, development and operation on the NCS. In addition, the Norwegian State has a pre-emption right under the JOA if a licensee has entered into a sale and purchase agreement for the sale of its participating interest in a license, which may discourage bidders in the connection with any disposal, sale or transfer. Further, under applicable Norwegian law, we may be subject to secondary liability for decommissioning costs in relation to licences that have been sold by us if the buyer should default on its licence obligations. Any of the above factors may have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flow and financial condition, and therefore our ability to make timely payments under the Notes.

We are subject to risks relating to capacity constraints and cost inflation in the service sector.

We are, like other exploration and production companies, reliant upon services, goods and equipment provided by contractors and other companies to carry out our operations. As there are numerous material projects to be carried out on the NCS in the years to come, there is a continuing risk of capacity and supply chain constraints and cost inflation in the service sector. If we are unable to obtain the services, goods or equipment necessary to carry out our operations at commercially viable levels (including our current and planned exploration and development projects), or if any of our contractors are unable or unwilling to carry out their services or deliver goods or equipment to us as planned or otherwise become unable to respect their obligations, become insolvent or otherwise unable to pay debts as they come due, our operations or projects may suffer from delays and a subsequent decrease in net production and/or revenue. For example, capacity constraints were a contributing factor to the decision to delay the financial investment decision in relation to the Equinor operated Wisting development. See “Risks relating to the oil and gas industry — Sustained lower oil and gas prices or future price declines could result in a reduction in the carrying value of our assets.”

If any of the above risks were to materialise, it may materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition, and therefore our ability to make timely payments under the Notes.

We may not have access to necessary infrastructure or capacity booking for the transportation of oil and gas.

We are dependent on capacity (whether through pipelines, tankers or otherwise) to transport and sell our oil and gas production. We, or the licence group in which we hold an interest, may need to rely on access to third-party infrastructure, such as oil and gas pipelines, to be able to transport produced oil and gas (which may also require approval for construction of pipelines in close proximity to or crossing third-party infrastructure or being able to acquire the necessary capacity to transport gas). There can be no assurance that we will be able to get access to necessary infrastructure at an economically justifiable cost or access necessary infrastructure at all. If access to third-party infrastructure and necessary capacity bookings are unavailable or unavailable at an economically justifiable cost, our income relating to the sale of oil and gas may be reduced, which may materially adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flow and financial condition, and therefore our ability to make timely payments under the Notes.

Availability of drilling equipment and other required equipment and access restrictions may affect our operations.

Oil and gas exploration and development activities are dependent on the availability of specialised equipment, including, but not limited to, drilling and related equipment in the particular areas where such activities will be conducted. From time to time the demand for limited equipment may be high or access restrictions will affect the availability and cost of such equipment, and from time to time may delay exploration and development activities. Also, to the extent we are not the operator of our oil and gas assets, we will depend on such operators for the timing of activities related to such assets and will be largely unable to direct or control the activities and costs of such operators. If any of these risks materialise, they may have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flow and financial condition, and therefore our ability to make timely payments under the Notes.

We face risks related to decommissioning activities and related costs.

There are significant uncertainties relating to the estimated costs for decommissioning of our current licences, including the schedule for removal of each installation and performance of other decommissioning activities. Additionally, the limited examples of current asset decommissioning activities on the NCS increases the uncertainty in estimating decommissioning costs and liabilities. No assurance can be given that the anticipated costs and time of removal are correct and any deviation from such estimates may have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flow and financial condition, and therefore our ability to make timely payments under the Notes.

Also, under the Norwegian Petroleum Act, licensees are responsible to the Norwegian government for making sure that a decision relating to disposal is carried out, unless otherwise decided by the MPE. Within the joint venture, the licensees are: (i) primarily liable to each other on a pro rata basis and (ii) secondarily jointly and severally liable for all decommissioning obligations arising by virtue of the joint venture's activities.

In Norway, there is no obligation or tradition for licence participants to provide security for their respective share of any decommissioning liabilities ahead of actual decommissioning. Therefore, if one or more of the other licensees fails to cover its respective share of decommissioning costs, we can be held liable for such licensee's share of such costs without the ability to rely or draw down on any security a defaulting licensee may have previously provided. Furthermore, under the Norwegian Petroleum Act, a licensee assigning its interest in a licence remains secondarily liable for decommissioning costs related to facilities existing at the time of assignment in the event that the decommissioning costs are not covered by the current licensees. Any significant increase in decommissioning costs relating to our current or previous licences may materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flow and financial condition, and therefore our ability to make timely payments under the Notes.

Certain fields in which we hold an interest straddle the boundary between the UKCS and the NCS. Even though our interests are in the Norwegian sector, we may still have responsibilities under or become liable for decommissioning obligations under UK legislation. In particular, we may be liable for the full costs of decommissioning any offshore installation located in the UK if our own production is recovered or stored by owners of such installation. Any such unforeseen costs may have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flow and financial condition, and therefore our ability to make timely payments under the Notes.

We are exposed to political and regulatory risks.

The oil and gas industry in general is subject to extensive government policies and regulations. No assurance can be given that new or existing legislation or regulations and new interpretation of existing legislation or regulations, including with respect to the potential imposition of windfall taxes on oil and gas companies, joint gas purchasing programmes or commodity price caps, will not result in a curtailment of production, delays or a material increase in operating costs and capital expenditure for our activities or otherwise adversely affect our financial condition, results of operations or prospects. Further, a failure to comply with applicable legislation, regulations and conditions or orders issued by the regulatory authorities may lead to fines, penalties, restrictions, withdrawal of licences and termination of related agreements. This could also have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flow and financial condition, and therefore our ability to make timely payments under the Notes. See "Risks relating to the oil and gas industry — Our business and financial condition could be adversely affected if Norwegian tax regulations for the petroleum industry are amended."

We conduct exploration and development activities in Norway and are dependent on receipt of government approvals and permits to develop our assets. The Norwegian Petroleum Act, among other things, sets out different criteria for the organisation, competence and financial capability that a licensee at the NCS must fulfil at all times. As at the date of this Offering Circular we are qualified to conduct our operations on the NCS, however, there is no assurance that future political conditions in Norway will not result in the government adopting new or different policies and regulations on exploration, development, operation and ownership of oil and gas, environmental protection, and labour relations. Further, we may be unable to obtain or renew required drilling rights, licences, permits and other authorisations and these may also be suspended, terminated or revoked prior to their expiration. This may affect our ability to undertake exploration and development activities in respect of present and future assets, as well as our ability to raise funds for such activities. There is a risk that new licences for particular projects will not be granted by relevant authorities as a result of, for example, political decisions to limit the future production of oil and gas. Also, for similar reasons, there can be no assurance that our licences granted by the MPE will be extended or will not be revoked in the future, nor that we will be successful in obtaining access to future exploration areas in subsequent applications through the annual Awards in Predefined Areas procedures. Furthermore, there is a risk that the MPE stipulates conditions for any such extension or for not revoking any licences. Lack of governmental approvals or permits or delays in receiving such approval may delay our operations, increase our costs and liabilities or affect the status of our contractual arrangements or our ability to meet our contractual obligations. Any of the above factors may have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flow and financial condition, and therefore our ability to make timely payments under the Notes.

We are vulnerable to adverse market perception, resulting in a risk of litigation or other proceedings in relation to our business as well as risk of reduced investment.

We are vulnerable to adverse market perception, as we must display a high level of integrity and maintain the trust and confidence of investors, other licence participants, public authorities and counterparties. Increased awareness about climate change and societal expectations regarding voluntary ESG disclosures, combined with the operational risks pertaining to the extraction of oil and gas reserves from the seabed means that oil and gas companies such as us are facing scrutiny from many different stakeholders, including politicians, non-governmental organisations (NGOs), the media and the general public.

In particular, increasing attention to climate change and environmental conservation, for example, may result in changes in demand for oil and natural gas products and additional governmental investigations and private litigation against us. See also “We are vulnerable to environmental legal challenges in relation to the Norwegian state’s granting of permits for oil and gas exploration and production, including ongoing legal proceedings against the Norwegian state relating to the permits for the development and operation of our Tyrving and Yggdrasil projects” below.

Moreover, organisations that provide information to investors on corporate governance and related matters have developed ratings processes for evaluating companies on their approach to ESG matters. Such ratings are used by some investors to inform their investment and voting decisions. Unfavourable ESG ratings and recent activism directed at shifting funding away from companies with energy-related assets could lead to increased negative investor sentiment towards us which could have a negative impact on our access to and costs of capital. Also, institutional lenders may decide not to provide funding for fossil fuel energy companies based on climate change related concerns, which could affect our access to capital for potential growth projects.

Any mismanagement, fraud or failure to satisfy fiduciary or regulatory responsibilities, allegations of such activities, or negative publicity resulting from such other activities, or the association of any of the above with us could materially adversely affect our reputation and the value of our brand, as well as our business, results of operations, cash flow and financial condition, and therefore our ability to make timely payments under the Notes.

We are vulnerable to environmental legal challenges in relation to the Norwegian state’s granting of permits for oil and gas exploration and production, including ongoing legal proceedings against the Norwegian state relating to the permits for the development and operation of our Tyrving and Yggdrasil projects.

Environmental organisations Greenpeace Norden and Natur og Ungdom (together, the Plaintiffs) have filed a lawsuit against the Norwegian state, challenging the validity of the Plan for Development and Operation (PDO) approvals for the Bredablikk, Tyrving, and Yggdrasil fields. Aker BP ASA is the developer and operator of the Tyrving, and Yggdrasil fields.

On 18 January 2024, the Oslo District Court ruled in favour of the Plaintiffs, stating that the PDO approvals were invalid in relation to the Norwegian state due to procedural errors on the part of the Norwegian state, more specifically the lack of an impact assessment for Scope 3 CO<sub>2</sub> emissions being carried out before the Norwegian state granted the PDOs. The court also imposed a preliminary injunction preventing the Norwegian state from issuing new approvals that depend on the validity of the PDOs until the court ruling is final following any appeals.

The Norwegian state filed an appeal against the judgment and the preliminary injunction on 8 February 2024.

On 20 March 2024, the Court of Appeal decided that the preliminary injunction should be suspended until the Court of Appeal had finally decided on the appeal thereof, and on 16 May 2024 the Court of Appeal decided to extend the suspension of the injunction until the main hearing in the appeal case regarding validity of the PDOs. The Court of Appeal decided in favour of the Plaintiffs in a ruling from November 2025. This ruling has been appealed by the Norwegian state to the Supreme Court, and the hearing in the Supreme Court is scheduled for August 2026.

Aker BP ASA and the other participants in the Breidablikk, Tyrving, and Yggdrasil fields are not parties to the case, and the ruling does not have a direct binding effect on us or the other participants. However, if the ruling stands also after being heard in the Supreme Court, the Norwegian state will need to consider if the PDO approvals are also invalid in relation to the license holders, if there are procedural errors that need to be repaired, and if there are reasons to amend the terms of, or withdraw, the PDO approvals.

If the PDOs for Yggdrasil and Tyrving are ultimately ruled to be invalid due to procedural errors, we may be required to perform additional impact assessments to repair the procedural error, and there is a risk that the terms of the PDOs may be amended or ultimately terminated. If the PDOs were to be terminated, we would need to reapply for new PDOs, and it is currently unclear if the new PDOs (if granted) would then be subject to the same tax regime that applied to the terminated PDOs or if different taxation rules would apply to the affected projects. The court precedent established by this case could also further expose us to the risk that future PDOs are also challenged in the same manner, which may delay, increase the costs of, or even halt our future projects. Any of these outcomes could adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flows, financial condition and ultimately our ability to make timely payments under the Notes.

We could incur material costs to comply with or as a result of liabilities under health and safety and environmental laws and regulations.

All phases of the oil and gas business present environmental risks and hazards and are subject to environmental regulation pursuant to a variety of international conventions and directives and federal, county and other local laws and regulations. Environmental legislation provides for, among other things, restrictions and prohibitions on spills and releases or emissions of various substances produced in association with oil and gas operations. This legislation also requires that wells and facility sites are operated, maintained, abandoned, and reclaimed to the satisfaction of applicable regulatory authorities. We are subject to legislation and regulatory requirements in relation to the emission of carbon dioxide, methane, nitrous oxide and other greenhouse gases.

We have incurred, and expect to continue to incur, capital and operating costs in an effort to comply with increasingly complex health and safety and environmental laws and regulations and to develop and implement robust health, safety, security, environment and quality (HSEQ) systems to aim to comply with all applicable requirements as licensee or operator in respect of our interests. A breach of any such legislation or requirements can require significant expenditures and a breach may result in the imposition of fines and penalties, some of which may be material, in addition to loss of reputation. Environmental legislation and regulations are evolving in a manner expected to result in stricter standards and enforcement, larger fines and liability, and potentially increased capital expenditures and operating costs. The discharge of oil, gas or other pollutants into the air, soil or water may give rise to material liabilities to the Norwegian state, foreign governments and third parties and may require us to incur material costs to remedy such discharge. No assurance can be given that environmental laws or regulations will not result in a curtailment or shut down of production or a material increase in the costs of production, development or exploration activities or otherwise materially adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flow and financial condition, and therefore our ability to make timely payments under the Notes.

Furthermore, environmental concerns relating to the oil and gas industry's operating practices are expected to increasingly influence government regulation and consumption patterns which favour cleaner burning fuels such as gas. Future compliance with existing emissions legislation or any future emissions legislation could adversely affect our profitability. Future legislative initiatives designed to reduce the consumption of hydrocarbons could also have an impact on our ability to market our oil and gas and the prices which we are able to obtain, which in turn may adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flow and financial condition, and therefore our ability to make timely payments under the Notes.

While we are not currently aware of any pollution or environmental liabilities that are expected to be material in relation to our operations on the NCS, we may potentially be subject to various liabilities such as pollution and environmental liabilities related to our business which may adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flow and financial condition, and therefore our ability to make timely payments under the Notes.

Our operations in the Barents Sea expose us to additional environmental risks relating to Arctic drilling.

We hold license acreage in the Barents Sea, including interests in the Wisting development. (See “Risks relating to the oil and gas industry — Sustained lower oil and gas prices or future price declines could result in a reduction in the carrying value of our assets.”) In addition, we hold exploration licenses that are subject to exploration and appraisal drilling, which may result in new discoveries which could later be developed.

Drilling within the Barents Sea presents an operating environment characterised by remoteness, lack of ancillary supporting infrastructure, extended periods of darkness and cold, and harsh weather conditions. These factors may increase operating costs and the risk of incidents resulting from our operations in the Barents Sea. In addition, parts of the Barents Sea are ecologically sensitive, such as the far-eastern part of the northern Norwegian coast, and any spills or other environmental incidents that may occur could result in increased response and remedial costs and other liabilities. Any spills in the eastern section of the Barents Sea may also cross the border into Russian waters, which may expose us to responsibilities and liabilities pursuant to relevant Russian legislation or otherwise increase geopolitical tensions. Moreover, we may be unable to obtain adequate insurance coverage for our operations in the Barents Sea, with a number of underwriters having policies that limit or exclude underwriting of activities in Arctic regions. We have managed to secure appropriate insurance for all our Barents Sea activities in the current policy programme, however this may become more challenging in the years to come. In addition, environmental NGOs frequently oppose Arctic drilling. These NGOs could initiate legal or other actions that may delay our exploration and production activities in this area. Any of the above factors could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flow and financial condition, and therefore our ability to make timely payments under the Notes.

Our insurance may not provide sufficient funds to protect us from liabilities that could result from our operations.

Oil and gas exploration, development, and production operations are subject to the risks and hazards typically associated with such operations, including, but not limited to, fires, explosions, blowouts, and oil spills, each of which could result in substantial damage to oil and gas wells, production facilities, other property and the environment, or result in personal injury and business interruption.

We maintain a number of separate insurance policies to protect our core business against loss and liability to third parties. Insured risks typically include general liability, workers' compensation and employee liability, professional indemnity and material damage. Furthermore, not all mentioned risks are insurable, or only insurable at a disproportionately high cost. Although we maintain liability insurance in an amount that we consider adequate and consistent with industry standards, the nature of these risks is such that liabilities could materially exceed policy limits or not be insured at all, in which event we could incur significant costs that could have an adverse effect on our financial condition, results of operation and cash flow. Any uninsured loss or liabilities, or any loss and liabilities exceeding the insured limits, may adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flow, financial condition and ultimately our ability to make timely payments under the Notes.

Accounting policies may result in non-cash charges and write-downs considered unfavourably by the market.

When preparing its Financial Statements, and in accordance with IFRS and the Norwegian Accounting Act, the Issuer's management is applying certain accounting policies and make certain estimates and assumptions, which affect reported amounts in our consolidated financial statements. The accounting policies may result in non-cash charges to net income from material impairments of assets in our financial statements. Such non-cash impairment charges may be viewed unfavourably by the market and result in an inability to borrow funds and/or may result in a significant decline in the trading price of our securities (in particular, our shares, if such non-cash charges and impairments limit our dividend capacity), which may materially and adversely affect our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations and ultimately our ability to make timely payments under the Notes.

Our development projects require substantial capital expenditures. We may be unable to obtain the required capital or financing on satisfactory terms, which could lead to a decline in our oil and gas reserves.

We make and expect to continue to make substantial capital expenditures in our business for the development, production and acquisition of oil and natural gas reserves. We intend to finance the majority of our future capital expenditures with cash flow from operations, issuances of Notes under the Programme and borrowings under our revolving credit facility and other debt facilities. Our cash flows from operations and access to capital are subject to a number of variables which we do not control, including:

- our proved reserves;
- the level of oil and natural gas we are able to produce from existing wells;
- the price at which our oil and gas are sold;
- our ability to acquire, locate and produce new reserves; and
- general market conditions.

Our current funding restricts our ability to obtain certain types of new financing. If additional capital is needed, we may not be able to obtain additional debt or equity financing. If cash generated by operations or cash available under our revolving credit facility or other debt facilities is not sufficient to meet our capital requirements, the failure to obtain additional financing could result in a curtailment of our operations relating to development of our prospects, which in turn could lead to a decline in our oil and natural gas reserves, or if it is not possible to cancel or stop a project, us being legally obliged to carry out the project contrary to our desire or with negative impact on our business. Further, we may fail to make required cash calls and breach licence obligations, which could lead to adverse consequences, see "Risks relating to our operations and business — Our exploration and production operations are dependent on our compliance with obligations under licences, joint operating agreements and field development plans." All of the above could adversely affect our production, revenues and results of operations as well as have an adverse effect on our ability to service our debt, including the Notes.

Changes in foreign exchange rates may affect our results of operations and financial position.

We are exposed to market fluctuations in foreign exchange rates. Revenues are in U.S. dollars for oil and in euros and pound sterling for gas, while operational costs, taxes and investment are in several currencies, including Norwegian kroner, U.S dollars and euros. In addition, while our functional currency is U.S. dollars, it is a statutory requirement to calculate our current tax based on a functional currency of Norwegian kroner. As a result, fluctuations in exchange rates between U.S. dollars and Norwegian kroner may impact our effective tax rate in a year. Although we actively manage our foreign currency exposure through a mix of forward contracts and options, significant fluctuations in exchange rates between U.S. dollars and Norwegian kroner could make our reported results more volatile and have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flow, financial condition and covenants and our ability to service our obligations under the Notes.

Tax disputes could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, and financial condition.

We become involved from time to time in certain tax disputes with the Norwegian tax authorities. In particular, we are involved on an ongoing basis in disputes in Norway relating to transfer pricing issues (which relates to whether specific transaction prices (such as rig hire, gas sales, insurance premiums, interest rates and intercompany charges) are set in accordance with the arm's-length principle). Most of the tax disputes we are party to are legacy disputes inherited from BP Norge and Hess Norge through the BP Norge and the Hess Norge acquisitions, respectively. See “Description of the Issuer — Oil taxation office assessment.” Although we believe our inter-company arrangements are based on accepted tax standards, from time to time competent tax authorities have disagreed, and may in the future disagree, with the pricing methodology applied and subsequently challenge the amount of profits reported therein, which may increase our tax liabilities and potentially have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flow, financial condition and our ability to service our obligations under the Notes.

Our digital infrastructure systems may be subject to intentional and unintentional disruption, and our confidential information may be misappropriated, stolen or misused, which could adversely impact our business and reputation.

We could be a target of cyber-attacks designed to penetrate our network security or the security of our digital infrastructure, misappropriate proprietary information, commit financial fraud and/or cause interruptions to our activities, including a reduction or halt in our production. Such attacks could include hackers obtaining access to our systems, the introduction of malicious computer code or denial of service attacks. If an actual or perceived breach of our network security occurs, it could adversely affect our business or reputation, and may expose us to the loss of information, litigation, and possible liability. Such a security breach could also divert the efforts of our technical and management personnel. In addition, such a security breach could impair our ability to operate our business and provide products and services to our customers. If this happens, our reputation could be harmed, our revenues could decline, and our business could suffer.

In addition, confidential information that we maintain may be subject to misappropriation, theft and deliberate or unintentional misuse by current or former employees, third-party contractors or other parties who have had access to such information. Any such misappropriation and/or misuse of our information could result in us, among other things, being in breach of certain data protection and related legislation. We expect that we will need to continue closely monitoring the accessibility and use of confidential information in our business, educate our employees and third-party contractors about the risks and consequences of any misuse of confidential information and, to the extent necessary, pursue legal or other remedies to enforce our policies and deter future misuse.

We collect, store and use personal data in the ordinary course of our business operations, and are therefore subject to data protection regulation and legislation, including laws and regulations concerning the collection, use, retention, security, processing and transfer of personal data. Our operations are subject to the provisions of the General Data Protection Regulation (EU 2016/679) (the GDPR). Complying with all relevant data protection laws and regulations is complex. Any finding that we failed to comply with such regulations or legislation could lead to governmental sanctions, including fines or the initiation of criminal or civil proceedings. The consequences for violating applicable data privacy and protection laws and regulations can be significant: for example, the GDPR provides for maximum fines of up to the higher of (i) €20 million or (ii) 4 per cent. of annual global turnover. A fine under the GDPR may be imposed instead of, or in addition to, enforcement action that may be ordered by local supervisory authorities. Such an event could additionally result in unfavourable publicity, which may in turn affect our credibility and reputation within the industry. Non-compliance or technical defects resulting in a leak, or the misuse of such data could result in fines, damage to our reputation and/or otherwise harm our business, results of operations, cash flow and financial condition, and therefore our ability to service our obligations under the Notes.

We are exposed to the risk of violations of anti-corruption laws, related sanctions or other similar regulations.

We strive to comply with all laws, regulations and conventions in the areas in which we operate and have developed an ethics and compliance programme to further our compliance with the values and ethical principles outlined in our code of conduct (the Code of Conduct).

While we expect our contractors and business partners to adhere to standards which are consistent with the Code of Conduct, as well as to adhere to all applicable laws and regulations, there can be no guarantee that our contractors or business partners adhere to such policies and procedures and, if they do not, that we will be made aware of any breaches or potential breaches in a timely manner or at all. While we have what we believe to be appropriate internal policies and procedures, including the Code of Conduct, as well as contractual arrangements in place with our contractors or business partners which seek to prevent contractors or business partners (as the case may be) from engaging in illegal or unethical activities, we may, nonetheless, remain liable for the unauthorized actions of our contractors or business partners (as the case may be).

In addition, even where we have in place anti-corruption and other business ethics policies and procedures, including procedures to monitor compliance with such policies and procedures, there can be no assurance that such policies and procedures have been or will be followed at all times and, if they are not followed, that such violations have been or will be effectively detected and prevented (including all violations of applicable laws and every instance of fraud, bribery and corruption in every jurisdiction in which one or more of our employees, consultants, agents, joint venture partners, contractors or sub-contractors is located). If we, our employees, agents or other parties we do business with or who have performed services for us fail to prevent any such violations or become the subject of investigations into potential violations, we could be subject to penalties and reputational damage resulting in a material adverse effect on our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations .

If adverse investigations or findings are made, either erroneously due to differing but legal business norms or substantiated in the future, against us, our directors, officers, employees or joint venture partners, or such persons or their respective partners are found to be involved in corruption or other illegal activity, this could result in criminal or civil penalties, including substantial monetary fines, against our directors, officers, employees or joint venture partners. Any such investigations or findings, either erroneous or substantiated in the future, could damage our reputation with our investors, potential investors, joint venture partners or potential joint venture partners and our ability to do business, including by affecting our rights under our various production sharing contracts and joint operating agreements or by the loss of key personnel, and could materially and adversely affect our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations. We may also be subject to allegations of corrupt practices or other illegal activities, which, even if subsequently proved to be unfounded, may damage our reputation and require significant expense and management time to investigate. Furthermore, alleged or actual involvement in corrupt practices or other illegal activities by our joint venture partners, or others with whom we conduct business could also damage our reputation and business and materially and adversely affect our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations.

If we fail to implement and maintain an effective system of internal controls, we may be unable to accurately or timely report our results of operations, and the trading price and liquidity of the Notes could be negatively impacted thereby.

Our internal controls over financial reporting are intended to ensure we maintain accurate records, promote the accurate and timely reporting of our financial information, maintain adequate control over our assets, and detect unauthorised acquisition, use or disposition of our assets. Effective internal and disclosure controls are necessary for us to provide reliable financial reports and to operate successfully as a business. Our management is responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal controls.

In recent years, we have significantly expanded the size and scope of our operations, including through acquisitions, such as the merger between the Issuer and Lundin Energy MergerCo AB which closed on 30 June 2022. As we expand our size and scope, there is an increased risk that our internal controls may not mature at the same pace. For example, some of the processes related to internal controls may be new for personnel from newly acquired companies, and in the case of acquisitions may take time to be fully implemented. As we grow, the required sophistication of our internal controls and accounting and financial reporting functions will also need to expand to ensure our internal controls remain adequate. Moreover, new and/or complex accounting standards and interpretations have created new and more demanding requirements for financial reporting and disclosures, which require further development of our internal controls.

If our internal controls do not keep pace with growth in the size and sophistication of our business and the applicable financial reporting framework, we may not be able to implement and maintain adequate internal controls. This could result in material misstatements in our financial statements or failure to meet our reporting obligations in a timely manner, which may cause a loss of confidence in our reported financial information and could have a negative impact on the trading price and liquidity of the Notes.

Moreover, delayed or inaccurate financial reporting impacting external reporting requirements may lead to regulatory action, fiscal uncertainty, shareholder lawsuits and loss of investor confidence. Such errors and omissions, should they be significant, could require senior management attention and require measures diverting efforts and prospects for growth. Inaccuracies could adversely affect our strategic decision making, productivity and growth and therefore may in turn materially impact our cash flows, financial condition and results of operations.

Risks related to the Merger with Lundin Energy

This section relates to the merger between Aker BP and Lundin Energy MergerCo AB (Lundin Energy, and taken together with Aker BP, the Combined Company), which closed on 30 June 2022 (the Merger).

As a result of the Merger, we have recorded a significant amount of goodwill, which could thereafter be subject to the risk of impairments.

We have recorded a significant amount of goodwill and other intangible assets relating to the Merger. We allocated the excess of the consideration paid for Lundin Energy over the fair value of Lundin Energy's identifiable net assets as of 30 June 2022 to goodwill, in the amount of $12.5 billion. In addition, we allocated $1.3 billion to other intangible assets.

We may subsequently experience unforeseen issues with the acquired Lundin Energy business, which may adversely affect our anticipated returns or value of the intangible assets and trigger an evaluation of the recoverability of the recorded goodwill and other intangible assets for Lundin Energy. In accordance with IFRS, goodwill is tested for impairment annually or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that the value may be impaired. Impairment is recognized if the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit (CGU) (or group of CGUs) to which the goodwill is related is less than the book value, including associated goodwill and deferred tax. Losses relating to impairment of goodwill cannot be reversed in future periods. If management's projections change, the estimate of the recoverable amount of goodwill could fall significantly and result in impairment.

A material part of goodwill from the Merger relates to technical goodwill calculated on the basis of the difference between the estimated fair market value and tax value of the assets acquired. Technical goodwill recognised in a business combination is allocated to each CGU for the purpose of impairment testing. Therefore, the impairment test of technical goodwill is included in the impairment testing of assets, and the technical goodwill is written down before the asset. The carrying value of the assets is the sum of tangible assets, intangible assets and technical goodwill as of the assessment date. In the impairment test performed, carrying value is adjusted by the remaining part of deferred tax from which the technical goodwill arose, to avoid an immediate impairment of all technical goodwill. When deferred tax liabilities from the acquisitions decreases as a result of depreciation, more goodwill is as such exposed for impairment. This may lead to future impairment charges even though other assumptions remain stable.

While impairment does not affect reported cash flows, EBITDAX or any other underlying performance measures, the decrease of the estimated recoverable amount and the related non-cash charge in the income statement could have a material adverse effect on our results of operations, net equity or financial condition as reported under IFRS.

Several NGOs submitted a complaint to Norway's National Contact Point for responsible business alleging that Aker BP did not adhere to the OECD Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises in relation to the Merger.

Following the announcement of the Merger, on 31 May 2022, several NGOs submitted a letter to Norway's National Contact Point for responsible business (NCP), alleging that Aker BP and Aker ASA had not complied with the OECD Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises (the OECD Guidelines) in connection with the Merger. Lundin Energy is accused of having contributed to gross human rights abuses and war crimes in Sudan during its operations there in 1999-2003 and the matter is subject to criminal proceedings before the Stockholm City Court. The complainants claimed that the transaction left Lundin Energy (later renamed Orrön Energy AB) financially incapable of providing remedy to victims. The NCP admitted parts of the complaint, delimited to Aker BP's (and Aker ASA's) human rights due diligence at the time of the transaction, and issued its Final Statement on 18 June 2025.

The issue under consideration was whether Aker BP had carried out due diligence in line with the OECD Guidelines at the time of the transaction with respect to a potential adverse impact on the victims' right to an effective remedy from Lundin Energy, should responsibility be established. The company acquired by Aker BP was Lundin Energy Norway AS and the NCP did not question our assessment that there is no connection between this company and the alleged human rights impact. However, the NCP found that Aker BP's due diligence had not adequately addressed the risk that Lundin Energy/Orrön Energy would not be financially capable of meeting its potential responsibility for providing remedy under the OECD Guidelines. NCP is not authorised to impose financial sanctions

Aker BP has reviewed its role as a party to the negotiations and agreement with Lundin Energy and the steps taken in the due diligence in light of the expectations of the OECD Guidelines. The conclusion remains that Aker BP did not contribute to a potential adverse impact on the right to remedy. Aker BP's business relationship with Lundin/Orrön Energy ended in 2022.

FACTORS WHICH ARE MATERIAL FOR THE PURPOSE OF ASSESSING THE MARKET RISKS ASSOCIATED WITH NOTES ISSUED UNDER THE PROGRAMME

Risks related to the structure of a particular issue of Notes

A range of Notes may be issued under the Programme. A number of these Notes may have features which contain particular risks for potential investors. Set out below is a description of the most common such features, distinguishing between factors which may occur in relation to any Notes and those which might occur in relation to certain types of Exempt Notes:

Risks applicable to all Notes

If the Issuer has the right to redeem any Notes at its option, this may limit the market value of the Notes concerned and an investor may not be able to reinvest the redemption proceeds in a manner which achieves a similar effective return.

An optional redemption feature is likely to limit the market value of Notes. During any period when the Issuer may elect to redeem Notes, the market value of those Notes generally will not rise substantially above the price at which they can be redeemed. This also may be true prior to any redemption period.

The Issuer may be expected to redeem Notes when its cost of borrowing is lower than the interest rate on the Notes. At those times, an investor generally would not be able to reinvest the redemption proceeds at an effective interest rate as high as the interest rate on the Notes being redeemed and may only be able to do so at a significantly lower rate. Potential investors should consider reinvestment risk in light of other investments available at that time.

If the Notes include a feature to convert the interest basis from a fixed rate to a floating rate, or vice versa, this may affect the secondary market and the market value of the Notes concerned.

Fixed/Floating Rate Notes are Notes which bear interest at a rate that converts from a fixed rate to a floating rate, or from a floating rate to a fixed rate. Such a feature to convert the interest basis, and any conversion of the interest basis, may affect the secondary market in, and the market value of, such Notes as the change of interest basis may result in a lower interest return for Noteholders. Where the Notes convert from a fixed rate to a floating rate, the spread on the Fixed/Floating Rate Notes may be less favourable than then prevailing spreads on comparable Floating Rate Notes tied to the same reference rate. In addition, the new floating rate at any time may be lower than the rates on other Notes. Where the Notes convert from a floating rate to a fixed rate, the fixed rate may be lower than then prevailing rates on those Notes and could affect the market value of an investment in the relevant Notes.

Notes which are issued at a substantial discount or premium may experience price volatility in response to changes in market interest rates.

The market values of securities issued at a substantial discount (such as Zero Coupon Notes) or premium to their principal amount tend to fluctuate more in relation to general changes in interest rates than do prices for more conventional interest-bearing securities. Generally, the longer the remaining term of such securities, the greater the price volatility as compared to more conventional interest-bearing securities with comparable maturities.

The regulation and reform of “benchmarks” may adversely affect the value of Notes linked to or referencing such “benchmarks”.

Interest rates and indices which are deemed to be “benchmarks”, (including EURIBOR, NIBOR and STIBOR) are the subject of national and international regulatory guidance and reform aimed at supporting the transition to robust benchmarks. Most reforms have now reached their planned conclusion (including the transition away from LIBOR, for example), and “benchmarks” remain subject to ongoing monitoring. These reforms may cause such benchmarks to perform differently than in the past, to disappear entirely, or have other consequences which cannot be predicted. Any such consequence could have a material adverse effect on any Notes referencing such a benchmark.

The EU Benchmarks Regulation applies, subject to certain transitional provisions, to the provision of in-scope benchmarks, the contribution of input data to an in-scope benchmark and the use of an in-scope benchmark within the EU. Among other things, it (i) requires benchmark administrators to be authorised or registered (or, if non-EU-based, to be subject to an equivalent regime or otherwise recognised or endorsed) and (ii) prevents certain uses by EU supervised entities of in-scope benchmarks of administrators that are not authorised or registered (or, if non-EU based, not deemed equivalent or recognised or endorsed). Regulation (EU) 2016/1011 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA (the UK Benchmarks Regulation) among other things, applies to the provision of benchmarks and the use of a benchmark in the UK. Similarly, it prohibits the use in the UK by UK supervised entities of benchmarks of administrators that are not authorised by the FCA or registered on the FCA register (or, if non-UK based, not deemed equivalent or recognised or endorsed).

The EU Benchmarks Regulation and/or the UK Benchmarks Regulation, as applicable, could have a material impact on any Notes linked to or referencing a benchmark which is in-scope of one or both regulations, in particular, if the methodology or other terms of the benchmark are changed in order to comply with the requirements of the EU Benchmarks Regulation and/or the UK Benchmarks Regulation, as applicable. Such changes could, among other things, have the effect of reducing, increasing or otherwise affecting the volatility of the published rate or level of the relevant benchmark.

More broadly, any of the international or national reforms, or the general increased regulatory scrutiny of benchmarks, could increase the costs and risks of administering or otherwise participating in the setting of a benchmark and complying with any such regulations or requirements.

Such factors may have (without limitation) the following effects on certain benchmarks: (i) discouraging market participants from continuing to administer or contribute to a benchmark; (ii) triggering changes in the rules or methodologies used in the benchmark and/or (iii) leading to the disappearance of the benchmark. Any of the above changes or any other consequential changes as a result of international or national reforms or other initiatives or investigations, could have a material adverse effect on the value of and return on any Notes linked to, referencing, or otherwise dependent (in whole or in part) upon, a benchmark.

The Terms and Conditions of the Notes provide for certain fallback arrangements in the event that an Original Reference Rate (as defined in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes) and/or any page on which an Original Reference Rate may be published (or any other successor service) becomes unavailable or a Benchmark Event otherwise occurs. Such fallback arrangements include the possibility that the rate of interest or other amounts payable under the Notes could be set by reference to a Successor Rate or an Alternative Rate (both as defined in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes) determined by an Independent Adviser (as defined in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes) acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner as described more fully in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes. If a Successor Rate or an Alternative Rate (as the case may be) is so determined, an Adjustment Spread (as defined in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes) shall also be determined by the relevant Independent Adviser in accordance with the Terms and Conditions of the Notes and amendments to the Terms and Conditions of the Notes may be made by the relevant Independent Adviser (acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner) to follow market practice in relation to the Successor Rate or Alternative Rate (as applicable) or to ensure the proper operation of the Successor Rate or Alternative Rate and/or (in either case) the applicable Adjustment Spread. An Adjustment Spread could be positive, negative or zero. Investors should note that the relevant Independent Adviser will have discretion to determine the applicable Adjustment Spread in the circumstances described in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes, and in any event an Adjustment Spread may not be effective in reducing or eliminating any economic prejudice or benefit to investors arising out of the replacement of the relevant Original Reference Rate with the Successor Rate or the Alternative Rate (as the case may be).

The use of a Successor Rate or Alternative Rate (including with the application of an Adjustment Spread) will still result in any Notes referencing an Original Reference Rate performing differently (which may include payment of a lower Rate of Interest) than they would if the Original Reference Rate were to continue to apply in its current form. No consent of the Noteholders or Couponholders shall be required in connection with effecting any relevant Successor Rate or Alternative Rate (as applicable) or any other related adjustments and/or amendments described above.

Any such adjustment or amendment could have unexpected commercial consequences and there can be no assurance that, due to the particular circumstances of each Noteholder or Couponholder, any such adjustment will be favourable to each Noteholder or Couponholder.

In certain circumstances (including where, following the occurrence of a Benchmark Event, the Independent Adviser appointed by the Issuer fails to make the necessary determination of a Successor Rate or Alternative Rate or (in either case) the applicable Adjustment Spread), the ultimate fallback for the purposes of calculation of the Rate of Interest for a particular Interest Period may result in the Rate of Interest for the last preceding Interest Period being used. This may result in the effective application of a fixed rate for Floating Rate Notes based on the rate which was last observed on the Relevant Screen Page. Due to the uncertainty concerning the availability of Successor Rates and Alternative Rates, the involvement of an Independent Adviser and the potential for further regulatory developments, there is a risk that the relevant fallback provisions may not operate as intended at the relevant time.

Investors should consult their own independent advisers and make their own assessment about the potential risks imposed by the EU Benchmarks Regulation and/or the UK Benchmarks Regulation, as applicable, or any of the international or national reforms and the possible application of the benchmark replacement provisions of Notes in making any investment decision with respect to any Notes referencing a benchmark.

The Notes may be redeemed if they become subject to withholding tax.

The Terms and Conditions of the Notes permit the Issuer to redeem the Notes in whole, but not in part, prior to their stated maturity if any of the Notes become subject to withholding tax which is introduced or changed after the issuance of the relevant series of Notes.

Effective from 1 July 2021, Norway introduced withholding tax of 15 per cent. (unless a lower rate is provided in an applicable tax treaty) on interest payments made by Norwegian debtors to related parties who are resident in low tax jurisdictions. This withholding tax will not apply to interest payments to a related party who is tax resident in a low tax jurisdiction within the EEA if the related party is genuinely established and performs genuine economic activities within the EEA. If any withholding or deduction is required to be made for or on account of the aforementioned withholding tax, payments by the Issuer to holders of Notes who are related parties of the Issuer may be affected as the Issuer is not obliged to pay any additional amounts in respect thereof pursuant to Condition 8(d) of the Terms and Conditions of the Notes. As the aforementioned Norwegian withholding tax regime is in effect prior to the Issue Date of any Notes, the Issuer cannot use this to exercise its right to redeem the Notes pursuant to Condition 7.2, however, it cannot be excluded that Norway could extend the withholding tax regime to a wider range of creditors in the future, including one or more holder of Notes. Hence, there is a risk that introduction of new withholding tax rules on payments under the Notes will entitle the Issuer to redeem the Notes prior to their stated maturity.

Risks applicable to certain types of Exempt Notes

There are particular risks associated with an investment in certain types of Exempt Notes. In particular, an investor might receive less interest than expected or no interest in respect of such Notes and may lose some or all of the principal amount invested by it.

The Issuer may issue Notes with principal or interest payable in respect of the Notes being determined by reference to an index or formula, to changes in the prices of securities or commodities, to movements in currency exchange rates or other factors (each, a Relevant Factor). In addition, the Issuer may issue Notes with principal or interest payable in one or more currencies which may be different from the currency in which the Notes are denominated. Potential investors should be aware that:

- (i) the market price of such Notes may be volatile;
- (ii) they may receive no interest;
- (iii) payment of principal or interest may occur at a different time or in a different currency than expected;
- (iv) they may lose all or a substantial portion of their principal;
- (v) a Relevant Factor may be subject to significant fluctuations that may not correlate with changes in interest rates, currencies or other indices;
- (vi) the effect of any multiplier or leverage factor that is applied to the Relevant Factor is that the impact of any changes in the Relevant Factor on the amounts of principal or interest payable will be magnified; and
- (vii) the timing of changes in a Relevant Factor may affect the actual yield to investors, even if the average level is consistent with their expectations. In general, the earlier the change in the Relevant Factor, the greater the effect on yield.

The historical experience of an index or other Relevant Factor should not be viewed as an indication of the future performance of such Relevant Factor during the term of any Notes. Accordingly, each potential investor should consult its own financial and legal advisers about the risk entailed by an investment in any Notes linked to a Relevant Factor and the suitability of such Notes in light of its particular circumstances.

Notes which are issued with variable interest rates or which are structured to include a multiplier or other leverage factor are likely to have more volatile market values than more standard securities.

Notes with variable interest rates can be volatile investments. If they are structured to include multipliers or other leverage factors, or caps or floors, or any combination of those features or other similar related features, their market values may be even more volatile than those for securities that do not include those features.

Inverse Floating Rate Notes will have more volatile market values than conventional Floating Rate Notes.

Inverse Floating Rate Notes have an interest rate equal to a fixed rate minus a rate based upon a reference rate such as EURIBOR, NIBOR or STIBOR. The market values of those Notes typically are more volatile than market values of other conventional floating rate debt securities based on the same reference rate (and with otherwise comparable terms). Inverse Floating Rate Notes are more volatile because an increase in the reference rate not only decreases the interest rate of the Notes, but may also reflect an increase in prevailing interest rates, which further adversely affects the market value of these Notes.

Risks related to Notes generally

Set out below is a description of material risks relating to the Notes generally:

The conditions of the Notes contain provisions which may permit their modification without the consent of all investors.

The conditions of the Notes contain provisions for calling meetings (including by way of conference call or by use of a videoconference platform) of Noteholders to consider and vote upon matters affecting their interests generally, or to pass resolutions in writing or through the use of electronic consents. These provisions permit defined majorities to bind all Noteholders including Noteholders who did not attend and vote at the relevant meeting or, as the case may be, did not sign the written resolution or give their consent electronically, and including those Noteholders who voted in a manner contrary to the majority.

A Restructuring Plan implemented pursuant to Part 26A of the Companies Act 2006 may modify or disapply certain terms of the Notes without the consent of the Noteholders.

Where the Issuer encounters, or is likely to encounter, financial difficulties that are affecting, or will or may affect, its ability to carry on business as a going concern, it may propose a Restructuring Plan (a Plan) with its creditors (and members, if relevant) under Part 26A of the Companies Act 2006 (introduced by the Corporate Insolvency and Governance Act 2020) to eliminate, reduce, prevent or mitigate the effect of any of those financial difficulties. Should this happen, creditors and members whose rights are affected are organised into creditor classes and can vote on any such Plan (subject to being excluded from the vote by the English courts for having no genuine economic interest in the Issuer and certain exclusions where the Plan is proposed within the 12 week period following the end of a moratorium). Providing that one class (who would receive a payment, or have a genuine economic interest in the Issuer) has approved the Plan, and in the view of the English courts any dissenting class(es) who did not approve the Plan are no worse off under the Plan than they would be in the event of the “relevant alternative” (such as, broadly, liquidation or administration), then the English court can sanction the Plan where it would be a proper exercise of its discretion. A sanctioned Plan is binding on all creditors and members, regardless of whether they approved it. Any such sanctioned Plan in relation to the Issuer may, therefore, adversely affect the rights of Noteholders and the price or value of their investment in the Notes, as it may have the effect of modifying or disapplying certain terms of the Notes.

The value of the Notes could be adversely affected by a change in English law or administrative practice.

The conditions of the Notes are based on English law in effect as at the date of this Offering Circular. No assurance can be given as to the impact of any possible judicial decision or change to English law or administrative practice after the date of this Offering Circular and any such change could materially adversely impact the value of any Notes affected by it.

Investors who hold less than the minimum Specified Denomination may be unable to sell their Notes and may be adversely affected if definitive Notes are subsequently required to be issued.

In relation to any issue of Notes which have denominations consisting of a minimum Specified Denomination plus one or more higher integral multiples of another smaller amount, it is possible that such Notes may be traded in amounts in excess of the minimum Specified Denomination that are not integral multiples of such minimum Specified Denomination. In such a case a holder who, as a result of trading such amounts, holds an amount which is less than the minimum Specified Denomination in their account with the relevant clearing system would not be able to sell the remainder of such holding without first purchasing a principal amount of Notes at or in excess of the minimum Specified Denomination such that its holding amounts to a Specified Denomination. Further, a holder who, as a result of trading such amounts, holds an amount which is less than the minimum Specified Denomination in their account with the relevant clearing system at the relevant time may not receive a definitive Note in respect of such holding (should definitive Notes be printed or issued) and would need to purchase a principal amount of Notes at or in excess of the minimum Specified Denomination such that its holding amounts to a Specified Denomination.

If such Notes in definitive form are issued, holders should be aware that definitive Notes which have a denomination that is not an integral multiple of the minimum Specified Denomination may be illiquid and difficult to trade.

Risks related to the market generally

Set out below is a description of material market risks, including liquidity risk, exchange rate risk, interest rate risk and credit risk:

An active secondary market in respect of the Notes may never be established or may be illiquid and this would adversely affect the value at which an investor could sell their Notes.

Notes may have no established trading market when issued, and one may never develop. If a market for the Notes does develop, it may not be very liquid. Therefore, investors may not be able to sell their Notes easily or at prices that will provide them with a yield comparable to similar investments that have a developed secondary market. This is particularly the case for Notes that are especially sensitive to interest rate, currency or market risks, are designed for specific investment objectives or strategies, are being issued to a single investor or a limited number of investors or have been structured to meet the investment requirements of limited categories of investors. These types of Notes generally would have a more limited secondary market and more price volatility than conventional debt securities.

If an investor holds Notes which are not denominated in the investor's home currency, they will be exposed to movements in exchange rates adversely affecting the value of their holding. In addition, the imposition of exchange controls in relation to any Notes could result in an investor not receiving payments on those Notes.

The Issuer will pay principal and interest on the Notes in the Specified Currency. This presents certain risks relating to currency conversions if an investor's financial activities are denominated principally in a currency or currency unit (the Investor's Currency) other than the Specified Currency. These include the risk that exchange rates may significantly change (including changes due to devaluation of the Specified Currency or revaluation of the Investor's Currency) and the risk that authorities with jurisdiction over the Investor's Currency may impose or modify exchange controls. An appreciation in the value of the Investor's Currency relative to the Specified Currency would decrease (1) the Investor's Currency-equivalent yield on the Notes, (2) the Investor's Currency equivalent value of the principal payable on the Notes and (3) the Investor's Currency equivalent market value of the Notes.

Government and monetary authorities may impose (as some have done in the past) exchange controls that could adversely affect an applicable exchange rate or the ability of the Issuer to make payments in respect of the Notes. As a result, investors may receive less interest or principal than expected, or no interest or principal.

The value of Fixed Rate Notes may be adversely affected by movements in market interest rates.

Investment in Fixed Rate Notes involves the risk that if market interest rates subsequently increase above the rate paid on the Fixed Rate Notes, this will adversely affect the value of the Fixed Rate Notes.

Credit ratings assigned to the Issuer or any Notes may not reflect all the risks associated with an investment in those Notes.

One or more independent credit rating agencies may assign credit ratings to the Issuer, or the Notes. The ratings may not reflect the potential impact of all risks related to structure, market, additional factors discussed above, and other factors that may affect the value of the Notes. A credit rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be revised, suspended or withdrawn by the rating agency at any time.

In general, European regulated investors are restricted under the CRA Regulation from using credit ratings for regulatory purposes in the EEA, unless such ratings are issued by a credit rating agency established in the EEA and registered under the CRA Regulation (and such registration has not been withdrawn or suspended, subject to transitional provisions that apply in certain circumstances). Such general restriction will also apply in the case of credit ratings issued by third country non-EEA credit rating agencies, unless the relevant credit ratings are endorsed by an EEA-registered credit rating agency or the relevant third country rating agency is certified in accordance with the CRA Regulation (and such endorsement action or certification, as the case may be, has not been withdrawn or suspended, subject to transitional provisions that apply in certain circumstances). The list of registered and certified rating agencies published by ESMA on its website in accordance with the CRA Regulation is not conclusive evidence of the status of the relevant rating agency included in such list, as there may be delays between certain supervisory measures being taken against a relevant rating agency and the publication of the updated ESMA list.

Investors regulated in the UK are subject to similar restrictions under the UK CRA Regulation. As such, UK regulated investors are required to use for UK regulatory purposes ratings issued by a credit rating agency established in the UK and registered under the UK CRA Regulation. In the case of ratings issued by third country non-UK credit rating agencies, third country credit ratings can either be: (a) endorsed by a UK registered credit rating agency; or (b) issued by a third country credit rating agency that is certified in accordance with the UK CRA Regulation. Note this is subject, in each case, to (a) the relevant UK registration, certification or endorsement, as the case may be, not having been withdrawn or suspended, and (b) transitional provisions that apply in certain circumstances.

If the status of the rating agency rating the Notes changes for the purposes of the CRA Regulation or the UK CRA Regulation, relevant regulated investors may no longer be able to use the rating for regulatory purposes in the EEA or the UK, as applicable, and the Notes may have a different regulatory treatment, which may impact the value of the Notes and their liquidity in the secondary market. Certain information with respect to the credit rating agencies and ratings is set out on the cover of this Offering Circular.

FORM OF THE NOTES

Any reference in this section to “applicable Final Terms” shall be deemed to include a reference to “applicable Pricing Supplement” where relevant.

The Notes of each Series will be in either bearer form, with or without interest coupons attached, or registered form, without interest coupons attached. Bearer Notes will be issued outside the United States in reliance on Regulation S under the Securities Act (Regulation S) and Registered Notes will be issued outside the United States in reliance on the exemption from registration provided by Regulation S.

Bearer Notes

Each Tranche of Bearer Notes will be in bearer form and will initially be issued in the form of a temporary global note (a Temporary Bearer Global Note) or, if so specified in the applicable Final Terms, a permanent global note (a Permanent Bearer Global Note) and, together with a Temporary Bearer Global Note, each a Bearer Global Note which, in either case, will:

- (a) if the Bearer Global Notes are intended to be issued in new global note (NGN) form, as stated in the applicable Final Terms, be delivered on or prior to the original issue date of the Tranche to a common safekeeper (the Common Safekeeper) for Euroclear Bank SA/NV (Euroclear) and Clearstream Banking S.A. (Clearstream, Luxembourg); and
- (b) if the Bearer Global Notes are not intended to be issued in NGN form, be delivered on or prior to the original issue date of the Tranche to a common depository (the Common Depository) for Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg.

Where the Bearer Global Notes issued in respect of any Tranche are in NGN form, the applicable Final Terms will also indicate whether such Bearer Global Notes are intended to be held in a manner which would allow Eurosystem eligibility. Any indication that the Bearer Global Notes are to be so held does not necessarily mean that the Bearer Notes of the relevant Tranche will be recognised as eligible collateral for Eurosystem monetary policy and intra-day credit operations by the Eurosystem either upon issue or at any times during their life as such recognition depends upon satisfaction of the Eurosystem eligibility criteria. The Common Safekeeper for NGNs will either be Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg or another entity approved by Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg.

Whilst any Bearer Note is represented by a Temporary Bearer Global Note, payments of principal, interest (if any) and any other amount payable in respect of the Notes due prior to the Exchange Date (as defined below) will be made (against presentation of the Temporary Bearer Global Note if the Temporary Bearer Global Note is not intended to be issued in NGN form) only to the extent that certification (in a form to be provided) to the effect that the beneficial owners of interests in the Temporary Bearer Global Note are not U.S. persons or persons who have purchased for resale to any U.S. person, as required by U.S. Treasury regulations, has been received by Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg, as applicable, has given a like certification (based on the certifications it has received) to the Principal Paying Agent.

On and after the date (the Exchange Date) which is 40 days after a Temporary Bearer Global Note is issued, interests in such Temporary Bearer Global Note will be exchangeable (free of charge) upon a request as described therein either for (i) interests in a Permanent Bearer Global Note of the same Series or (ii) for definitive Bearer Notes of the same Series with, where applicable, interest coupons and talons attached (as indicated in the applicable Final Terms), in each case against certification of beneficial ownership as described above unless such certification has already been given, provided that purchasers in the United States and certain U.S. persons will not be able to receive definitive Bearer Notes. The holder of a Temporary Bearer Global Note will not be entitled to collect any payment of interest, principal or other amount due on or after the Exchange Date unless, upon due certification, exchange of the Temporary Bearer Global Note for an interest in a Permanent Bearer Global Note or for definitive Bearer Notes is improperly withheld or refused.

Payments of principal, interest (if any) or any other amounts on a Permanent Bearer Global Note will be made through Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg (against presentation or surrender (as the case may be) of the Permanent Bearer Global Note if the Permanent Bearer Global Note is not intended to be issued in NGN form) without any requirement for certification.

The applicable Final Terms will specify that a Permanent Bearer Global Note will be exchangeable (free of charge), in whole but not in part, for definitive Bearer Notes with, where applicable, interest coupons and talons attached upon the occurrence of an Exchange Event. For these purposes, Exchange Event means that (i) an Event of Default (as defined in Condition 10) has occurred and is continuing, (ii) the Issuer has been notified that both Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg have been closed for business for a continuous period of 14 days (other than by reason of holiday, statutory or otherwise) or have announced an intention permanently to cease business or have in fact done so and no successor clearing system is available or (iii) the Issuer has or will become subject to adverse tax consequences which would not be suffered were the Notes represented by the Permanent Bearer Global Note in definitive form. The Issuer will promptly give notice to Noteholders in accordance with Condition 14 if an Exchange Event occurs. In the event of the occurrence of an Exchange Event, Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg (acting on the instructions of any holder of an interest in such Permanent Bearer Global Note) may give notice to the Principal Paying Agent requesting exchange and, in the event of the occurrence of an Exchange Event as described in (iii) above, the Issuer may also give notice to the Principal Paying Agent requesting exchange. Any such exchange shall occur not later than 45 days after the date of receipt of the first relevant notice by the Principal Paying Agent.

The following legend will appear on all Bearer Notes (other than Temporary Bearer Global Notes) and interest coupons relating to such Notes where TEFRA D is specified in the applicable Final Terms:

“ANY UNITED STATES PERSON WHO HOLDS THIS OBLIGATION WILL BE SUBJECT TO LIMITATIONS UNDER THE UNITED STATES INCOME TAX LAWS, INCLUDING THE LIMITATIONS PROVIDED IN SECTIONS 165(j) AND 1287(a) OF THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE.”

The sections referred to provide that United States holders, with certain exceptions, will not be entitled to deduct any loss on Bearer Notes or interest coupons and will not be entitled to capital gains treatment in respect of any gain on any sale, disposition, redemption or payment of principal in respect of Bearer Notes or interest coupons.

Notes which are represented by a Bearer Global Note will only be transferable in accordance with the rules and procedures for the time being of Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg, as the case may be.

Registered Notes

The Registered Notes of each Tranche will initially be represented by a global note in registered form (a Registered Global Note).

Registered Global Notes will be deposited with a common depository or, if the Registered Global Notes are to be held under the new safe-keeping structure (the NSS), a common safekeeper, as the case may be for Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg, and registered in the name of the nominee for the Common Depository of, Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg or in the name of a nominee of the common safekeeper, as specified in the applicable Final Terms. Persons holding beneficial interests in Registered Global Notes will be entitled or required, as the case may be, under the circumstances described below, to receive physical delivery of definitive Notes in fully registered form.

Where the Registered Global Notes issued in respect of any Tranche is intended to be held under the NSS, the applicable Final Terms will indicate whether or not such Registered Global Notes are intended to be held in a manner which would allow Eurosystem eligibility. Any indication that the Registered Global Notes are to be so held does not necessarily mean that the Notes of the relevant Tranche will be recognised as eligible collateral for Eurosystem monetary policy and intra-day credit operations by the Eurosystem either upon issue or at any time during their life as such recognition depends upon satisfaction of the Eurosystem eligibility criteria. The common safekeeper for a Registered Global Note held under the NSS will either be Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg or another entity approved by Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg.

Payments of principal, interest and any other amount in respect of the Registered Global Notes will, in the absence of provision to the contrary, be made to the person shown on the Register (as defined in Condition 6.4) as the registered holder of the Registered Global Notes. None of the Issuer, any Paying Agent or the Registrar will have any responsibility or liability for any aspect of the records relating to or payments or deliveries made on account of beneficial ownership interests in the Registered Global Notes or for maintaining, supervising or reviewing any records relating to such beneficial ownership interests.

Payments of principal, interest or any other amount in respect of the Registered Notes in definitive form will, in the absence of provision to the contrary, be made to the persons shown on the Register on the relevant Record Date (as defined in Condition 6.4) immediately preceding the due date for payment in the manner provided in that Condition.

Interests in a Registered Global Note will be exchangeable (free of charge), in whole but not in part, for definitive Registered Notes without interest coupons or talons attached only upon the occurrence of an Exchange Event. For these purposes, Exchange Event means that (i) an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, (ii) the Issuer has been notified that both Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg have been closed for business for a continuous period of 14 days (other than by reason of holiday, statutory or otherwise) or have announced an intention permanently to cease business or have in fact done so and, in any such case, no successor clearing system is available or (iii) the Issuer has or will become subject to adverse tax consequences which would not be suffered were the Notes represented by the Registered Global Note in definitive form. The Issuer will promptly give notice to Noteholders in accordance with Condition 14 if an Exchange Event occurs. In the event of the occurrence of an Exchange Event, Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg or any person acting on their behalf (acting on the instructions of any holder of an interest in such Registered Global Note) may give notice to the Registrar requesting exchange and, in the event of the occurrence of an Exchange Event as described in (iii) above, the Issuer may also give notice to the Registrar requesting exchange. Any such exchange shall occur not later than 10 days after the date of receipt of the first relevant notice by the Registrar.

No beneficial owner of an interest in a Registered Global Note will be able to transfer such interest, except in accordance with the applicable procedures of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg, in each case to the extent applicable.

General

Pursuant to the Agency Agreement (as defined under “Terms and Conditions of the Notes”), the Principal Paying Agent shall arrange that, where a further Tranche of Notes is issued which is intended to form a single Series with an existing Tranche of Notes at a point after the Issue Date of the further Tranche, the Notes of such further Tranche shall be assigned a common code and ISIN which are different from the common code and ISIN assigned to Notes of any other Tranche of the same Series until such time as the Tranches are consolidated and form a single Series, which shall not be prior to the expiry of the distribution compliance period (as defined in Regulation S under the Securities Act) applicable to the Notes of such Tranche.

Any reference herein to Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg shall, whenever the context so permits, be deemed to include a reference to any additional or alternative clearing system specified in the applicable Final Terms.

A Note may be accelerated by the holder thereof in certain circumstances described in Condition 10. In such circumstances, where any Note is still represented by a Global Note and the Global Note (or any part thereof) has become due and repayable in accordance with the Terms and Conditions of such Notes and payment in full of the amount due has not been made in accordance with the provisions of the Global Note then from 8.00 p.m. (London time) on such day holders of interests in such Global Note credited to their accounts with Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg, as the case may be, will become entitled to proceed directly against the Issuer on the basis of statements of account provided by Euroclear, and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg on and subject to the terms of a deed of covenant (such Deed of Covenant as modified and/or supplemented and/or restated from time to time, the Deed of Covenant) dated 22 May 2026 and executed by the Issuer.

The Issuer may agree with any Dealer that Notes may be issued in a form not contemplated by the Terms and Conditions of the Notes, in which event, other than where such Notes are Exempt Notes, a supplement to this Offering Circular or a new Offering Circular will be made available which will describe the effect of the agreement reached in relation to such Notes.

APPLICABLE FINAL TERMS

Set out below is the form of Final Terms which will be completed for each Tranche of Notes issued under the Programme which are not Exempt Notes.

[PROHIBITION OF SALES TO EEA RETAIL INVESTORS – The Notes are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the European Economic Area (EEA). For these purposes, a retail investor means a person who is one (or more) of: (i) a retail client as defined in point (11) of Article 4(1) of Directive 2014/65/EU (as amended, MiFID II); or (ii) a customer within the meaning of Directive (EU) 2016/97 (the Insurance Distribution Directive), where that customer would not qualify as a professional client as defined in point (10) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II; or (iii) not a qualified investor as defined in Regulation (EU) 2017/1129 (the Prospectus Regulation). Consequently, no key information document required by Regulation (EU) No 1286/2014 (as amended, the PRIIPs Regulation) for offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the EEA has been prepared and therefore offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the EEA may be unlawful under the PRIIPs Regulation.]<sup>1</sup>

Consequently, no disclosure document required by the FCA Product Disclosure Sourcebook (DISC) for offering, selling or distributing the Notes or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the UK has been prepared and therefore offering, selling or distributing the Notes or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the UK may be unlawful under the DISC and the Consumer Composite Investments (Designated Activities) Regulations 2024.]<sup>2</sup>

Any person subsequently offering, selling or recommending the Notes (a distributor) should take into consideration the manufacturer['s/s'] target market assessment; however, a distributor subject to MiFID II is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Notes (by either adopting or refining the manufacturer['s/s'] target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels.]

[<sup>4</sup>UK MiFIR product governance / Professional investors and ECPs only target market – Solely for the purposes of [the/each] manufacturer's product approval process, the target market assessment in respect of the Notes has led to the conclusion that: (i) the target market for the Notes is only eligible counterparties, as defined in the FCA Handbook Conduct of Business Sourcebook (COBS), and professional clients, as

[Consider any negative target market]. Any person subsequently offering, selling or recommending the Notes (a UK distributor) should take into consideration the manufacturer['s/s'] target market assessment; however, a UK distributor subject to the FCA Handbook Product Intervention and Product Governance Sourcebook (the UK MiFIR Product Governance Rules) is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Notes (by either adopting or refining the manufacturer['s/s'] target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels.]

The applicable Pricing Supplement in relation to any Tranche of Exempt Notes may specify other terms and conditions which shall, to the extent so specified or to the extent inconsistent with the following Terms and Conditions, replace or modify the following Terms and Conditions for the purpose of such Notes. The applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement (or in either case the relevant provisions thereof) will be endorsed upon, or attached to, each Global Note and definitive Note. Reference should be made to “Applicable Final Terms” or “Applicable Pricing Supplement”, as applicable, for a description of the content of Final Terms or Pricing Supplement, as applicable, which will specify which of such terms are to apply in relation to the relevant Notes.*

This Note is one of a Series (as defined below) of Notes issued by Aker BP ASA (the Issuer) pursuant to the Agency Agreement (as defined below).

References herein to the Notes shall be references to the Notes of this Series and shall mean:

- (a) in relation to any Notes represented by a global Note (a Global Note), units of each Specified Denomination in the Specified Currency;
- (b) any Global Note;
- (c) any definitive Notes in bearer form (Bearer Notes) issued in exchange for a Global Note in bearer form; and

The Notes and the Coupons (as defined below) have the benefit of an amended and restated Agency Agreement (such Agency Agreement as amended and/or supplemented and/or restated from time to time, the Agency Agreement) dated 22 May 2026 and made between the Issuer, The Bank of New York Mellon, London Branch as issuing and principal paying agent and agent bank (the Principal Paying Agent, which expression shall include any successor principal paying agent), The Bank of New York Mellon SA/NV, Dublin Branch as registrar (the Registrar, which expression shall include any successor registrar, and together with the Principal Paying Agent and any additional or successor paying agent(s), the Paying Agents) and a transfer agent and the other transfer agent named therein (together with the Registrar, the Transfer Agents, which expression shall include any additional or successor transfer agents). The Principal Paying Agent, the Calculation Agent (if any is specified in the applicable Final Terms), the Registrar, the Paying Agents and the other Transfer Agents are together referred to as the Agents.

The final terms for this Note (or the relevant provisions thereof) are set out in Part A of Final Terms attached to or endorsed on this Note which completes these Terms and Conditions (the Conditions) or, if this Note is a Note which is neither admitted to trading on a regulated market in the European Economic Area nor offered in the European Economic Area in circumstances where a prospectus is required to be published under the Prospectus Regulation (an Exempt Note), the final terms (or the relevant provisions thereof) are set out in Part A of the Pricing Supplement and may specify other terms and conditions which shall, to the extent so specified or to the extent inconsistent with the Conditions, replace or modify the Conditions for the purposes of this Note. References to the applicable Final Terms are, unless otherwise stated, to Part A of the Final Terms (or the relevant provisions thereof) attached to or endorsed on this Note. Any reference in the Conditions to applicable Final Terms shall be deemed to include a reference to applicable Pricing Supplement where relevant. The expression Prospectus Regulation means Regulation (EU) 2017/1129.

Interest bearing definitive Bearer Notes have interest coupons (Coupons) and, in the case of Bearer Notes which, when issued in definitive form, have more than 27 interest payments remaining, talons for further Coupons (Talons) attached on issue. Any reference herein to Coupons or coupons shall, unless the context otherwise requires, be deemed to include a reference to Talons or talons. Registered Notes and Global Notes do not have Coupons or Talons attached on issue.

Any reference to Noteholders or holders in relation to any Notes shall mean (in the case of Bearer Notes) the holders of the Notes and (in the case of Registered Notes) the persons in whose name the Notes are registered and shall, in relation to any Notes represented by a Global Note, be construed as provided below. Any reference herein to Couponholders shall mean the holders of the Coupons and shall, unless the context otherwise requires, include the holders of the Talons.

The original of the Deed of Covenant is held by the common depositary for Euroclear (as defined below) and Clearstream, Luxembourg (as defined below).

Copies of the Agency Agreement and the Deed of Covenant (i) are available for inspection or collection during normal business hours at the specified office of each of the Paying Agents or (ii) may be provided by email to a Noteholder following their prior written request to any Paying Agent or the Issuer and provision of proof of holding and identity (in a form satisfactory to the relevant Paying Agent or the Issuer, as the case may be). If the Notes are to be admitted to trading on the regulated market of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange, the applicable Final Terms will be published on the website of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange (www.luxse.com). If this Note is an Exempt Note, the applicable Pricing Supplement will only be obtainable by a Noteholder holding one or more Notes and such Noteholder must produce evidence satisfactory to the Issuer and the relevant Agent as to its holding of such Notes and identity. The Noteholders and the Couponholders are deemed to have notice of, and are entitled to the benefit of, all the provisions of the Agency Agreement, the Deed of Covenant and the applicable Final Terms which are applicable to them. The statements in the Conditions include summaries of, and are subject to, the detailed provisions of the Agency Agreement.

Words and expressions defined in the Agency Agreement or used in the applicable Final Terms shall have the same meanings where used in the Conditions unless the context otherwise requires or unless otherwise stated and provided that, in the event of inconsistency between the Agency Agreement and the applicable Final Terms, the applicable Final Terms will prevail.

Definitive Bearer Notes are issued with Coupons attached, unless they are Zero Coupon Notes in which case references to Coupons and Couponholders in the Conditions are not applicable.

Subject as set out below, title to the Bearer Notes and Coupons will pass by delivery and title to the Registered Notes will pass upon registration of transfers in accordance with the provisions of the Agency Agreement. The Issuer and any Agent will (except as otherwise required by law) deem and treat the bearer of any Bearer Note or Coupon and the registered holder of any Registered Note as the absolute owner thereof (whether or not overdue and notwithstanding any notice of ownership or writing thereon or notice of any previous loss or theft thereof) for all purposes but, in the case of any Global Note, without prejudice to the provisions set out in the next succeeding paragraph.

For so long as any of the Notes is represented by a Global Note held on behalf of Euroclear Bank SA/NV (Euroclear) and/or Clearstream Banking S.A. (Clearstream, Luxembourg), each person (other than Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg) who is for the time being shown in the records of Euroclear or of Clearstream, Luxembourg as the holder of a particular nominal amount of such Notes (in which regard any certificate or other document issued by Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg as to the nominal amount of such Notes standing to the account of any person shall be conclusive and binding for all purposes save in the case of manifest error) shall be treated by the Issuer and the Agents as the holder of such nominal amount of such Notes for all purposes other than with respect to the payment of principal or interest on such nominal amount of such Notes, for which purpose the bearer of the relevant Bearer Global Note or the registered holder of the relevant Registered Global Note shall be treated by the Issuer and any Agent as the holder of such nominal amount of such Notes in accordance with and subject to the terms of the relevant Global Note and the expressions Noteholder and holder of Notes and related expressions shall be construed accordingly.

Notes which are represented by a Global Note will be transferable only in accordance with the rules and procedures for the time being of Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg, as the case may be. References to Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg shall, whenever the context so permits, be deemed to include a reference to any additional or alternative clearing system specified in Part B of the applicable Final Terms.

A beneficial interest in a Registered Global Note will, subject to compliance with all applicable legal and regulatory restrictions, be transferable for Notes in definitive form or for a beneficial interest in another Registered Global Note of the same Series, in each case only in the Specified Denomination(s) set out in the applicable Final Terms and only in accordance with the rules and operating procedures for the time being of Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg, as the case may be, and in accordance with the terms and conditions specified in the Agency Agreement.

2.2 Transfers of Registered Notes in definitive form

Subject as provided in Condition 2.3 below, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Agency Agreement, a Registered Note in definitive form may be transferred in whole or in part (in the Specified Denomination(s) set out in the applicable Final Terms). In order to effect any such transfer (a) the holder or holders must (i) surrender the Registered Note for registration of the transfer of the Registered Note (or the relevant part of the Registered Note) at the specified office of any Transfer Agent, with the form of transfer thereon duly executed by the holder or holders thereof or his or their attorney or attorneys duly authorised in writing and (ii) complete and deposit such other certifications as may be required by the relevant Transfer Agent and (b) the relevant Transfer Agent must, after due and careful enquiry, be satisfied with the documents of title and the identity of the person making the request. Any such transfer will be subject to such reasonable regulations as the Issuer and the Registrar may from time to time prescribe (the initial such regulations being set out in Schedule 7 to the Agency Agreement). Subject as provided above, the relevant Transfer Agent will, within three business days (being for this purpose a day on which banks are open for business in the city where the specified office of the relevant Transfer Agent is located) of the request (or such longer period as may be required to comply with any applicable fiscal or other laws or regulations), authenticate and deliver, or procure the authentication and delivery of, at its specified office to the transferee or (at the risk of the transferee) send by uninsured mail, to such address as the transferee may request, a new Registered Note in definitive form of a like aggregate nominal amount to the Registered Note (or the relevant part of the Registered Note) transferred. In the case of the transfer of part only of a Registered Note in definitive form, a new Registered Note in definitive form in respect of the balance of the Registered Note not transferred will be so authenticated and delivered or (at the risk of the transferor) sent to the transferor.

2.3 Registration of transfer upon partial redemption

In the event of a partial redemption of Notes under Condition 7, the Issuer shall not be required to register the transfer of any Registered Note, or part of a Registered Note, called for partial redemption.

2.4 Costs of registration

Noteholders will not be required to bear the costs and expenses of effecting any registration of transfer as provided above, except for any costs or expenses of delivery other than by regular uninsured mail and except that the Issuer may require the payment of a sum sufficient to cover any stamp duty, tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in relation to the registration.

3. STATUS OF THE NOTES

The Notes and any relative Coupons are direct, unconditional, unsubordinated and (subject to the provisions of Condition 4) unsecured obligations of the Issuer and rank pari passu among themselves and (save for certain obligations required to be preferred by law) equally with all other unsecured obligations (other than subordinated obligations, if any) of the Issuer, from time to time outstanding.

4. NEGATIVE PLEDGE

4.1 Negative Pledge

So long as any of the Notes remains outstanding (as defined in the Agency Agreement), the Issuer will not, and the Issuer will procure that none of its Subsidiaries (as defined below) will, create or have outstanding any mortgage, charge, lien, pledge or other security interest (each a Security Interest), other than a Permitted Security Interest, upon, or with respect to, any of the present or future undertaking, assets or revenues (including any uncalled capital) of the Issuer and/or any of its Subsidiaries, to secure any Relevant Indebtedness (as defined below), unless the Issuer, in the case of the creation of a Security Interest, before or at the same time and, in any other case, promptly, takes any and all action necessary to ensure that:

- (a) all amounts payable by it under the Notes and any relative Coupons are secured by the Security Interest equally and rateably with the Relevant Indebtedness; or
- (b) such other Security Interest or other arrangement (whether or not it includes the giving of a Security Interest) is provided as is approved by an Extraordinary Resolution (as defined in the Agency Agreement) of the Noteholders.

4.2 Interpretation

For the purposes of these Conditions:

Permitted Security Interest means: (i) any Security Interest existing on the Issue Date of the first Tranche of the Notes; (ii) any Security Interest securing Relevant Indebtedness of a person existing at the time that such person is merged into, or consolidated with, the Issuer or any Subsidiary of the Issuer, provided that such Security Interest was not created in contemplation of such merger or consolidation, the principal amount secured was not increased in contemplation of or since such merger or consolidation and such Security Interest does not extend to any other assets or property of the Issuer or any Subsidiary of the Issuer; (iii) any Security Interest existing on any property or assets prior to the acquisition thereof by the Issuer or any Subsidiary of the Issuer, provided that such Security Interest was not created in contemplation of such acquisition and the principal amount secured was not increased in contemplation of or since such acquisition; or (iv) any renewal of or substitution for any Security Interest permitted by any of paragraphs (i) to (iii) (inclusive) of this definition, provided that with respect to any such Security Interest (A) the principal amount secured has not increased, and (B) the Security Interest has not been extended to any additional assets;

Relevant Indebtedness means: (i) any present or future indebtedness (whether being principal, premium, interest or other amounts) for or in respect of any notes, bonds, debentures, debenture stock, loan stock or other securities which are for the time being or are capable of being quoted, listed or ordinarily dealt in on any stock exchange, over-the-counter or other securities market; and (ii) any guarantee or indemnity in respect of any such indebtedness; and

Subsidiary means, in relation to any person (the first person) at any particular time, any other person (the second person):

- (a) whose affairs and policies the first person controls or has power to control, whether by ownership or share capital, contract, the power to appoint or remove members of the governing body of the second person or otherwise; or
- (b) whose financial statements are, in accordance with applicable law and generally accepted accounting principles, consolidated with those of the first person.

5. INTEREST

5.1 Interest on Fixed Rate Notes

Each Fixed Rate Note bears interest from (and including) the Interest Commencement Date at the rate(s) per annum equal to the Rate(s) of Interest. Interest will be payable in arrear on the Interest Payment Date(s) in each year up to (and including) the Maturity Date.

If the Notes are Bearer Notes in definitive form, except as provided in the applicable Final Terms, the amount of interest payable on each Interest Payment Date in respect of the Fixed Interest Period ending on (but excluding) such date will amount to the Fixed Coupon Amount. Payments of interest on any Interest Payment Date will, if so specified in the applicable Final Terms, amount to the Broken Amount so specified.

As used in the Conditions, Fixed Interest Period means the period from (and including) an Interest Payment Date (or the Interest Commencement Date) to (but excluding) the next (or first) Interest Payment Date.

Except in the case of Bearer Notes in definitive form where an applicable Fixed Coupon Amount or Broken Amount is specified in the applicable Final Terms, interest shall be calculated in respect of any period by applying the Rate of Interest to:

- (a) in the case of Fixed Rate Notes which are (i) represented by a Global Note or (ii) Registered Notes in definitive form, the aggregate outstanding nominal amount of (A) the Fixed Rate Notes represented by such Global Note or (B) such Registered Notes; or
- (b) in the case of Fixed Rate Notes which are Bearer Notes in definitive form, the Calculation Amount; and, in each case, multiplying such sum by the applicable Day Count Fraction.

The resultant figure (including after application of any Fixed Coupon Amount or Broken Amount, as applicable, to the Calculation Amount in the case of Fixed Rate Notes which are Bearer Notes in definitive form) shall be rounded to the nearest sub-unit of the relevant Specified Currency, half of any such sub-unit being rounded upwards or otherwise in accordance with applicable market convention.

Where the Specified Denomination of a Fixed Rate Note which is a Bearer Note in definitive form is a multiple of the Calculation Amount, the amount of interest payable in respect of such Fixed Rate Note shall be the product of the amount (determined in the manner provided above) for the Calculation Amount and the amount by which the Calculation Amount is multiplied to reach the Specified Denomination, without any further rounding.

Day Count Fraction means, in respect of the calculation of an amount of interest, in accordance with this Condition 5.1:

- (i) if “Actual/Actual (ICMA)” is specified in the applicable Final Terms:
  - (A) in the case of Notes where the number of days in the relevant period from (and including) the most recent Interest Payment Date (or, if none, the Interest Commencement Date) to (but excluding) the relevant payment date (the Accrual Period) is equal to or shorter than the Determination Period during which the Accrual Period ends, the number of days in such Accrual Period divided by the product of (1) the number of days in such Determination Period and (2) the number of Determination Dates (as specified in the applicable Final Terms) that would occur in one calendar year; or
  - (B) in the case of Notes where the Accrual Period is longer than the Determination Period during which the Accrual Period ends, the sum of:
    - (1) the number of days in such Accrual Period falling in the Determination Period in which the Accrual Period begins divided by the product of (x) the

- number of days in such Determination Period and (y) the number of Determination Dates that would occur in one calendar year; and
- (2) the number of days in such Accrual Period falling in the next Determination Period divided by the product of (x) the number of days in such Determination Period and (y) the number of Determination Dates that would occur in one calendar year; and
- (ii) if “30/360” is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the number of days in the period from (and including) the most recent Interest Payment Date (or, if none, the Interest Commencement Date) to (but excluding) the relevant payment date (such number of days being calculated on the basis of a year of 360 days with 12 30-day months) divided by 360.

In these Conditions:

Determination Period means each period from (and including) a Determination Date to (but excluding) the next Determination Date (including, where either the Interest Commencement Date or the final Interest Payment Date is not a Determination Date, the period commencing on the first Determination Date prior to, and ending on the first Determination Date falling after, such date); and sub-unit means, with respect to any currency other than euro, the lowest amount of such currency that is available as legal tender in the country of such currency and, with respect to euro, one cent.

5.2 Interest on Floating Rate Notes

(a) Interest Payment Dates

Each Floating Rate Note bears interest from (and including) the Interest Commencement Date and such interest will be payable in arrear on either:

- (i) the Specified Interest Payment Date(s) in each year specified in the applicable Final Terms; or
- (ii) if no Specified Interest Payment Date(s) is/are specified in the applicable Final Terms, each date (each such date, together with each Specified Interest Payment Date, an Interest Payment Date) which falls the number of months or other period specified as the Specified Period in the applicable Final Terms after the preceding Interest Payment Date or, in the case of the first Interest Payment Date, after the Interest Commencement Date.

Such interest will be payable in respect of each Interest Period. In these Conditions, Interest Period means the period from (and including) an Interest Payment Date (or the Interest Commencement Date) to (but excluding) the next (or first) Interest Payment Date or the relevant payment date if the Notes become payable on a date other than an Interest Payment Date.

If a Business Day Convention is specified in the applicable Final Terms and (x) if there is no numerically corresponding day in the calendar month in which an Interest Payment Date should occur or (y) if any Interest Payment Date would otherwise fall on a day which is not a Business Day, then, if the Business Day Convention specified is:

- (A) in any case where Specified Periods are specified in accordance with Condition 5.2(a)(ii) above, the Floating Rate Convention, such Interest Payment Date (a) in the case of (x) above, shall be the last day that is a Business Day in the relevant month and the provisions of (ii) below shall apply mutatis mutandis or (b) in the case of (y) above, shall be postponed to the next day which is a Business Day unless it would thereby fall into the next calendar month, in which event (i) such Interest Payment Date shall be brought forward to the immediately preceding Business Day and (ii) each subsequent Interest Payment Date shall be the last Business Day in the month which falls the Specified Period after the preceding applicable Interest Payment Date occurred; or

- (B) the Following Business Day Convention, such Interest Payment Date shall be postponed to the next day which is a Business Day; or
- (C) the Modified Following Business Day Convention, such Interest Payment Date shall be postponed to the next day which is a Business Day unless it would thereby fall into the next calendar month, in which event such Interest Payment Date shall be brought forward to the immediately preceding Business Day; or
- (D) the Preceding Business Day Convention, such Interest Payment Date shall be brought forward to the immediately preceding Business Day.

In these Conditions, Business Day means:

- (a) a day on which commercial banks and foreign exchange markets settle payments and are open for general business (including dealing in foreign exchange and foreign currency deposits) in London and each Additional Business Centre (other than T2) specified in the applicable Final Terms;
- (b) if T2 is specified as an Additional Business Centre in the applicable Final Terms, a day on which the Trans-European Automated Real-Time Gross Settlement Express Transfer System or any successor or replacement for that system (the T2) is open; and
- (c) either (1) in relation to any sum payable in a Specified Currency other than euro, a day on which commercial banks and foreign exchange markets settle payments and are open for general business (including dealing in foreign exchange and foreign currency deposits) in the principal financial centre of the country of the relevant Specified Currency (which if the Specified Currency is Australian dollars or New Zealand dollars shall be Sydney and Auckland, respectively) or (2) in relation to any sum payable in euro, a day on which the T2 is open.

(b) Rate of Interest

The Rate of Interest payable from time to time in respect of Floating Rate Notes will be determined in the manner specified below.

Screen Rate Determination for Floating Rate Notes

The Rate of Interest for each Interest Period will, subject as provided below, be either:

- (A) the offered quotation; or
- (B) the arithmetic mean (rounded if necessary to the fifth decimal place, with 0.000005 being rounded upwards) of the offered quotations,

(expressed as a percentage rate per annum) for the Reference Rate (being either EURIBOR, NIBOR or STIBOR, as specified in the applicable Final Terms) which appears or appear, as the case may be, on the Relevant Screen Page (or such replacement page on that service which displays the information) as at the Specified Time on the Interest Determination Date in question plus or minus (as indicated in the applicable Final Terms) the Margin (if any), all as determined by the Principal Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent, as applicable. If five or more of such offered quotations are available on the Relevant Screen Page, the highest (or, if there is more than one such highest quotation, one only of such quotations) and the lowest (or, if there is more than one such lowest quotation, one only of such quotations) shall be disregarded by the Principal Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent, as applicable, for the purpose of determining the arithmetic mean (rounded as provided above) of such offered quotations.

If, other than in the circumstances described in Condition 5.2(h) below, the Relevant Screen Page is not available or if, in the case of Condition 5.2(b)(A) above, no offered quotation appears or, in the case of Condition 5.2(b)(B) above, fewer than three offered quotations appear, in each case as at the time specified in the preceding paragraph, the Issuer shall request each of the Reference Banks to provide the Principal Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent, as applicable, with its offered quotation (expressed as a percentage rate per annum) for the Reference Rate at approximately the Specified Time on the Interest Determination Date in question. If two or more of the Reference Banks (at the request of the Issuer) provide the Principal Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent, as applicable, with offered quotations, the Rate of Interest for the Interest Period shall be the arithmetic mean (rounded if necessary to the fifth decimal place with 0.000005 being rounded upwards) of the offered quotations plus or minus (as appropriate) the Margin (if any), all as determined by the Principal Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent, as applicable.

If on any Interest Determination Date one only or none of the Reference Banks (at the request of the Issuer) provides the Principal Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent, as applicable, with an offered quotation as provided in the preceding paragraph, the Rate of Interest for the relevant Interest Period shall be the rate per annum which the Principal Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent, as applicable, determines as being the arithmetic mean (rounded if necessary to the fifth decimal place, with 0.000005 being rounded upwards) of the rates, as communicated (at the request of the Issuer) to the Principal Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent, as applicable, by the Reference Banks or any two or more of them, at which such banks were offered, at approximately the Specified Time on the relevant Interest Determination Date, deposits in the Specified Currency for a period equal to that which would have been used for the Reference Rate by leading banks in the Euro-zone inter-bank market (if the Reference Rate is EURIBOR) or the Norwegian inter-bank market (if the Reference Rate is NIBOR) or the Stockholm interbank market (if the Reference Rate is STIBOR) plus or minus (as appropriate) the Margin (if any) or, if fewer than two of the Reference Banks (at the request of the Issuer) provide the Principal Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent, as applicable, with offered rates, the offered rate for deposits in the Specified Currency for a period equal to that which would have been used for the Reference Rate, or the arithmetic mean (rounded as provided above) of the offered rates for deposits in the Specified Currency for a period equal to that which would have been used for the Reference Rate, at which, at approximately the Specified Time on the relevant Interest Determination Date, any one or more banks (which bank or banks is or are in the opinion of the Issuer suitable for the purpose) informs the Principal Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent, as applicable, it is quoting to leading banks in the Euro-zone inter-bank market (if the Reference Rate is EURIBOR) or the Norwegian inter-bank market (if the Reference Rate is NIBOR) or the Stockholm interbank market (if the Reference Rate is STIBOR) plus or minus (as appropriate) the Margin (if any), provided that, if the Rate of Interest cannot be determined in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, the Rate of Interest shall be determined as at the last preceding Interest Determination Date (though substituting, where a different Margin is to be applied to the relevant Interest Period from that which applied to the last preceding Interest Period, the Margin relating to the relevant Interest Period in place of the Margin relating to that last preceding Interest Period).

In the case of Exempt Notes, if the Reference Rate from time to time in respect of Floating Rate Notes is specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement as being other than EURIBOR, NIBOR or STIBOR, the Rate of Interest in respect of the Notes will be determined as provided in the applicable Pricing Supplement.

Unless otherwise stated in the applicable Final Terms the Minimum Rate of Interest shall be deemed to be zero.

In this Condition 5.2(b):

Reference Banks means, in the case of: (I) a determination of EURIBOR, the principal Euro-zone office of four major banks in the Euro-zone inter-bank market; (II) a determination of NIBOR, the principal Oslo office of four major banks in the Norwegian inter-bank market; and (III) a determination of STIBOR, the principal Stockholm office of four major banks in the Stockholm inter-bank market, in each case selected by the Issuer; and

Specified Time means 11.00 a.m. (Brussels time) if the Reference Rate is EURIBOR, 12.00 noon (Oslo time) if the Reference Rate is NIBOR or 11.00 a.m. (Stockholm time) if the Reference Rate is STIBOR.

(c) Minimum Rate of Interest and/or Maximum Rate of Interest

If the applicable Final Terms specifies a Minimum Rate of Interest for any Interest Period, then, in the event that the Rate of Interest in respect of such Interest Period determined in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) above is less than such Minimum Rate of Interest, the Rate of Interest for such Interest Period shall be such Minimum Rate of Interest.

If the applicable Final Terms specifies a Maximum Rate of Interest for any Interest Period, then, in the event that the Rate of Interest in respect of such Interest Period determined in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) above is greater than such Maximum Rate of Interest, the Rate of Interest for such Interest Period shall be such Maximum Rate of Interest.

(d) Determination of Rate of Interest and calculation of Interest Amounts

The Principal Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent, as applicable, will at or as soon as reasonably practicable after each time at which the Rate of Interest is to be determined, determine the Rate of Interest for the relevant Interest Period.

The Principal Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent, as applicable, will calculate the amount of interest (the Interest Amount) payable on the Floating Rate Notes for the relevant Interest Period by applying the Rate of Interest to:

- (i) in the case of Floating Rate Notes which are (i) represented by a Global Note or (ii) Registered Notes in definitive form, the aggregate outstanding nominal amount of (A) the Notes represented by such Global Note or (B) such Registered Notes; or
- (ii) in the case of Floating Rate Notes which are Bearer Notes in definitive form, the Calculation Amount; and, in each case, multiplying such sum by the applicable Day Count Fraction, and rounding the resultant figure to the nearest sub-unit of the relevant Specified Currency, half of any such sub-unit being rounded upwards or otherwise in accordance with applicable market convention. Where the Specified Denomination of a Floating Rate Note which is a Bearer Note in definitive form is a multiple of the Calculation Amount, the Interest Amount payable in respect of such Note shall be the product of the amount (determined in the manner provided above) for the Calculation Amount and the amount by which the Calculation Amount is multiplied to reach the Specified Denomination without any further rounding.

Day Count Fraction means, in respect of the calculation of an amount of interest in accordance with this Condition 5.2:

- (i) if “Actual/Actual (ISDA)” or “Actual/Actual” is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the actual number of days in the Interest Period divided by 365 (or, if any portion of that Interest Period falls in a leap year, the sum of (I) the actual number of days in that portion of the Interest Period falling in a leap year divided by 366 and (II) the actual number of days in that portion of the Interest Period falling in a non-leap year divided by 365);
- (ii) if “Actual/365 (Fixed)” is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the actual number of days in the Interest Period divided by 365;
- (iii) if “Actual/365 (Sterling)” is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the actual number of days in the Interest Period divided by 365 or, in the case of an Interest Payment Date falling in a leap year, 366;
- (iv) if “Actual/360” is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the actual number of days in the Interest Period divided by 360;
- (v) if “30/360”, “360/360” or “Bond Basis” is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the number of days in the Interest Period divided by 360, calculated on a formula basis as follows:

$$\text{Day Count Fraction} = \frac{\lfloor 360 \times (Y_2 - Y_1) \rfloor + \lfloor 30 \times (M_2 - M_1) \rfloor + (D_2 - D_1)}{360}$$

where:

Y<sub>1</sub> is the year, expressed as a number, in which the first day of the Interest Period falls;

Y<sub>2</sub> is the year, expressed as a number, in which the day immediately following the last day of the Interest Period falls;

M<sub>1</sub> is the calendar month, expressed as a number, in which the first day of the Interest Period falls;

M<sub>2</sub> is the calendar month, expressed as a number, in which the day immediately following the last day of the Interest Period falls;

D<sub>1</sub> is the first calendar day, expressed as a number, of the Interest Period, unless such number is 31, in which case D1 will be 30; and

D<sub>2</sub> is the calendar day, expressed as a number, immediately following the last day included in the Interest Period, unless such number would be 31 and D1 is greater than 29, in which case D2 will be 30;

- (vi) if “30E/360” or “Eurobond Basis” is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the number of days in the Interest Period divided by 360, calculated on a formula basis as follows:

$$\text{Day Count Fraction} = \frac{[360 \times (Y_2 - Y_1)] + [30 \times (M_2 - M_1)] + (D_2 - D_1)}{360}$$

where:

Y<sub>1</sub> is the year, expressed as a number, in which the first day of the Interest Period falls;

Y<sub>2</sub> is the year, expressed as a number, in which the day immediately following the last day of the Interest Period falls;

M<sub>1</sub> is the calendar month, expressed as a number, in which the first day of the Interest Period falls;

M<sub>2</sub> is the calendar month, expressed as a number, in which the day immediately following the last day of the Interest Period falls;

D<sub>1</sub> is the first calendar day, expressed as a number, of the Interest Period, unless such number would be 31, in which case D1 will be 30; and

D<sub>2</sub> is the calendar day, expressed as a number, immediately following the last day included in the Interest Period, unless such number would be 31, in which case D2 will be 30;

- (vii) if “30E/360 (ISDA)” is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the number of days in the Interest Period divided by 360, calculated on a formula basis as follows:

$$\text{Day Count Fraction} = \frac{[360 \times (Y_2 - Y_1)] + [30 \times (M_2 - M_1)] + (D_2 - D_1)}{360}$$

where:

Y<sub>1</sub> is the year, expressed as a number, in which the first day of the Interest Period falls;

Y<sub>2</sub> is the year, expressed as a number, in which the day immediately following the last day of the Interest Period falls;

M<sub>1</sub> is the calendar month, expressed as a number, in which the first day of the Interest Period falls;

M<sub>2</sub> is the calendar month, expressed as a number, in which the day immediately following the last day of the Interest Period falls;

D<sub>1</sub> is the first calendar day, expressed as a number, of the Interest Period, unless (i) that day is the last day of February or (ii) such number would be 31, in which case D1 will be 30; and

D<sub>2</sub> is the calendar day, expressed as a number, immediately following the last day included in the Interest Period, unless (i) that day is the last day of February but not the Maturity Date or (ii) such number would be 31, in which case D2 will be 30.

(e) Linear Interpolation

Where Linear Interpolation is specified as applicable in respect of an Interest Period in the applicable Final Terms, the Rate of Interest for such Interest Period shall be calculated by the Principal Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent, as applicable, by straight line linear interpolation by reference to two rates based on the relevant Reference Rate, one of which shall be determined as if the Designated Maturity were the period of time for which rates are available next shorter than the length of the relevant Interest Period and the other of which shall be determined as if the Designated Maturity were the period of time for which rates are available next longer than the length of the relevant Interest Period provided however that if there is no rate available for a period of time next shorter or, as the case may be, next longer, then the Principal Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent, as applicable, shall determine such rate at such time and by reference to such sources as such sources as an independent adviser, appointed by the Issuer and acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner, determines appropriate.

Designated Maturity means the period of time designated in the Reference Rate.

(f) Notification of Rate of Interest and Interest Amounts

The Principal Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent, as applicable, will cause the Rate of Interest and each Interest Amount for each Interest Period and the relevant Interest Payment Date to be notified to the Issuer and any stock exchange on which the relevant Floating Rate Notes are for the time being listed (by no later than the first day of each Interest Period) and notice thereof to be published in accordance with Condition 14 as soon as reasonably practicable after their determination but in no event later than the fourth London Business Day thereafter (provided, however, that if the Principal Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent, as applicable, is unable to notify such relevant stock exchange, it shall notify the Issuer as soon as reasonably practicable who will procure such notification). Each Interest Amount and Interest Payment Date so notified may subsequently be amended (or appropriate alternative arrangements made by way of adjustment) without prior notice in the event of an extension or shortening of the Interest Period. Any such amendment will promptly be notified to each stock exchange on which the relevant Floating Rate Notes are for the time being listed and to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 14. For the purposes of this paragraph, the expression London Business Day means a day (other than a Saturday or a Sunday) on which banks and foreign exchange markets are open for general business in London.

(g) Certificates to be final

All certificates, communications, opinions, determinations, calculations, quotations and decisions given, expressed, made or obtained for the purposes of the provisions of this Condition 5.2 by the Principal Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent, as applicable, shall (in the absence of manifest error) be binding on the Issuer, the Principal Paying Agent, the other Agents and all Noteholders and Couponholders and (in the absence of wilful default or fraud) no liability to the Issuer, the Noteholders or the Couponholders shall attach to the Principal Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent, as applicable, in connection with the exercise or non-exercise by it of its powers, duties and discretions pursuant to such provisions.

(h) Benchmark Discontinuation

(i) Independent Adviser

If a Benchmark Event occurs in relation to an Original Reference Rate at any time when these Conditions provide for any remaining Rate of Interest (or any component part thereof) to be determined by reference to such Original Reference Rate, then the Issuer shall use its reasonable endeavours to appoint an Independent Adviser, as soon as reasonably practicable, to determine a Successor Rate, failing which an Alternative Rate (in accordance with Condition 5.2(h)(ii)) and, in either case, an Adjustment Spread, if any (in accordance with Condition 5.2(h)(iii)) and any Benchmark Amendments (in accordance with Condition 5.2(h)(iv)).

An Independent Adviser appointed pursuant to this Condition 5.2(h) shall act in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner and (in the absence of wilful default or fraud) shall have no liability whatsoever to the Issuer, the Agents, any other party specified in the applicable Final Terms as being responsible for calculating the Rate of Interest, the Noteholders or the Couponholders for any determination made by it pursuant to this Condition 5.2(h).

(ii) Successor Rate or Alternative Rate

If the Independent Adviser determines that:

- (A) there is a Successor Rate, then such Successor Rate (as adjusted by the applicable Adjustment Spread as provided in Condition 5.2(h)(iii)) shall subsequently be used in place of the Original Reference Rate to determine the relevant Rate(s) of Interest (or the relevant component part(s) thereof) for all relevant future payments of interest on the Notes (subject to the further operation of this Condition 5.2(h)); or
- (B) there is no Successor Rate but that there is an Alternative Rate, then such Alternative Rate (as adjusted by the applicable Adjustment Spread as provided in Condition 5.2(h)(iii)) shall subsequently be used in place of the Original Reference Rate to determine the relevant Rate(s) of Interest (or the relevant component part(s) thereof) for all relevant future payments of interest on the Notes (subject to the further operation of this Condition 5.2(h)).

(iii) Adjustment Spread

If a Successor Rate or Alternative Rate is determined in accordance with Condition 5.2(h)(ii), the Independent Adviser shall determine an Adjustment Spread (which may be expressed as a specified quantum, or a formula or methodology for determining the applicable Adjustment Spread (and for the avoidance of doubt an Adjustment Spread may be positive, negative or zero)), which Adjustment Spread shall be applied to the Successor Rate or the Alternative Rate (as the case may be) for each subsequent determination of a relevant Rate of Interest (or a relevant component part thereof) by reference to such Successor Rate or Alternative Rate (as applicable).

(iv) Benchmark Amendments

If any Successor Rate or Alternative Rate and (in either case) the applicable Adjustment Spread is determined in accordance with this Condition 5.2(h) and the Independent Adviser determines (A) that amendments to these Conditions (including, without limitation, amendments to the definitions of Day Count Fraction, Business Day or Relevant Screen Page) are necessary to follow market practice or to ensure the proper operation of such Successor Rate or Alternative Rate and/or (in either case) the applicable Adjustment Spread (such amendments, the Benchmark Amendments) and (B) the terms of the Benchmark Amendments, then the Issuer shall, subject to giving notice thereof in accordance with Condition 5.2(h)(v), without any requirement for the consent or approval of Noteholders or Couponholders, vary these Conditions to give effect to such Benchmark Amendments with effect from the date specified in such notice.

(v) Notices, etc.

The Issuer will notify the Principal Paying Agent, any other party specified in the applicable Final Terms as being responsible for calculating the Rate of Interest, the Paying Agents and, in accordance with Condition 14, the Noteholders promptly of any Successor Rate, Alternative Rate, Adjustment Spread and the specific terms of any Benchmark Amendments determined under this Condition 5.2(h). Such notice shall be irrevocable and shall specify the effective date of the Benchmark Amendments, if any.

The Successor Rate or Alternative Rate and the applicable Adjustment Spread and the Benchmark Amendments (if any) will (in the absence of manifest error in the determination of the Successor Rate or Alternative Rate and the applicable Adjustment Spread and the Benchmark Amendments (if any)) be binding on the Issuer, the Principal Paying Agent, any other party specified in the applicable Final Terms as being responsible for calculating the Rate of Interest, the Paying Agents and the Noteholders and Couponholders as of their effective date.

(vi) Survival of Original Reference Rate

Without prejudice to the obligations of the Issuer under the provisions of this Condition 5.2(h), the Original Reference Rate and the fallback provisions provided for in Condition 5.2(b) will continue to apply unless and until a Benchmark Event has occurred.

(vii) Fallbacks

If, following the occurrence of a Benchmark Event and in relation to the determination of the Rate of Interest on the relevant Interest Determination Date, no Successor Rate or Alternative Rate (as applicable) or (in either case) applicable Adjustment Spread is determined and notified to the Principal Paying Agent or any other party specified in the applicable Final Terms as being responsible for calculating the Rate of Interest (as applicable), in each case pursuant to this Condition 5.2(h), prior to such Interest Determination Date, the Original Reference Rate will continue to apply for the purposes of determining such Rate of Interest on such Interest Determination Date, with the effect that the fallback provisions provided for in Condition 5.2(b) will (if applicable) continue to apply to such determination.

For the avoidance of doubt, this Condition 5.2(h)(vii) shall apply to the determination of the Rate of Interest on the relevant Interest Determination Date only, and the Rate of Interest applicable to any subsequent Interest Period(s) is subject to the subsequent operation of, and to adjustment as provided in, this Condition 5.2(h).

(viii) Definitions

As used in this Condition 5.2(h):

Adjustment Spread means either (A) a spread (which may be positive, negative or zero), or (B) a formula or methodology for calculating a spread, in either case, which is to be applied to the relevant Successor Rate or Alternative Rate (as applicable) and is the spread, formula or methodology which:

- (A) in the case of a Successor Rate, is formally recommended in relation to the replacement of the Original Reference Rate with the Successor Rate by any Relevant Nominating Body; or
- (B) in the case of an Alternative Rate or (where (A) above does not apply) in the case of a Successor Rate, the Independent Adviser determines is recognised or acknowledged as being in customary market usage in international debt capital markets transactions which reference the Original Reference Rate, where such rate has been replaced by the Successor Rate or the Alternative Rate (as the case may be); or

- (C) (if the Independent Adviser determines that neither (A) nor (B) above applies) the Independent Adviser determines to be appropriate, having regard to the objective, so far as is reasonably practicable in the circumstances, of reducing or eliminating any economic prejudice or benefit (as the case may be) to Noteholders and Couponholders as a result of the replacement of the Original Reference Rate with the Successor Rate or the Alternative Rate (as the case may be);

Alternative Rate means an alternative to the Original Reference Rate which the Independent Adviser determines in accordance with Condition 5.2(h)(ii) above has replaced the Original Reference Rate in customary market usage in the international debt capital markets for the purposes of determining floating rates of interest (or the relevant component part thereof) for debt securities with a commensurate interest period and in the same Specified Currency as the Notes, or if the Independent Adviser determines that there is no such rate, such other rate as the Independent Adviser determines in its sole discretion is most comparable to the Original Reference Rate;

Benchmark Amendments has the meaning given to it in Condition 5.2(h)(iv) above;

Benchmark Event means, with respect to an Original Reference Rate:

- (A) the Original Reference Rate ceasing to be published for at least five Business Days or ceasing to exist or be administered; or
- (B) the later of (I) the making of a public statement by the administrator of the Original Reference Rate that it will, on or before a specified date, cease publishing the Original Reference Rate permanently or indefinitely (in circumstances where no successor administrator has been appointed that will continue publication of the Original Reference Rate) and (II) the date falling six months prior to the specified date referred to in (B)(I); or
- (C) the making of a public statement by the supervisor of the administrator of the Original Reference Rate that the Original Reference Rate has been permanently or indefinitely discontinued; or
- (D) the later of (I) the making of a public statement by the supervisor of the administrator of the Original Reference Rate that the Original Reference Rate will, on or before a specified date, be permanently or indefinitely discontinued and (II) the date falling six months prior to the specified date referred to in (D)(I); or
- (E) the later of (I) the making of a public statement by the supervisor of the administrator of the Original Reference Rate that means the Original Reference Rate will be prohibited from being used or that its use will be subject to restrictions or adverse consequences, in each case on or before a specified date and (II) the date falling six months prior to the specified date referred to in (E)(I); or
- (F) it has or will prior to the next Interest Determination Date become unlawful for the Issuer, the Principal Paying Agent, any other party specified in the applicable Final Terms as being responsible for calculating the Rate of Interest or any Paying Agent to calculate any payments due to be made to any Noteholder or Couponholder using the Original Reference Rate; or

- (G) the making of a public statement by the supervisor of the administrator of such Original Reference Rate announcing that such Original Reference Rate is no longer representative of its underlying market or may no longer be used; or
- (H) the later of (I) the making of a public statement by the supervisor of the administrator of the Original Reference Rate that the Original Reference Rate will no longer be representative or may no longer be used, in each case on or before a specified date and (II) the date falling six months prior to the specified date referred to in (H)(I);

Independent Adviser means an independent financial institution of international repute or an independent financial adviser with appropriate expertise in the international debt capital markets appointed by the Issuer, at its own expense, under this Condition 5.2(h);

Original Reference Rate means the originally specified Reference Rate in the applicable Final Terms used to determine the relevant Rate of Interest (or any component part thereof) in respect of any Interest Period(s) (provided that if, following one or more Benchmark Events, such originally specified Reference Rate (or any Successor Rate or Alternative Rate which has replaced it) has been replaced by a (or a further) Successor Rate or Alternative Rate and a Benchmark Event subsequently occurs in respect of such Successor Rate or Alternative Rate, the term Original Reference Rate shall include any such Successor Rate or Alternative Rate);

Relevant Nominating Body means, in respect of an Original Reference Rate:

- (A) the central bank for the currency to which the Original Reference Rate relates, or any central bank or other supervisory authority which is responsible for supervising the administrator of the Original Reference Rate; or
- (B) any working group or committee sponsored by, chaired or co-chaired by or constituted at the request of (I) the central bank for the currency to which the Original Reference Rate relates, (II) any central bank or other supervisory authority which is responsible for supervising the administrator of the Original Reference Rate, (III) a group of the aforementioned central banks or other supervisory authorities or (IV) the Financial Stability Board or any part thereof; and

Successor Rate means a successor to or replacement of the Original Reference Rate which is formally recommended by any Relevant Nominating Body.

5.3 Accrual of interest

Each Note (or in the case of the redemption of part only of a Note, that part only of such Note) will cease to bear interest (if any) from the date for its redemption unless payment of principal is improperly withheld or refused. In such event, interest will continue to accrue until whichever is the earlier of:

- (a) the date on which all amounts due in respect of such Note have been paid; and
- (b) five days after the date on which the full amount of the moneys payable in respect of such Note has been received by the Principal Paying Agent or the Registrar, as the case may be, and notice to that effect has been given to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 14.

6. PAYMENTS

6.1 Method of payment

Subject as provided below:

- (a) payments in a Specified Currency other than euro will be made by credit or transfer to an account in the relevant Specified Currency maintained by the payee with a bank in the principal financial centre of the country of such Specified Currency (which, if the Specified Currency is Australian dollars or New Zealand dollars, shall be Sydney and Auckland, respectively); and
- (b) payments will be made in euro by credit or transfer to a euro account (or any other account to which euro may be credited or transferred) specified by the payee.

Payments will be subject in all cases to (i) any fiscal or other laws and regulations applicable thereto in the place of payment or other laws and regulations to which the Issuer or its Agents are subject, but without prejudice to the provisions of Condition 8 and (ii) any withholding or deduction required pursuant to an agreement described in Section 1471(b) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the Code) or otherwise imposed pursuant to Sections 1471 through 1474 of the Code, any regulations or agreements thereunder, any official interpretations thereof, or (without prejudice to the provisions of Condition 8) any law implementing an intergovernmental approach thereto.

6.2 Presentation of definitive Bearer Notes and Coupons

Payments of principal in respect of definitive Bearer Notes will (subject as provided below) be made in the manner provided in Condition 6.1 above only against presentation and surrender (or, in the case of part payment of any sum due, endorsement) of definitive Bearer Notes, and payments of interest in respect of definitive Bearer Notes will (subject as provided below) be made as aforesaid only against presentation and surrender (or, in the case of part payment of any sum due, endorsement) of Coupons, in each case at the specified office of any Paying Agent outside the United States (which expression, as used herein, means the United States of America (including the States and the District of Columbia and its possessions)).

Fixed Rate Notes in definitive bearer form (other than Long Maturity Notes (as defined below)) should be presented for payment together with all unmatured Coupons appertaining thereto (which expression shall for this purpose include Coupons falling to be issued on exchange of matured Talons), failing which the amount of any missing unmatured Coupon (or, in the case of payment not being made in full, the same proportion of the amount of such missing unmatured Coupon as the sum so paid bears to the sum due) will be deducted from the sum due for payment. Each amount of principal so deducted will be paid in the manner mentioned above against surrender of the relative missing Coupon at any time before the expiry of 10 years after the Relevant Date (as defined in Condition 8) in respect of such principal (whether or not such Coupon would otherwise have become void under Condition 9) or, if later, five years from the date on which such Coupon would otherwise have become due, but in no event thereafter.

Upon any Fixed Rate Note in definitive bearer form becoming due and repayable prior to its Maturity Date, all unmatured Talons (if any) appertaining thereto will become void and no further Coupons will be issued in respect thereof.

Upon the date on which any Floating Rate Note or Long Maturity Note in definitive bearer form becomes due and repayable, unmatured Coupons and Talons (if any) relating thereto (whether or not attached) shall become void and no payment or, as the case may be, exchange for further Coupons shall be made in respect thereof. A Long Maturity Note is a Fixed Rate Note (other than a Fixed Rate Note which on issue had a Talon attached) whose nominal amount on issue is less than the aggregate interest payable thereon provided that such Note shall cease to be a Long Maturity Note on the Interest Payment Date on which the aggregate amount of interest remaining to be paid after that date is less than the nominal amount of such Note.

If the due date for redemption of any definitive Bearer Note is not an Interest Payment Date, interest (if any) accrued in respect of such Note from (and including) the preceding Interest Payment Date or, as the case may be, the Interest Commencement Date shall be payable only against surrender of the relevant definitive Bearer Note.

6.3 Payments in respect of Bearer Global Notes

Payments of principal and interest (if any) in respect of Notes represented by any Global Note in bearer form will (subject as provided below) be made in the manner specified above in relation to definitive Bearer Notes or otherwise in the manner specified in the relevant Global Note, where applicable against presentation or surrender, as the case may be, of such Global Note at the specified office of any Paying Agent outside the United States. A record of each payment made, distinguishing between any payment of principal and any payment of interest, will be made either on such Global Note by the Paying Agent to which it was presented or in the records of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg, as applicable.

6.4 Payments in respect of Registered Notes

Payments of principal in respect of each Registered Note (whether or not in global form) will be made against presentation and surrender (or, in the case of part payment of any sum due, endorsement) of the Registered Note at the specified office of the Registrar or any of the Paying Agents. Such payments will be made by transfer to the Designated Account (as defined below) of the holder (or the first named of joint holders) of the Registered Note appearing in the register of holders of the Registered Notes maintained by the Registrar (the Register) (i) where in global form, at the close of the business day (being for this purpose a day on which Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg are open for business) before the relevant due date, and (ii) where in definitive form, at the close of business on the third business day (being for this purpose a day on which banks are open for business in the city where the specified office of the Registrar is located) before the relevant due date. For these purposes, Designated Account means the account (which, in the case of a payment in Japanese yen to a non resident of Japan, shall be a non resident account) maintained by a holder with a Designated Bank and identified as such in the Register and Designated Bank means (in the case of payment in a Specified Currency other than euro) a bank in the principal financial centre of the country of such Specified Currency (which, if the Specified Currency is Australian dollars or New Zealand dollars, shall be Sydney and Auckland, respectively) and (in the case of a payment in euro) any bank which processes payments in euro.

Payments of interest in respect of each Registered Note (whether or not in global form) will be made by transfer on the due date to the Designated Account of the holder (or the first named of joint holders) of the Registered Note appearing in the Register (i) where in global form, at the close of the business day (being for this purpose a day on which Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg are open for business) before the relevant due date, and (ii) where in definitive form, at the close of business on the fifteenth day (whether or not such fifteenth day is a business day) before the relevant due date (the Record Date). Payment of the interest due in respect of each Registered Note on redemption will be made in the same manner as payment of the principal amount of such Registered Note.

No commissions or expenses shall be charged to the holders by the Registrar in respect of any payments of principal or interest in respect of Registered Notes.

None of the Issuer or the Agents will have any responsibility or liability for any aspect of the records relating to, or payments made on account of, beneficial ownership interests in the Registered Global Notes or for maintaining, supervising or reviewing any records relating to such beneficial ownership interests.

6.5 General provisions applicable to payments

The holder of a Global Note shall be the only person entitled to receive payments in respect of Notes represented by such Global Note and the Issuer will be discharged by payment to, or to the order of, the holder of such Global Note in respect of each amount so paid. Each of the persons shown in the records of Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg as the beneficial holder of a particular nominal amount of Notes represented by such Global Note must look solely to Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg, as the case may be, for their share of each payment so made by the Issuer to, or to the order of, the holder of such Global Note.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Condition, if any amount of principal and/or interest in respect of Bearer Notes is payable in U.S. dollars, such U.S. dollar payments of principal and/or interest in respect of such Notes will be made at the specified office of a Paying Agent in the United States if:

- (a) the Issuer has appointed Paying Agents with specified offices outside the United States with the reasonable expectation that such Paying Agents would be able to make payment in U.S. dollars at such specified offices outside the United States of the full amount of principal and interest on the Bearer Notes in the manner provided above when due;
- (b) payment of the full amount of such principal and interest at all such specified offices outside the United States is illegal or effectively precluded by exchange controls or other similar restrictions on the full payment or receipt of principal and interest in U.S. dollars; and
- (c) such payment is then permitted under United States law without involving, in the opinion of the Issuer, adverse tax consequences to the Issuer.

6.6 Payment Day

If the date for payment of any amount in respect of any Note or Coupon is not a Payment Day, the holder thereof shall not be entitled to payment until the next following Payment Day in the relevant place and shall not be entitled to further interest or other payment in respect of such delay. For these purposes, Payment Day means any day which (subject to Condition 9) is:

- (a) a day on which commercial banks and foreign exchange markets settle payments and are open for general business (including dealing in foreign exchange and foreign currency deposits):
  - (i) in the case of Notes in definitive form only, in the relevant place of presentation; and
  - (ii) in each Additional Financial Centre (other than T2) specified in the applicable Final Terms;
- (b) if T2 is specified as an Additional Financial Centre in the applicable Final Terms, a day on which the T2 is open; and
- (c) either (1) in relation to any sum payable in a Specified Currency other than euro, a day on which commercial banks and foreign exchange markets settle payments and are open for general business (including dealing in foreign exchange and foreign currency deposits) in the principal financial centre of the country of the relevant Specified Currency (which if the Specified Currency is Australian dollars or New Zealand dollars shall be Sydney and Auckland, respectively) or (2) in relation to any sum payable in euro, a day on which the T2 is open.

- (d) the Optional Redemption Amount(s) (if any) of the Notes;

- (b) such obligation cannot be avoided by the Issuer taking reasonable measures available to it, provided that no such notice of redemption shall be given earlier than 90 days prior to the earliest date on which the Issuer would be obliged to pay such additional amounts were a payment in respect of the Notes then due.

Prior to the publication of any notice of redemption pursuant to this Condition, the Issuer shall deliver to the Principal Paying Agent to make available at its specified office to the Noteholders (i) a certificate signed by two directors of the Issuer stating that the Issuer is entitled to effect such redemption and setting forth a statement of facts showing that the conditions precedent to the right of the Issuer so to redeem have occurred and (ii) an opinion of independent legal advisers of recognised standing to the effect that the Issuer has or will become obliged to pay such additional amounts as a result of such change or amendment.

The key objective with this licence is to explore the resource potential of the area covered by the licence, based on the knowledge obtained by Aker BP in the Alvheim area. Aker BP UK Limited is consolidated in Aker BP's financial statements.

Alvheim AS (80%)

The sole purpose of Alvheim AS is to act as legal owner of MST Alvheim, the floating production facility which is used to produce oil and gas from the Alvheim fields. The costs of and benefits from operating the MST Alvheim will be carried by the partners in the Alvheim field. Hence, Alvheim AS only has the formal ownership rather than the actual value of the production facilities. Aker BP has an 80 per cent. share in Alvheim AS, which corresponds to the ownership in the Alvheim field. ConocoPhillips Skandinavia AS, the other participant in the Alvheim field, holds the remaining 20 per cent. share. Alvheim AS does not hold any material assets or liabilities and is not consolidated in Aker BP's financial statements.

Det norske oljeselskap AS (100%)

Det norske oljeselskap AS, previously Marathon Oil Norge AS, was acquired by Aker BP in 2014 and all activity was transferred to Aker BP in the same year. During 2020, Aker BP UK Limited (see above) was established as a subsidiary of Det norske oljeselskap AS. Except for the subsidiary, the only asset in this company is cash and cash equivalents reflecting the share capital amounting to NOK 6.8 million. Det norske oljeselskap AS does not hold any material assets or liabilities and is not consolidated in Aker BP's financial statements.

Sandvika Fjellstue AS (100%)

Sandvika Fjellstue AS owns a conference centre used by Aker BP, located in Sandvika in Verdal. Sandvika Fjellstue AS is not consolidated in our annual financial statements as it is not considered a material subsidiary.

Overview of our producing fields and reserves

An overview of total reserves and changes from the 2024 reserves can be found in note 32 (Classification of reserves and contingent resources (unaudited)) to the Issuer's audited consolidated financial statements as of and for the year ended 31 December 2025, which are incorporated by reference in this Offering Circular.

Our main producing fields

Aker BP's total production of oil and gas currently comes predominantly from the following fields or hubs: Alvheim, Eiga (Edvard Grieg/Ivar Aasen), Johan Sverdrup, Skarv, Ula, and Valhall. Please see a summary of each of these main production fields below.

Alvheim

The Alvheim area comprises the Alvheim, Volund, Vilje, Bøyla, Skogul and Tyrving fields. All fields are operated by Aker BP and produced through the Alvheim FPSO. Oil is exported by shuttle tankers, while produced gas is exported through the Scottish Area Gas Evacuation (SAGE) system.

In 2025, Aker BP's net production from the Alvheim area averaged 61.4 mboepd, with production efficiency remaining high at 99 per cent. The Frosk Attic infill well commenced production in the fourth quarter of 2025. Further infill targets and improved oil recovery opportunities are being matured in the area.

Commissioning of the Carbon Optimiser project was completed during the year. Carbon Optimiser is an advanced system designed to automatically improve the energy efficiency of gas turbines and reduce greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions.

Eiga

The Eiga area is located in the North Sea and comprises the Edvard Grieg and Ivar Aasen hub, including associated developments such as Solveig and Hanz, all operated by Aker BP. At Ivar Aasen, initial processing takes place on the platform, with partially processed fluids transported to the Edvard Grieg platform for final processing and export. The fields are powered by electricity from shore. In 2025, Aker BP's net production from Eiga averaged 45.2 mboepd. Production efficiency remained high at 90 per cent.

The Utsira High project comprises two subsea tie backs: Symra to the Ivar Aasen platform and Solveig Phase 2 to the Edvard Grieg platform. Solveig Phase 2 commenced production on 30 January 2026, on schedule and within budget. At Symra, the first two production wells have been completed, keeping the field on track for start-up in the third quarter of 2026. An appraisal well for Symra Phase 2 is planned following the ongoing drilling and completion activities.

Johan Sverdrup

The Johan Sverdrup field, operated by Equinor, commenced production in October 2019. Phase 1 comprised four bridge-linked platforms, oil and gas export pipelines, three subsea water-injection templates and 20 pre-drilled wells. Phase 2 included the installation of a second processing platform, upgrades to the riser platform and the addition of five subsea templates.

In 2025, Aker BP's net production from Johan Sverdrup averaged 231.0 mboepd, with production efficiency remaining high at 98 per cent.

In accordance with the unit agreement, Aker BP and TotalEnergies initiated a redetermination process for the Johan Sverdrup unit in January 2025. The purpose of the process is to review and, where relevant, revise the equity interests of the unit owners based on new subsurface and production data acquired since the unit agreement was established in 2015. The redetermination process is expected to be concluded in 2026.

Johan Sverdrup Phase 3

Phase 3 of the Johan Sverdrup development comprises the installation of two new subsea templates and eight additional wells. The project was sanctioned in the second quarter of 2025 and is progressing according to plan, with fabrication activities advancing at multiple sites. Drilling of the Phase 3 wells is expected to commence towards the end of 2026, with production start-up scheduled for the fourth quarter of 2027.

Skarv

The Skarv area, located in the northern part of the Norwegian Sea, comprises the Skarv hub and a portfolio of associated fields and developments, including Idun, Tilje, Ærfugl, Gråsel and Idun Tunge. All production is processed through the Skarv FPSO, which is operated by Aker BP. Oil is offloaded to shuttle tankers, while gas is transported to the Kårstø terminal via a pipeline connected to the Åsgard Transport System.

In 2025, net production from the Skarv area averaged 31.8 mboepd, with production efficiency remaining high at 98 per cent.

Skarv Satellites Project

The Skarv Satellites Project, which comprises the tie backs of Alve Nord, Idun Nord and Ørn to the Skarv FPSO, continues to progress according to plan, with steady execution across drilling, subsea installation and topside modification activities.

Reflecting solid progress across all workstreams, the expected start-up of the Skarv Satellites has been accelerated to the fourth quarter of 2026

Ula

The Ula area comprises the Ula, Tambar, Tambar East and Oda fields. All fields are produced through the Ula field centre, which is operated by Aker BP. Oil is exported via Ekofisk to Teesside, while produced gas is reinjected into the Ula reservoir to enhance oil recovery. In 2025, Aker BP's net production from the Ula area averaged 8.0 mboepd. Production efficiency was 77 per cent., impacted by planned well maintenance activities during the third quarter. Production from the Ula area is expected to cease by 2028. The decommissioning project is progressing towards a concept select decision, while efforts to optimise late life production continue in parallel.

Valhall

The Valhall area, operated by Aker BP, comprises the Valhall and Hod fields in the southern Norwegian North Sea. The infrastructure includes a field centre with three bridge-connected platforms and four unmanned wellhead platforms. Oil is exported via pipeline to Teesside, while gas is exported through the Norpipe system to Emden, Germany.

In 2025, Aker BP's net production from the Valhall area averaged 42.7 mboepd, with production efficiency stable at 85 per cent.

The partnership continues to identify upside potential in the area.

Valhall PWP-Fenris

The Valhall PWP-Fenris project continues to progress according to plan, with fabrication and construction activities advancing at multiple sites. Modification work continued at the existing Valhall facilities, while key offshore campaigns at the Fenris field, including trenching and subsea rock installation, were completed. The development comprises a new production and wellhead platform (PWP) at the Valhall field centre and an unmanned installation at Fenris, tied back to the PWP.

Following a successful four-well drilling campaign at Fenris, planning of an additional well is underway. Drilling operations also progressed at Valhall PWP, where the first two wells were completed and work on the third well continued through year end. In addition, four further wells have been included in the programme, enabled by available well slots on the new platform.

In total, the expanded drilling programme comprises five additional wells and is expected to increase recoverable volumes by approximately 30-35 mmboc, bringing total gross recoverable resources to around 270 mmboc. Production start-up is expected in 2027.

The facilities will utilise the power-from-shore system, enabling a low scope 1 and 2 GHG emission intensity.

Other Fields

Yggdrasil

The Yggdrasil area, operated by Aker BP in partnership with Equinor and Orlen Upstream Norway, is estimated to contain approximately 800 mmboc of recoverable resources. Through continued exploration and reservoir maturation, Aker BP aims to ultimately increase recoverable volumes to more than one billion barrels.

The development comprises a central processing platform (Hugin A), two unmanned platforms (Munin and Hugin B), extensive subsea infrastructure and more than 55 planned wells. All facilities will be powered from shore, enabling a low scope 1 and 2 GHG emission intensity. First production is expected in 2027.

Project execution is progressing according to plan. Offshore activity is at an all-time high, requiring close marine coordination. The Subsea Alliance has multiple construction vessels in the Yggdrasil area installing subsea infrastructure such as pipelines, manifolds, and spools, while divers perform connections on the seabed. The Hugin B jacket has been successfully installed, and laying of the power-from-shore cable is ongoing. Two rigs continue to drill production wells with strong performance.

Onshore, stacking of the Hugin A topside has been completed, and multi-discipline outfitting and commissioning activities are ongoing. Commissioning is also well underway on the Hugin B and Munin topsides, as well as on the power-from-shore stations.

The Yggdrasil area continues to demonstrate strong exploration potential. In the third quarter of 2025, Aker BP made a significant oil discovery through the Omega Alfa exploration campaign, with estimated recoverable volumes of 96-134 mmboc. Together with the oil discovery at East Frigg in 2023, this supports the ambition to ultimately recover more than one billion barrels from the Yggdrasil area. Work to mature the Omega Alfa discovery has commenced, and follow-up exploration drilling in the neighbouring Frigg area is planned for 2027.

Strategies

Maximise performance of existing producing areas and execute high-quality development projects

We aim to continue to safely optimise returns from our existing producing assets by using established technologies to maximise recoveries of in-place hydrocarbons and manage natural decline rates through strategic infill drilling. We have an ongoing drilling programme to optimise recoveries from producing reservoirs and develop hydrocarbon accumulations close to existing infrastructure. Furthermore, we prioritise the reliability and availability of key infrastructure to maintain production levels. We seek to efficiently execute projects and secure new high-quality development projects. Additionally, we intend to leverage the value of our existing infrastructure by developing new, smaller deposits in the vicinity of our existing platforms that would be uneconomic without the ability to utilise existing infrastructure.

Maintain disciplined capital management and conservative financial profile

We aim to maintain a conservative financial profile and balance sheet with ample liquidity. We expect to fund exploration and development activities from a combination of cash flow from operations, proceeds from debt issuances and potentially proceeds from portfolio management activities, such as farm-downs or sales. Any cost overruns in our exploration and development programmes are expected to be partially mitigated by the Norwegian tax regime, subject to any amendments thereto (see “Risk Factors – Factors that may affect the Issuer’s ability to fulfil its obligations under Notes issued under the Programme – Risks relating to the oil and gas industry – Our business and financial condition could be adversely affected if Norwegian tax regulations for the petroleum industry are amended”). We closely monitor liquidity risk through cash flow forecasts and sensitivity analyses. As of 31 December 2025, Aker BP had total available liquidity of USD 5.9 billion, comprising of USD 2.3 billion in cash and cash equivalents, USD 300 million in financial investments and USD 3.2 billion in undrawn credit facilities. Our credit facilities consist of a USD 1.2 billion Working Capital Facility and a USD 2.0 billion Liquidity Facility. The Working Capital Facility matures in 2028, with one extension option that could extend the maturity to 2029. The Liquidity Facility matures in 2030, with two extension options that could extend the maturity to 2032.

We manage our credit risk by assessing the creditworthiness of potential counterparties before entering into transactions with them and we will continue to evaluate their creditworthiness after transactions have been initiated. We maintain a prudent risk management policy based on our continuous monitoring of market conditions, which includes our hedging programme, the goal of which is to reduce the risk connected to foreign exchange rates, interest rates and commodity prices.

Sustaining a competitive cost structure through continuous focus on several improvement areas

Company priorities consist of important improvement initiatives and activities with clear deliverables that are vital for the company’s future success. We aim to increase our efficiency by digitising field development and operation throughout the entire life cycle of a field, from exploration to abandonment. We believe that it is possible to safely improve quality and reduce costs through reorganising the value chain with strategic alliances with suppliers and oilfield services providers. We believe that we can prepare for changing market conditions by developing a flexible business model that anticipates growth and adapts to volatility. Such a business model may allow us to identify and mitigate supply chain risks and to exploit market volatility to gain competitive advantages. For example, we believe that our acquisitions of Marathon Oil Norge AS, BP Norge, Hess Norge and Lundin Energy’s oil and gas business, have significantly strengthened our operations and growth potential. Our low production costs and break-even prices help to support our financial performance when faced with volatility in the oil and gas markets.

Continue growing reserves by utilising exploration skillset and operational expertise and through strategic acquisitions

We will maintain the structure of our successful exploration and development programmes, which resulted in the Omega Alfa discovery in 2025, achieved through innovative exploration methods, unprecedented reservoir data acquisition and record breaking horizontal drilling. It emerged as one of Norway’s most significant finds in recent years, adding substantial new resources to Yggdrasil, Norway’s largest field development project.

The use of small subsea tiebacks is a development concept which will become increasingly important in the years ahead. By taking operatorship of Kjøttkake, a discovery made in 2025, we are applying fast track development methods to make smaller subsea tiebacks profitable. Our ambition is to reduce time from discovery to production to as little as three years, driven by productivity gains, supply chain integration and close collaboration with authorities, partners and alliances.

Our exploration programme is positioned for future growth. We plan to continue focusing our exploration activities in Norway on the NCS where the stable fiscal regime limits the impact of price declines and reduces exploration and appraisal risk. We will continue to review exploration opportunities on an ongoing basis and optimise our exploration portfolio to ensure we drill only those wells that we deem to offer an attractive risk/reward profile, and where possible, enable us to leverage our existing infrastructure position on the NCS. Going forward, we will focus on prospects with development potential in the short-term, which we believe we are well positioned to realise due to our extensive regional knowledge and experience on the NCS. To complement our organic growth strategy, we may also consider selective strategic acquisitions of companies and/or interests in licences with reserves or contingent resources. We evaluate acquisitions based on a set of criteria, including rate of return, field cash flow, operational efficiency, reserve life, development costs and decline profile, as well as quality of the organisation. We also continuously seek to optimise our asset portfolio by monetising certain assets, through divestitures or farm-downs.

Continued focus on emissions reduction and Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG)

Our goal is to minimise emissions from activities on the NCS through choosing energy-efficient solutions and operations. We aim to reduce our operational control scope 1 and 2 GHG emissions by 50 per cent. by 2030 compared with our 2017 baseline. By 2050, we aim to achieve a 90 per cent. reduction in operational control and equity share scope 1 and 2 GHG emissions.

We aim to minimise GHG emissions and maintain an equity share scope 1 and 2 GHG emission intensity below 4 kg CO<sub>2</sub>e/boe. According to International Association of Oil & Gas Producers (IOGP), this is less than one quarter of the global average in 2024. Our equity share scope 1 and 2 GHG emission intensity in 2025 was 2.8kg CO<sub>2</sub>e/boe, well below our target of below 4 kg CO<sub>2</sub>e/boe.

Aker BP will continue to seek cost-effective emission reduction measures to reduce GHG emissions from our operated assets. Investments in electrification constitute the most important lever for reducing scope 1 emissions under our 'avoid' and 'reduce' pillars. In 2028, we plan to retire our Ula asset, as well as bring new electrified production on stream mainly through our Yggdrasil and Valhall PWP-Fenris projects. Based on current projections, around 85 per cent. of Aker BP's equity share production is estimated to be electrified by 2030. By the 2040s, we estimate that our scope 1 and 2 GHG emissions will be significantly reduced due to the decommissioning of Alvheim and Skarv, our two remaining non-electrified assets at this point. Based on our current projected portfolio, 100 per cent. of Aker BP's operated production is expected to be electrified with power from shore by the 2040s.

Aker BP believes that CCS will play an important role in the transition to a low-carbon energy future and has identified a material opportunity related to financial benefits and improved reputation from investments in CCS. As of the date of this Offering Circular, we do not have any policies, targets or metrics related to CCS, primarily because our CCS activities are still at an early stage and the regulatory and fiscal frameworks are not yet sufficiently matured. However, in the future, we may introduce relevant policies, targets and performance indicators to guide and evaluate our efforts.

In 2023, Aker BP was awarded its first CO<sub>2</sub> storage licence on the NCS, Poseidon (EXL005), together with OMV (Norge) AS. This licence, operated by Aker BP, is located in the Southern Norwegian sector of the North Sea. In September 2024, Aker BP received its second CO<sub>2</sub> storage licence, Atlas (EXL011). Orlen Upstream Norge AS has since joined as a licence partner. EXL011 is located east of the Aker BP-operated Yggdrasil development in the Central North Sea. In February 2025, the Ministry of Energy awarded Aker BP a third licence, Forsete (EXL013), located west of Yggdrasil. Forsete is operated by Equinor Low Carbon Solution AS.

Aker BP has a strategic partnership with Høegh Evi to develop a comprehensive CO<sub>2</sub> transport and storage solution for industrial CO<sub>2</sub> emitters in Europe. This collaboration combines the companies' respective strengths, expertise and technologies to enable collection, conditioning, transport and secure injection of CO<sub>2</sub> for permanent storage in subsea reservoirs on the NCS.

Aker BP's CCS activities currently have three focus areas. Firstly, we are capturing high-quality subsurface opportunities and assessing their suitability for carbon storage through detailed subsurface studies. Secondly, we are evaluating field development concepts to mature projects towards development decisions. Thirdly, we are establishing strategic partnerships across the CCS value chain to develop a viable business model, while collaborating with the industry and authorities to establish a regulatory and fiscal framework for CCS.

The Atlas project is in the feasibility phase and has the potential to become a key enabler for largescale carbon capture and storage in Europe.

Exploration activity

In 2025, Aker BP participated in a total of 17 exploration and appraisal wells, of which five resulted in discoveries with commercial potential. Several of these were located in areas of existing infrastructure, such as the Omega Alfa campaign in the North Sea, which resulted in one of Norway's largest oil discoveries in recent years, adding 96-134 mmboe to the Yggdrasil area. Aker BP also participated in several other discoveries, including Kjøttkake and Lofn and Langemann.

In January 2026, Aker BP was offered interests in 22 new production licences offshore Norway, of which 12 were to be operated by Aker BP, through the APA 2025 licensing round. The table below lists the exploration programme for 2026, with 12 wells planned, focused on near-infrastructure opportunities. Please note that the information in the table reflects our current expectations, and changes may occur. All volume estimates are approximate figures.

Co-licensees and other commercial participants

Our license assets are owned, explored and developed through joint venture agreements, which are awarded and established by the MPE, or alternatively through license acquisitions. Joint venture licenses are governed by standard joint venture agreements, as well as transportation, processing and other commercial agreements with international and national oil and gas companies as joint venture partners and relevant service providers. The MPE also determines the licensee group and makes final decisions on licence share assignment and voting. When we evaluate whether to enter into a commercial agreement or joint venture, we seek prospective commercial partners who will complement our existing strengths. We conduct thorough business and financial diligence on all our prospective commercial co-licensees and counterparts, in order to ensure they will be able to finance their portion of any development.

During the lifecycle of the commercial agreements or joint ventures, we often have an active role in the technical, financial and administrative management of operations, including in situations in which we do not take on an official operator role. We typically maintain involvement with many aspects of operations, and provide input on mandatory draft compliance reports and other government submissions. We work closely with the other licensees and commercial partners to ensure that we are compliant with the ongoing obligations under the licences or agreements pursuant to our operator or non-operator roles and ownerships.

Insurance

We have travel insurance and health insurance for our employees and also keep an employer's liability insurance which covers occupational injury/disease, leisure accident, other illness and group life assurance. In addition, we have an extended director's and officer's liability insurance covering the whole organisation in the event of a loss as a result of decisions and actions taken within the scope of their regular duties.

Furthermore, we have insurance for all assets covering physical damage, OEE for wells and pollution, and third-party liability in accordance with the requirements set by the Norwegian authorities. In addition, we have LOPI for all of our production except the Valhall and Johan Sverdrup fields, where the LOPI is constrained by a CSL. See "Risk Factors – Factors that may affect the Issuer's ability to fulfil its obligations under Notes issued under the Programme – Risks relating to our operations and business - Unexpected shutdowns may occur at one or more of our fields." Our current LOPI insurance covers loss of production after 45 days waiting time at $50/barrel (net) for twelve months for all assets except for the Johan Sverdrup field where the oil price is set at $65/barrel (net).

The insurance programme we have in place may reduce the impact on our business of any sudden and accidental shutdown of any of these fields. We have construction all risks insurance for all ongoing projects covering both the risk of physical damage and liability. For decommissioning projects, we have decommissioning all risks insurance in place to cover general liability and damage to existing property as well as risk of pollution. Furthermore, all our assets are insured in the commercial market with a minimum S&P rating of A-.

We have insurance in place for all our operations as required and in accordance with industry practice and at levels that we feel will adequately provide for our needs and the risks we face. We cannot assure you, however, that our insurance coverage will adequately protect us from all risks that may arise or in amounts sufficient to prevent any material loss, including due to exceptions and scope of coverage, caps and deductibles.

See "Risk Factors – Risks relating to our operations and business – Our insurance may not provide sufficient funds to protect us from liabilities that could result from our operations.". See also "Risk Factors – Risks relating to our operations and business – Our operations in the Barents Sea expose us to additional environmental risks relating to Arctic drilling."

Legal and arbitration proceedings

We become involved from time to time in various claims and lawsuits arising in the ordinary course of our business. We are not involved in any ongoing governmental, legal or arbitration proceedings which, either individually or in the aggregate, have had, or are expected to have, a material adverse effect on our financial position or profitability, nor, so far as we are aware, are any such proceedings pending or threatened.

Oil taxation office assessment

We are, on an ongoing basis, party to certain tax disputes with the Norwegian tax authorities. Most of these disputes relate to transfer pricing issues (which relate to whether specific transaction prices (such as rig hire, insurance premiums, technology development and intercompany charges) are set in accordance with the arm's-length principle).

Some of the tax disputes we are party to are legacy disputes inherited from BP Norge and Hess Norge through the acquisitions of the respective companies. The BP Norge and Hess Norge acquisitions were approved by the Norwegian Ministry of Finance on the condition that, among other things, we became party to, and liable towards the tax authorities with respect to, all tax/duty claims against BP Norge and Hess Norge related to previous tax income years. With respect to such inherited disputes, the ultimate economic liability is subject to the terms and conditions of the respective transaction agreements for the BP acquisition and the Hess Norge acquisition.

See "Risk Factors – Risks relating to our operations and business – Tax disputes could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, and financial condition."

TAXATION

Tax legislation, including in the country where the investor is domiciled or tax resident and in the Issuer's country of incorporation, may have an impact on the income that an investor receives from the Notes.

NORWAY

This section describes certain tax rules in Norway applicable to Noteholders who are resident in Norway for tax purposes (Norwegian Noteholders) and to Noteholders who are not resident in Norway for tax purposes (Foreign Noteholders). The statements herein regarding taxation are based on the laws in force in Norway as of the date of this Offering Circular and are subject to any changes in law occurring after such date. Such changes could be made on a retrospective basis. The following summary does not purport to be a comprehensive description of all the tax considerations that may be relevant to a decision to purchase, own or dispose of the Notes under the Programme. Investors are advised to consult their own tax advisors concerning the overall tax consequences of their ownership of such Notes. The statements only apply to Noteholders who are beneficial owners of the Notes. Please note that for the purpose of the summary below, references to Norwegian Noteholders or Foreign Noteholders refers to the tax residency rather than the nationality of the Noteholder.

Foreign Noteholders

Taxation on Interest

Interest paid to Foreign Noteholders will not be subject to Norwegian income tax, unless the holding of Notes is effectively connected with a business carried on by the holder of Notes in Norway or managed from Norway. Such taxation may be modified through an applicable tax treaty.

Norway levies withholding tax on certain interest payments from debtors in Norway to creditors outside of Norway. The withholding obligation is only applicable to interest payments made to related parties of the debtor who are resident in low tax jurisdictions. A person is deemed to be a "related party" when there is a direct or indirect ownership or control of 50 per cent. or more between that person and the debtor. Further, a "low-tax jurisdiction" is a jurisdiction in which the ordinary income tax on the overall profit of a company is less than two thirds of the tax that would have been levied on such company had it been resident in Norway. Withholding tax will not be payable if the related party creditor is tax resident within the EEA and meets the requirements to be regarded as genuinely established and carrying out genuine economic activity therein.

The Norwegian domestic withholding tax rate is 15 per cent., subject to reduction under any applicable tax treaty.

Taxation of Capital Gains

Gains derived from sale, disposal or redemption of the Notes by Foreign Noteholders will not be subject to tax in Norway, unless the holding of Notes is effectively connected with a business carried on by the holder of Notes in Norway or managed from Norway. Such taxation may be modified through an applicable tax treaty.

Net Wealth Tax

Foreign Noteholders are not subject to Norwegian net wealth tax with respect to the Notes, unless the Noteholder is an individual, and the holding of Notes is effectively connected with a business carried on by the holder of Notes in Norway or managed from Norway. Such taxation may be modified through an applicable tax treaty.

Transfer Tax

There is currently no Norwegian transfer tax on the transfer of Notes.

Norwegian Noteholders

Taxation on Interest

For Norwegian Noteholders, interest on the Notes is taxable as “ordinary income” subject to a flat rate of 22 per cent. This applies irrespective of whether the Norwegian Noteholders are individuals or corporations. For financial institutions the tax rate for “ordinary income” is 25 per cent.

Interest is taxed according to a realisation principle; as a main rule in the income year in which interest is accrued (i.e. regardless of when the interest is actually paid). For taxpayers without a statutory obligation to keep accounting records, special provisions apply in case of breach of contract resulting in due interest not being paid by the end of the income year.

Taxation of Capital Gains

Redemption at the relevant Maturity Date of the Notes as well as prior disposal of the Notes is treated as a realisation of such Notes and will trigger a capital gain or loss for Norwegian Noteholders under Norwegian tax law. Capital gains will be taxable as “ordinary income”, subject to the flat rate of 22 per cent. (25 per cent. for financial institutions). Losses will be deductible from a Norwegian Noteholder’s “ordinary income”, taxed at the same rate.

Any capital gain or loss is computed as the difference between the amount received by the Norwegian Noteholder on realisation and the cost price of the Notes. The cost price is equal to the price for which the Norwegian Noteholder acquired the Notes. Costs incurred in connection with the acquisition and realisation of the Notes may be deducted from a Norwegian Noteholder’s taxable income in the year of the realisation.

Net Wealth Tax

The value of the Notes held by a Norwegian Noteholder at the end of each income year will be included in the holder’s taxable net wealth for municipal and state net wealth tax purposes. Listed Notes are valued at their quoted value on 1 January in the assessment year. The marginal rate of net wealth tax is currently 1.0 per cent. for net worth above a minimum threshold of NOK 1,900,000, and 1.1 per cent. for net worth above a minimum threshold of NOK 21,500,000.

Limited liability companies and certain similar entities are exempt from net wealth taxation.

Transfer Taxes etc.; VAT

No transfer taxes, stamp duty or similar taxes are currently imposed in Norway on purchase, disposal or redemption of securities such as the Notes. Furthermore, there will be no VAT payable in Norway on the transfer of the Notes.

FATCA DISCLOSURE

Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act

Pursuant to certain provisions of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, commonly known as FATCA, a foreign financial institution (as defined by FATCA) may be required to withhold on certain payments it makes (foreign passthru payments) to persons that fail to meet certain certification, reporting or related requirements. The issuer may be a foreign financial institution for these purposes. A number of jurisdictions (including the Kingdom of Norway) have entered into, or have agreed in substance to, intergovernmental agreements with the United States to implement FATCA (IGAs), which modify the way in which FATCA applies in their jurisdictions. Under the provisions of IGAs as currently in effect, a foreign financial institution in an IGA jurisdiction would generally not be required to withhold under FATCA or an IGA from payments that it makes. Certain aspects of the application of the FATCA provisions and IGAs to instruments such as Notes, including whether withholding would ever be required pursuant to FATCA or an IGA with respect to payments on instruments such as Notes, are uncertain and may be subject to change. Even if withholding would be required pursuant to FATCA or an IGA with respect to payments on instruments such as Notes, such withholding would not apply prior to the date that is two years after the date on which final regulations defining foreign passthru payments are published in the U.S. Federal Register and Notes characterised as debt (or which are not otherwise characterised as equity and have a fixed term) for U.S. federal tax purposes that are issued on or prior to the date that is six months after the date on which final regulations defining foreign passthru payments are published generally would be grandfathered for purposes of FATCA withholding unless materially modified after such date. However, if additional Notes (as described under “Terms and Conditions of the Notes—Further Issues”) that are not distinguishable from previously issued Notes are issued after the expiration of the grandfathering period and are subject to withholding under FATCA, then withholding agents may treat all Notes, including the Notes offered prior to the expiration of the grandfathering period, as subject to withholding under FATCA. Holders should consult their own tax advisers regarding how these rules may apply to their investment in Notes.

Luxembourg Taxation

The following information is of a general nature only and is based on the laws presently in force in Luxembourg, though it is not intended to be, nor should it be construed to be, legal or tax advice. The information contained within this section is limited to Luxembourg withholding tax issues and prospective investors in the Notes should therefore consult their own professional advisers as to the effects of state, local or foreign laws, including Luxembourg tax law, to which they may be subject.

Please be aware that the residence concept used under the respective headings below applies for Luxembourg income tax assessment purposes only. Any reference in the present section to a withholding tax or a tax of a similar nature, or to any other concepts, refers to Luxembourg tax law and/or concepts only.

Withholding Tax

(a) Non-resident holders of Notes

Under Luxembourg general tax laws currently in force, there is no withholding tax on payments of principal, premium or interest made to non-resident holders of Notes, nor on accrued but unpaid interest in respect of the Notes, nor is any Luxembourg withholding tax payable upon redemption or repurchase of the Notes held by non-resident holders of Notes.

(b) Resident holders of Notes

Under Luxembourg general tax laws currently in force and subject to the law of 23 December 2005 as amended (the Relibi Law) mentioned below, there is no withholding tax on payments of principal, premium or interest made to Luxembourg resident holders of Notes, nor on accrued but unpaid interest in respect of Notes, nor is any Luxembourg withholding tax payable upon redemption or repurchase of Notes held by Luxembourg resident holders of Notes.

Under the Relibi Law payments of interest or similar income made or ascribed by a paying agent established in Luxembourg to an individual beneficial owner who is a resident of Luxembourg will be subject to a withholding tax of 20 per cent. Such withholding tax will be in full discharge of income tax if the beneficial owner is an individual acting in the course of the management of their private wealth. Responsibility for the withholding of the tax will be assumed by the Luxembourg paying agent. Accordingly, payments of interest under the Notes coming within the scope of the Relibi Law will be subject to a withholding tax at a rate of 20 per cent.

SUBSCRIPTION AND SALE

The Dealers have, in an amended and restated Programme Agreement (such Programme Agreement as modified and/or supplemented and/or restated from time to time, the Programme Agreement) dated 22 May 2026, agreed with the Issuer a basis upon which they or any of them may from time to time agree to purchase Notes. Any such agreement will extend to those matters stated under “Form of the Notes” and “Terms and Conditions of the Notes”. In the Programme Agreement, the Issuer has agreed to reimburse the Dealers for certain of their expenses in connection with the establishment and any future update of the Programme and the issue of Notes under the Programme and to indemnify the Dealers against certain liabilities incurred by them in connection therewith.

Terms used in this paragraph have the meanings given to them by Regulation S under the Securities Act.

The Notes in bearer form are subject to U.S. tax law requirements and may not be offered, sold or delivered within the United States or its possessions or to a United States person, except in certain transactions permitted by U.S. Treasury regulations. Terms used in this paragraph have the meanings given to them by the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and Treasury regulations promulgated thereunder. The applicable Final Terms (or Pricing Supplement, in the case of Exempt Notes) will identify whether TEFRA C rules or TEFRA D rules apply or whether TEFRA is not applicable.

Each Dealer has represented and agreed, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to represent and agree, that it will not offer, sell or deliver Notes (a) as part of their distribution at any time or (b) otherwise until 40 days after the completion of the distribution of all Notes of the Tranche of which such Notes are a part, within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons except in accordance with Regulation S of the Securities Act. Each Dealer has further agreed, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to agree, that it will send to each dealer to which it sells any Notes during the distribution compliance period a confirmation or other notice setting forth the restrictions on offers and sales of the Notes within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons. Terms used in this paragraph have the meanings given to them by Regulation S under the Securities Act.

Until 40 days after the commencement of the offering of any Series of Notes, an offer or sale of such Notes within the United States by any dealer (whether or not participating in the offering) may violate the registration requirements of the Securities Act if such offer or sale is made otherwise than in accordance with an available exemption from registration under the Securities Act.

Prohibition of sales to EEA Retail Investors

Unless the Final Terms in respect of any Notes (or Pricing Supplement, in the case of Exempt Notes) specifies “Prohibition of Sales to EEA Retail Investors” as “Not Applicable”, each Dealer has represented and agreed, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to represent and agree, that it has not offered, sold or otherwise made available and will not offer, sell or otherwise make available any Notes which are the subject of the offering contemplated by this Offering Circular as completed by the Final Terms (or Pricing Supplement, as the case may be) in relation thereto to any retail investor in the European Economic Area. - (b) the expression an offer includes the communication in any form and by any means of sufficient information on the terms of the offer and the Notes to be offered so as to enable an investor to decide to purchase or subscribe for the Notes.

If the Final Terms in respect of any Notes (or Pricing Supplement, in the case of Exempt Notes) specifies “Prohibition of Sales to EEA Retail Investors” as “Not Applicable”, in relation to each Member State of the European Economic Area, each Dealer has represented and agreed, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to represent and agree, that it has not made and will not make an offer of Notes which are the subject of the offering contemplated by this Offering Circular as completed by the Final Terms (or Pricing Supplement, in the case of Exempt Notes) in relation thereto to the public in that Member State except that it may make an offer of such Notes to the public in that Member State:

- (A) at any time to any legal entity which is a qualified investor as defined in the Prospectus Regulation;
- (B) at any time to fewer than 150 natural or legal persons (other than qualified investors as defined in the Prospectus Regulation) subject to obtaining the prior consent of the relevant Dealer or Dealers nominated by the Issuer for any such offer; or provided that no such offer of Notes referred to in (A) to (C) above shall require the Issuer or any Dealer to publish a prospectus pursuant to Article 3 of the Prospectus Regulation or supplement a prospectus pursuant to Article 23 of the Prospectus Regulation.

For the purposes of this provision:

- the expression an offer of Notes to the public in relation to any Notes in any Member State means the communication in any form and by any means of sufficient information on the terms of the offer and the Notes to be offered so as to enable an investor to decide to purchase or subscribe for the Notes; and

Dealers transacting with the Issuer

Certain of the Dealers and their affiliates have engaged, and may in the future engage, in investment banking and/or commercial banking transactions with, and may perform other services for the Issuer and its affiliates in the ordinary course of business. Certain of the Dealers and their affiliates may have positions, deal or make markets in the Notes issued under the Programme, related derivatives and reference obligations, including (but not limited to) entering into hedging strategies on behalf of the Issuer and its affiliates, investor clients, or as principal in order to manage their exposure, their general market risk, or other trading activities.

In addition, in the ordinary course of their business activities, the Dealers and their affiliates may make or hold a broad array of investments and actively trade debt and equity securities (or related derivative securities) and financial instruments (including bank loans) for their own account and for the accounts of their customers. Such investments and securities activities may involve securities and/or instruments of the Issuer or the Issuer's affiliates. Certain of the Dealers or their affiliates that have a lending relationship with the Issuer routinely hedge their credit exposure to the Issuer consistent with their customary risk management policies. Typically, such Dealers and their affiliates would hedge such exposure by entering into transactions which consist of either the purchase of credit default swaps or the creation of short positions in securities, including potentially the Notes issued under the Programme. Any such positions could adversely affect future trading prices of Notes issued under the Programme. The Dealers and their affiliates may also make investment recommendations and/or publish or express independent research views in respect of such securities or financial instruments and may hold, or recommend to clients that they acquire, long and/or short positions in such securities and instruments.
